Oklahoma State upsets Texas in overtime thriller

Top 25 teams take lumps on wild Wednesday

By The Associated Press

AUSTIN, Texas — Phil Forte made two free throws with 2.1 seconds left in overtime and Oklahoma State beat No. 25 Texas 65-63 on Wednesday night, handing the Longhorns' their fourth loss in a row.

Le'Bryan Nash scored 17 points for the Cowboys (15-7, 5-5 Big 12), who led most of the game, only to see Texas rally in the final minute of regulation to tie.

Isaiah Taylor scored 18 points for Texas (14-8, 3-6). He had the final six points in regulation.

Forte, an 85-percent free-throw shooter on the season had a big miss late in regulation, but calmly made his last shots for the win.

Texas' Connor Lammert tied it at 63 when he made one of 2 with 11.6 seconds left.

Texas had a final chance to win, but Taylor's long, running 3-pointer at the buzzer bounced off the side of the rim.

After Lammert's free throws, Oklahoma State got the ball to Forte, who had struggled most of the second half to find an open shot against a stifling Texas defense. But the lane opened up and Forte drove, drawing a foul against Cam Ridley.

Forte, who had been dogged by chant of "air-ball" from the home crowd in the second half, went through several practice motions before making the free throws to lift the Cowboys to their first Big 12 road win of the season.

Oklahoma State's Phil Forte III (13) is fouled by Texas' Cameron Ridley, right, as he tries to score during the second half of an NCAA college basketball game, Wednesday, Feb. 4, 2015, in Austin, Texas. Oklahoma State won in overtime 65-63.

Hickey added 15 points for the Cowboys.

PURDUE 60, NO. 20 OHIO STATE 58 — At WEST LAFAYETTE, Ind., Raphael Davis scored 20 points and Purdue staved off a late rally. The surging Boilermakers (15-8, 7-3 Big Ten) have won four straight overall and three in a row over ranked teams — the first time they've done that as an unranked team since early 1979.

The Buckeyes (17-6, 6-4) were led by D'Angelo Russell's 20 points, but his 40-foot desperation heave at the buzzer came up way short.

Ohio State played without Marc Loving, suspended for unknown reasons. Yet the Buckeyes hung tough. After trailing 36-28 early in the second half, they charged back to take two brief leads, at 41-40 and 44-42.

Purdue then answered with 10 straight points to make it 52-44. But the Boilermakers' woeful free-throw shooting allowed Ohio State to get as close as 59-58 with 6.4 seconds left.

PROVIDENCE 74, NO. 24 GEORGETOWN 71 — At Washington, Ben Bentil had 16 points and 11 rebounds, and Providence rallied to beat No. 24 Georgetown on Wednesday night.

LaDontae Henton also scored 16 points and Carson Desrosiers had 14 for the Friars (17-6, 7-3 Big East), who also beat the Hoyas 60-57 on Jan. 10.

Providence used a 20-6 run to take a 66-65 lead. The lead later changed hands four times in the final 1:51.

Trailing by one after two Desrosier free throws, Georgetown (15-7, 7-4) turned the ball over while inbound under the Friars' basket with 11 seconds left.

Bentil's two free throws made it 74-71, and a 3-point attempt by Georgetown's D'Vauntes Smith-Rivera rolled around the rim and out with two second remaining.

No. 4 DUKE 72, GEORGIA TECH 66 — Durham, N.C., Quinn Cook scored each of his 17 points in the second half, and No. 4 Duke beat Georgia Tech 72-66 on Wednesday night to give coach Mike Krzyzewski his Atlantic Coast Conference-record 423rd league win.

Justise Winslow added 15 points and fellow freshman Jahliil Okafor had 14 for the Blue Devils (19-3, 5-3).

They never trailed in the second half — but didn't lead by more than seven points — and held firm in the final minute to win their second straight and give their Hall of Fame coach a second milestone in 11 days.

Krzyzewski, who earned his 1,000th career victory Jan. 25 at St. John's, surpassed former North Carolina coach Dean Smith as the winningest in ACC play.
