Zimmerman & Company True Value Hardware is a Pendleton landmark offering everything from tools to fishing tackle! Zimmerman & Co., in business for over 60 years, is a full line "True Value Hardware Store" featuring Tru-Test paint, electrical supplies, plumbing supplies, hardware, locks and fasteners of all types, FAX service. Customer service comes first at Zimmerman & Company. These people can help answer all your questions. Computer paint matching for interior/exterior paint will make sure the color is just right. All types of pipe can be cut and threaded for you. Copper tubing is cut to length. Screen, window plastic and glass are cut to size. Zimmerman & Company also carries bulk quantities of nails, screws, drywall screws, sheet metal and self tapping screws, nuts, bolts and fasteners of all kinds. Problem solving and special orders are their forte.

Few people realize there is no one associated with the business by the name of Zimmerman! The name is the result of an early partnership between the founder of Zimmerman & Company - Lee A. Sawalish and a LaGrande, Oregon furniture store owner, Doyle Zimmerman. Mr. Zimmerman's interest was purchased from him in the early 1950's. Zimmerman & Company then became a partnership between Lee Sawalish and his son, Robert. In the middle 80's, Robert Sawalish, the surviving partner formed a corporation, and son Jim Naughton and daughter-in-law Judy Naughton along with their son Jim, later became stock holders and partners in Zimmerman & Company, Inc. Four generations of the same family have operated this firm since 1939.
