FARMERS UNION BACK OF PIERCE TAX PLANS

LEBANON, Or., Dec. 25.—The Oregon and Idaho Farmers union's annual session was closed here this morning with an endorsement of the program outlined to the meetings yesterday by Governor-elect Pierce in his announced attempt to reduce the burden of taxation carried by the farmers.

The final session was a brief one, the delegates departing immediately for their homes so as to arrive there in time to pass Christmas with their families.

Reports of the various committees were heard. The legislation framers recommended measures similar to those advocated by Mr. Pierce and the report was adopted unanimously.

In addition to this, the farmers went on record for strict enforcement of the prohibition laws and against any modification by congress of the Volstead act.

Recommendation to standardize farm products such as grain, hay and potatoes also was made. Election of officers was held yesterday and it was decided that the next convention is to be held in December, in some Lane county town.

OLD GUARD LEADERS WATCH PROGRESSIVES

WASHINGTON, Dec. 25.—(U. P.)—Administration leaders are keeping a close watch on preparations now being made for "Republican progressive" rallies in several states in February, the occasion of Lincoln's birthday. Republican observers believe that if any serious move is on foot to organize a third party movement for 1924 it will become apparent in these February meetings. Borah, La Follette, Norris and many other progressives will be making speeches. Borah speaks at Akron, and will be the center of interest.

FIRE BEAT SANTA

STOCKTON, Calif., Dec. 25.—(A. P.)—Instead of awakening to the cheer of gift laden Christmas trees, 24 families in an apartment house were stirred from their sleep at 3:30 this morning by a fire that forced them to flee for their lives in their night clothes. Fire department reports indicate all persons were saved without injury. Many of the upper floors were rescued by ladders. A short time after the fire started in the basement from an undetermined cause, the hapless families were huddled in the street, their Christmas presents were lost along with all other household possessions. The building was destroyed with a loss of $100,000.

SUGGESTS TRIPLE PLAN

TOKYO, Dec. 25.—(A. P.)—If France and Italy fail to ratify the Washington naval treaty, an agreement to carry it out might be arranged among England, America and Japan, the Piers were told today by Admiral Ito, speaking in place of Premier Kato, who is indisposed.

SNOW MISSING

Christmas Day, however, according to Captain Jess Buchanan of the Salvation army post in Pendleton. The pots on the street corners did not "boil" as much as usual, the captain states, and as a result, the organization has not been able to send out as many baskets as they ordinarily have. Six baskets were distributed during the morning, and dinners for 25 people, other than those served by the baskets, were provided.

There will be cheer for all the children of the city whose addresses Santa Claus may have forgotten when the army holds its Christmas tree at the hall on Alta street tomorrow night at 7:30 o'clock. Nuts, candy and other gifts will be distributed. Capt. Buchanan extended an invitation to Pendleton folks to join in making this

IRELAND WANTS TO COLLECT BACK TAX

DUBLIN, Dec. 25.—(A. P.)—The Irish income tax is raising several interesting problems. During the fight with the English, the order went forth that no Irishman should pay income tax to the British. It was difficult to collect it, therefore, and large arrears remained outstanding. When the treaty was made, the British assumed to the Irish government all the Irish arrears of income tax as an asset. Unless these arrears are paid the deficit of the Irish government will be considerably increased.

But there is now great heat about paying. People say it is hard enough to pay one year's income tax without adding arrears which they were not to pay, and have since spent. The suggestion has been made by a responsible financier that the pre-Treaty income tax should be wiped out. But the Irish government's agreement with the British assumed burdens for which these arrears were a set-off, and if the arrears are not paid, additional taxation will have to be imposed to meet these burdens.

Appeals are made on the ground of patriotism and duty to the new government, but it seems evident that a large part of the arrears are now uncollectable.

The future of the Irish income tax is also attracting attention. There is a considerable class of well-to-do people, although domiciled in Ireland, who have property in England, and there are many resident in England who have property in the Free State. Hitherto all these people have paid income tax in one form to the British government, but now it is feared that they may have to submit to a double income tax. It is a grievance familiar in the Dominions, and an agitation is on foot to relieve these taxpayers from a repetition of that grievance in Ireland.
