

PUBLIC SAFETY LOG

TUESDAY

•A Pendleton man at 8:06 a.m. reported someone vandalized his 2001 Nissan Altima and broke its windshield on Southwest First Street.

•A male at about 8:15 a.m. tried to steal a valve off a trailer at Crop Production Services, 146 W Sherman St., Athena, but a company employee hollered at the would-be thief, who got into a white Ford Taurus and took off east on Second Street. The employee reported the suspicious male wore a baseball cap and camouflage coat, and there was an older man in the car along with two others. The employee said he wanted law enforcement aware of the incident.

•An employee with NextEra Energy at 11:29 a.m. reported vandalism to the wind turbines at top of Butler Grade near Vansycle Road, Helix. He said there was spray paint on towers and bullet holes in some signs, and asked for law enforcement to call him.

•The manager of Wildwood RV Park, 82280 Wildwood Lane, Umatilla, told police at 12:42 p.m. that five homeless camps are in trees behind the park. The caller said the camp residents could be entering the park at night, trying to use the showers and going through the residents' property.

•A man at 1:44 p.m. reported the theft of tools from a construction site on the west side of the Happy Canyon grounds on Westgate Drive, Pendleton.

•A Boardman resident at 2:48 p.m. reported her neighbor at Maple Crest Apartments, 700 Wilson Lane, threw garbage at her legs. The incident is under investigation.

•Two unleashed pit bull dogs at about 5:50 p.m. chased a 5-year-old girl at a bus stop at Umatilla High School, Umatilla. The girl's father called police and said speaking with the dogs' owner was not successful so he would like to speak to a police officer.

•A man at about 5:50 p.m. threatened the bartender at Hamley Steakhouse, 30 S.E. Court Ave., Pendleton. An employee reported the customer asked for a knife for some juicy meat and stated he was not being treated well. He told the bartender to watch out and then left, possibly intoxicated. Police were not able to find the man.

ARRESTS, CITATIONS

•Pendleton police arrested two Hermiston residents on drug charges and more. Officers arrested Angelica Maria Reyes, 27, for contempt of court, possession of methamphetamine and second-degree child neglect, and Joseph Matthew Taylor Coons, 24, for possession of methamphetamine.

•Pendleton police arrested John Moreno Mendoza, 34, no address provided, on a warrant and for possession of methamphetamine, resisting arrest and interfering with a peace officer.

Walden announces art contest

WASHINGTON, D.C. — Artistically talented high school students are invited to enter the Congressional Art Competition and possibly have their artwork displayed in the U.S. Capitol for one year.

U.S. Rep. Greg Walden, R-Ore., invites area students to submit their artwork for the contest, which began in 1982. Besides having their artwork displayed in the 2015 national student art exhibit in the Capitol, the winner also will receive complimentary round-trip airfare for two to visit Washington, D.C., see the exhibit and attend a reception in honor of their talent. The runners-up will be recognized locally and have their artwork hung in one of Walden's offices in Bend, Medford, La Grande or Hood River.

To enter the contest, students must submit no more than two pieces of artwork and the Student Information & Release Form by Tuesday, April 21, 2015. Email photos of the artwork in jpg format, along with the student release form, to litzow@mail.house.gov. Forms and information is available at <http://walden.house.gov/art-competition>.

Frances (Hart) Davison

Chandler, Arizona
March 8, 2015

Kathleen Frances (Hart) Davison passed away on March 8, 2015 in Chandler, Arizona at the age of 92.

Known as Frances, she was raised in Pendleton, the oldest child of Juanita and Harold Hart, sister of Bud (Harold), Loyal, and James Hart.

In 1941, she met and married her husband, Henry O. Davison, then a PFC. She became a career service wife traveling all over the United States and overseas including England, Labrador, Guam and Taiwan and visited many countries in Europe. She
