

PUBLIC SAFETY LOG

MONDAY

•A two-vehicle crash shortly before 5:30 a.m. at West Eighth Road and Highway 730, Irrigon, sent one person to a hospital, but there were no reports of serious injuries. One vehicle, though, flipped on its top and blocked traffic for a while.

•An Athena resident at 10:51 a.m. asked the Umatilla County Sheriff's Office to send someone to deal with several dogs that run around South Second Street, dump over garbage cans and make large messes. She said the mutts even knocked opened her gate to get to the garbage.

•A man at about noon tried to pick up a medial prescription from Rite Aid, 1900 S.W. Court Place, Pendleton, only to find someone picked up that medication two weeks ago. A Rite Aid employee called police to report possible fraud or forgery.

•Pendleton's code enforcement officer from 1:25 to 1:44 p.m. tagged four vehicles as abandoned and ready for towing on Northwest 11th and Ninth streets.

•A resident on State Gulch Road outside Pendleton at 2:41 p.m. reported someone broke the mailbox and stole mail.

•A Hermiston-area resident at 2:49 p.m. asked law enforcement for extra patrols to curtail people speeding on East Elm Avenue.

•A caller at 4:45 p.m. asked Umatilla County dispatchers to send someone to pick him up from the city park in Adams and take him to a detoxification facility.

•A Pilot Rock officer at 5:08 p.m. contacted a resident on Southeast Fifth Street about his dog running loose. The resident said he knew this was a problem and it needed to be resolved, but the dog only gets loose when his son takes the dog for a walk and does not watch over it.

•A Pendleton resident at 5:56 p.m. reported a male pit bull dog that lives across from her at Southwest 31st Street and Lad-ow Avenue attacked and bloodied her terrier. She said this is the third time the pit bull attacked her dog, and each time required vet care.

•A female at 6:43 p.m. told Pendleton police a male she knows told her she cannot hide her car from him, and she feels he is stalking her.

•A Pilot Rock officer at 7:58 p.m. asked a Southwest Sixth Street resident about rabbits in the neighborhood. The officer said he saw rabbits under vehicles in the man's driveway. The man said the rabbits might belong to a neighbor, but the rabbits do not bother him.

ARRESTS, CITATIONS

•Pendleton police arrested Eric Scott Arbogast, 35, of Pendleton, after a woman at 9:38 a.m. reported he grabbed her, pulled her from a vehicle and took her keys. Police booked Arbogast into the Umatilla County Jail, Pendleton, for contempt of court, third-degree criminal mischief, unauthorized entry into a motor vehicle and harassment (offensive physical contact). All the charges are misdemeanors, and his initial bail was $20,000.

•Pendleton police arrested Sherry Jean Schiller, 32, of Pendleton, for unauthorized use of a vehicle.

OBITUARIES

Jennifer French Gilbert
Culbertson, Montana
August 24, 1961-February 26, 2015

Jennifer French Gilbert, 53, of Culbertson, Mont., died Thursday, February 26, 2015, in Culbertson. Services will be held in Ione on Saturday, March 28 at 11 a.m. at the Ione Community Church.

Jennifer was born in Portland, Ore., on August 24, 1961, to James and Rosemary Baechler French. She graduated from Pendleton High School in 1979 and Oregon Institute of Technology in 1981 with an associate's degree in dental assisting. She later earned a pharmacy technician certificate.

On November 17, 1984, Jennifer married Rick Gilbert in Pendleton. They later had two daughters, Brittany and Rachael. During the course of their 30-year marriage Rick and Jennifer lived in Arlington, Enterprise and Imnaha, Oregon, Etna, California and Alliance, Nebraska, where Rick worked on ranches or in ranch management. They moved to Culbertson in 2014.

Jennifer quickly made each house in which they lived a home welcoming to family and friends. She enjoyed testing new recipes or creating her own. She particularly liked cooking for family and friends who came to help work cattle. Jennifer was an accomplished seamstress who delighted in making Halloween costumes and special-occasion clothing for her girls. Jennifer was supportive of her family as a ranch wife, 4-H parent volunteer, Girl Scout leader and sports mom. She opened her heart, and sometimes her home, to any young person who needed stability, guidance and love. Her caring heart, sunny smile and laugh will be missed.

She is survived by her husband Rick Gilbert, daughters Brittany and Rachael, and mother Rosemary French, all of Culbertson, mother-in-law Lorrene Montgomery of Lexington, sister-in-law Kathy Gilbert Prater (Mike) of Nampa, Idaho, and by five daughters and a son she gathered along the way by choice.

She was preceded in death by her father, James French.
