Betty Jean Spencer Ehlers

Pendleton

July 11, 1928-December 31, 2014

Betty Jean Spencer Ehlers was born July 11, 1928, in Nampa, Idaho, and died December 31, 2014, in Pendleton, Oregon. She was the daughter of Susan Mildred Young Spencer and Richard Ayres Spencer, and was born the youngest of 8 children. Betty passed away peacefully after a short illness surrounded by family.

She graduated from the College of Idaho in Caldwell, Idaho, and while on the debate team there she met the love of her life, Leeroy Otto Ehlers. They married in 1949, and moved to Oregon, where they lived for the 55 years of their marriage. They raised three children, Jonathan (Jon), Martha Ehlers Simonds, and Sara Ehlers Crawford (Sally). Together Betty and Leeroy were role models in their Christian faith, and were long-time members of Peace Lutheran Church in Pendleton. They loved to entertain, and Betty enjoyed their dinner club and sharing recipes with close friends in Pendleton. She brought enthusiasm, energy and organization to everything she did. She enjoyed reading a good book, volunteering, good food, musicals and time with friends and family.

Betty also enjoyed her professional life as the Women's Editor at the East Oregonian, and was an active participant in community organizations, including a long membership in the philanthropic group, P.E.O. Chapter EM and, along with Leeroy, in Lion's Club.

Betty was a quiet woman with a strong personal foundation. She was intelligent and faithful, extremely well loved, and will be missed by all who knew her.

We will miss her earthly presence, spirit, sense of humor, gifts of empathy and ability to empower others. May God grant her eternal peace.

A viewing will be held Friday, January 9, at Pendleton Pioneer Chapel, Folsom-Bishop from 12:00 p.m. until 4:30 p.m.

A celebration of Betty's life will be held at 2:00 p.m. on Saturday, January 10th at Peace Lutheran Church in Pendleton, Oregon. A reception will follow.

She was preceded in death by her husband Leeroy Ehlers, five sisters (Katherine West, Virginia Smith, Lillie Moore, Michelle Kadie and Marguerite Brown), two brothers (Paul and Donald Spencer), and her parents. She leaves behind Jon (Theresa) Ehlers, Marti (Ron) Simonds and Sara (Marcus) Crawford, as well as grandchildren Tonya Simonds and Kenneth (Rachael) Arthur, and several great-grandchildren.

Rhoda Hughson Vaughan

Walla Walla

August 8, 1918-January 5, 2014

Rhoda Hughson Vaughan passed away peacefully at Wheatland Village in Walla Walla on January 5, 2015. Funeral services will be held at 10 a.m. on Friday, January 9, 2015, at the Episcopal Church of the Redeemer, 241 S.E. Second, Pendleton. Interment will follow at Olney Cemetery.

She is survived by her daughter, Catherine Diener and her son-in-law Steven Diener. She was predeceased in death by her husband of 52 years, Thomas Vaughan Jr., and her daughter, Jule Elizabeth Vaughan.

She was born in Fettercairn, Scotland, August 8, 1918. Her parents, Andrew Hughson and Harriett Johnson, brought her and her brother and two sisters to the United States in 1919. Her mother passed away in 1921 and she was raised by her father and stepmother, Mary Hughson, in Sharon, Pennsylvania.

She graduated from Sharon High School and was employed by the local phone company as an operator for a short time. She became the receptionist at Wilson's Furniture Store where she worked for several years until she met a young engineer for Westinghouse, Tom Vaughan. They were married in July 1943. After the war, they moved to San Francisco where Tom was again employed as an engineer for Westinghouse.

In 1953 the family moved to Pendleton where Tom joined his father on the family farm. After her daughters left home for college, Rhoda opened a boutique in her home specializing in upscale women's clothing. She continued to run her shop until she was in her late 70s. Vaughan's Boutique was the delight of her life next to Tom and the girls. She lived in Pendleton until the death of her daughter Jule in 2010. She moved to Walla Walla and lived there until her death.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests that donations be made to the Walla Walla Community Hospice or the American Cancer Society.

Online condolences may be shared with the family at www.pioneerchapel.com
