PUBLIC SAFETY LOG

WEDNESDAY•Pendleton police at 10:27 a.m. received a report of medication theft at St. Anthony Hospital, Pendleton. The case is under investigation.

 A Schwan's Food Co. vehicle crashed at about 12:15 p.m. at East Elm Avenue and Diagonal Boulevard. The driver reported dozing off before the truck flipped. No one was injured.

•A woman at 12:50 p.m. told Pendleton police a man assaulted a woman at Domino's Pizza, 1211 S.W. Emigrant Ave. She said the man jumped out of the back of a dark green Ford F250 pickup with Oregon plates, opened the driver's door and head butted the female driver and then punched her. Police did not find the culprit.

•A woman at about 1:40 p.m. urinated in the parking lot of the Tesoro station, Umatilla. A caller who reported the incident said she may be intoxicated.

 A woman at 3:08 p.m. reported someone poached a deer on their property on Highway 332, Milton-Freewater.

•A Pendleton-area woman at 3:47 p.m. told the Umatilla County Sheriff's Office she was ready to sign a complaint because her neighbor's dogs on Meadow Drive constantly bark. She said law enforcement has warned the neighbors but "the situation is getting our of hand."

•Pendleton police at 3:52 p.m. received a report a male was following a juvenile female and may be intent on abusing

•Umatilla police at 4:57 p.m. received a second-hand report that a mother was beating her daughter. Police were not able to contact the person who made the report.

•A mother at 5:21 p.m. told Pendleton police a juvenile with an Air Soft gun shot her son at the skate park. She asked police to check on the situation at the park and speak to the young people involved in the incident.

•A caller at 11:18 p.m. reported a Pendleton juvenile was the victim of an assault at the hands of another student at about 3:15 p.m. at Roy Raley Park.

ARRESTS, CITATIONS

•Milton-Freewater police arrested Julie Marie Moore, 40, of Milton-Freewater, on a city warrant and for identify theft, first-degree forgery, second-degree theft and first-degree criminal mistreatment.

•Umatilla police arrested Jose Manuel Alaniz, 32, of Umatilla, for felon in possession of a firearm.

•The Umatilla County Sheriff's Office arrested Shaun Allen

Dick, 37, of 72654 Reinhart Road, Pendleton, for first-degree sodomy, first-degree sexual abuse, and first-degree unlawful sexual penetration. All the charges are felonies. Dick pleaded not guilty Thursday in Umatilla County Circuit Court, Pendleton, to initial charges of sodomy and menacing. The sheriff's office worked the case for more than a month, according to a statement from the agency, after a woman reported Dick assaulted her at his residence south of Pendleton.

The case is likely to go to a grand jury to determine charges. Dick has another hearing Wednesday.

Library announces birthday bash

HERMISTON — In honor of Dr. Seuss, a free party is planned at the Hermiston Public Library.

Activities will include a craft, a Dr. Seuss book guessing game, cupcake decorating and carnival games. Also, several Seuss favorites will be read during the special story time.

The family-friendly event is Monday from 4:30-5:30 p.m. in the library's Lanham Room, 235 E. Gladys Ave., Hermiston.

In addition, while at the library be sure to check out Oregon Museum of Science and Industry's Magic Planet. The colorful globe with bright spinning displays and video films about Earth is on loan through the month of March.

The Magic Planet is connected to a laptop programmed by NASA to show dozens of moving images as our planet lights up and spins. Library patrons can use push-buttons to show brilliantly colored displays such as Earth's city lights, climate change, tsunamis, wind streams, ocean currents, geographic and topographic features.

For more information or if special arrangements are needed, call 541-567-2882.

Superintendent to address MUREA

PENDLETON — Pendleton School District Superintendent Jon Peterson will provide an update about the schools during the upcoming Morrow-Umatilla Retired Educators Association meeting.

The gathering is open to anyone interested – membership in MUREA is not limited to retired educators and support staff, but is open to anyone interested in education. The no-host luncheon meeting is Wednesday at 11:30 a.m. at Mac's Bar & Grill, 1400 S.W. Dorion Ave., Pendleton.
