

PUBLIC SAFETY LOG

TUESDAY

- A staff member of Irrigon Junior-Senior High School, Irrigon, at 8:33 a.m. asked the Morrow County Sheriff's Office to look at a letter a parent brought that contained threats to students and parents.
- A Stanfield-area man at 8:46 a.m. reported a woman in Walla Walla has been harassing him via the Internet. He claimed she sent emails to his employer stating he was harassing her, and she sent resignation letters in his name.
- A Pendleton woman at 8:55 a.m. reported a semi parked the wrong way on Southeast Fourth Street near Emigrant Avenue. She said she also reported this Monday, and while an officer responded, nothing changed. She asked for police to contact her at her residence within 10 to 15 minutes. An officer tagged the semi.
- Pendleton police at 9:29 a.m. received a call from a nurse who said two pit bull dogs attacked a woman on Southwest 19th Street and killed a kitten. The woman ended up in a hospital for a couple of days, the caller said.
- A Pendleton woman at 10:07 a.m. reported someone parked behind her vehicle on Northwest Bailey Avenue and he cannot leave. She said she repeatedly left notes on cars about parking issues and nothing changes.
- A Pendleton resident at 11:36 a.m. reported a scam. She said she received a call from a female at 208-801-0782 who said the government would give her $1,000, but she will have to call and enter a secret code. The caller sounded foreign, she said, and she wanted police to know about the incident.
- A caller at 2:01 p.m. reported a 15-year-old boy pulled a 1997 red Ford pickup into the Irrigon Shell station, and the teen was driving alone.
- A male at about 3 p.m. "went belligerent" at Irrigon Junior-Senior High School, Irrigon, after the principal refused to return a cellphone the school confiscated from a student.
- A Heppner man at 7:42 p.m. reported the theft of an engine hoist from Northwest West Street, Heppner.
- A city of Umatilla resident at 10:26 p.m. reported receiving threatening texts from someone named "Weasel," and now it sounded like someone was outside her residence. She asked for police to respond.

ARRESTS, CITATIONS

- Milton-Freewater police arrested Trevor Nicholas McWaters, 21, of Joseph, for possession of methamphetamine.

BRIEFLY

4-H Horse Classic kicks off Saturday

PENDLETON — Helen Windham, who represented Oregon National 4-H Horse Roundup this fall in Kentucky, will share about her experience during this weekend's Umatilla County 4-H Horse Classic. The event begins Saturday at 9 a.m. in the second floor conference room in Umatilla Hall at Blue Mountain Community College in Pendleton. Other 4-H members will give presentations. For more information, call Claire Sponseller 541-278-5404

Dance competition features 37 teams

PENDLETON — Nearly 40 teams are expected to compete in this weekend's Hearts in Motion dance competition. Pendleton High School's Rhythmic Mode dance team hosts the event, which also serves as a fundraiser for the team. The doors open Saturday at noon and the grand march starts at 12:45 p.m. at the school's Warberg Court, 1800 N.W. Carden Ave., Pendleton. Tickets are $8 for adults and students.

The event includes approximately 350 dancers that range from kindergarten to high school seniors. In addition, there are two exhibition groups, including pre-school dancers.

A concession booth will be available for food and beverage purchases.

Cello recital set for Saturday

PENDLETON — Cello students of Loree McKenna and Rebekah Facciuto will present a recital at Pendleton Center for the Arts. The free event is Saturday at 2 p.m. at 214 N. Main St., Pendleton. The public is invited to attend. Those performing are Ashtyn Larsen, Kylee Henderson, Caleb Greenhalgh, Abigail Lozier, Shaelynn Silva, Caleb Picken, Hayden Garton, Kieric Speakman, Emily Long, Sam Coleman and Jenna Harrison. In addition, a pair of cello ensembles will present two numbers each: Perfect Purple Penguins with Caleb Picken and Hayden Garton, and Turtle with Emily Long, Sam Coleman, Kieric Speakman and Jenna Harrison.

Andrew Picken will accompany. For more information, call McKenna at 541-276-4237.

Life Line offers medical screening

PENDLETON — Non-invasive procedures offered through Life Line Screening identify potential heart conditions, heart disease, stroke risk and bone density screening to assess osteoporosis risk.

Area residents can take advantage of a variety of screenings during an upcoming health screening clinic Tuesday, March 3 at Peace Lutheran Church, 210 N.W. Ninth St., Pendleton. Packages start at $149. Pre-registration is required.

For more information or to register, call 877-237-1287 or visit www.lifelinescreening.com.

Community theater announces auditions

PENDLETON — College Community Theatre will conduct auditions for its spring production of "The Orphans."

The heartfelt comedy written by James Prideaux centers around two wealthy and eccentric sisters who have lived nearly in exclusion in their hotel room since their parents died 25 years earlier.

Auditions are Tuesday and Wednesday at 7 p.m. in Bob Clapp Theatre in Pioneer Hall at Blue Mountain Community College, 2411 N.W. Carden Ave., Pendleton. The cast calls for three adult women (two major roles and one minor) and three adult men (one major role and two minor). Students, staff and community members are invited to try out — no previous experience or preparation is required. Scripts are available for review. Directed by Craig McIntosh, the production will be staged May 14-17 and 21-24.

For more information, contact McIntosh at 541-278-5928 or cct@bluecc.edu.
