

PUBLIC SAFETY LOG

WEDNESDAY

•A Hermiston-area woman at 8:14 a.m. reported someone followed her home Tuesday night from her work in Washington. She told the Umatilla County Sheriff's Office she had issues with a male and it could be him. She said a vehicle during the evening pulled into the back of her neighbor's property and shut the lights off but kept running. She could not identify the make of the vehicle, and later saw a person prowling on her property. She also said a family member called the sheriff's office but hung up after getting a recording. Still, she asked to speak to a deputy.

•A city of Umatilla caller at 8:22 a.m. reported the theft of a miniature Harley Davidson motorcycle.

•A Umatilla officer at 9:38 a.m. took action about illegal dumping on Pine Tree Avenue.

•Pendleton police at 9:59 a.m. checked on an "attractive nuisance violation" for a Chevrolet pickup parked on a planting strip in front of Wally's Auto Sales, 613 S.E. Court Ave., Pendleton.

•And Pendleton police at 10:09 a.m. received a complaint about vines across the sidewalk on Southwest Marshall Avenue.

•The Morrow County Sheriff's Office at 11:01 a.m. received a report that a male earlier in the month assaulted an Irrigon woman in front of her child. The case is under investigation.

•About 50 cows at 11:16 a.m. were in the roadway at Craig Road and Purdy Lane, Hermiston.

•A Weston caller at 4:35 p.m. reported receiving threats after he turned in a person who was wanted on a warrant.

•Three teenagers at about 8:30 p.m. walked out of the Golden Village Restaurant, 501 N. Main St., Milton-Freewater. The dine-and-dash tactic was part of an episode of the new TV sitcom "Fresh Off the Boat."

ARRESTS, CITATIONS

•Pendleton police arrested Kevin James Crane, 22, of Pullman, Washington, on a warrant after a caller at 1:03 a.m. reported a male broke windows out of the real estate business on Southwest Third Street and Court Avenue.

•The Umatilla County Sheriff's Office arrested Noel Marie Weems, 24, of Hermiston, for identity theft, credit card fraud and theft of lost/mislaidd property.

•Hermiston police arrested Brandie Mae Chapman, 43, a fugitive out of Washington state who in January of 2014 was the subject of a Tri-Cities, Washington, CrimeStoppers bulletin for evading court appearances related to multiple counts of theft and possession of methamphetamine.

Douglas Lee Heimgartner

Walla Walla
March 3, 1943-March 16, 2015

Douglas Lee Heimgartner, 72, died March 16, 2015. Doug was born on March 3, 1943, to Leo and Waneta Heimgartner in Lewiston, Idaho.

Heimgartner

He graduated from Lewiston High School, joined the National Guard, and attended Washington State University.

He received his bachelor's in business administration from WSU and became a CPA soon thereafter. He moved to Walla Walla, where he began his career with Niemi Holland & Scott, later becoming a partner within the firm.

He married Patsy Dodd from Touchet, Wash., on July 24, 1976. Doug's only child, Gregory Lee Heimgartner, was born on Oct. 17, 1979.

He loved hunting, fishing and spending time with his family. Doug's dedication to his work was incredible and he especially enjoyed working with the region's farmers. He worked extensively on tax law and with the U.S. Congress on agricultural legislation in support of our nation's farming community.

Doug was a 49-year member of Lewiston Elks Lodge #896 and an associate member of Walla Walla Elks Lodge #287.

Doug is survived by his companion, Patsy; his son,

Greg; and two brothers, Louis Heimgartner (Alice) of Lewiston Idaho, and Larry Heimgarder (Debbie) of Wilmington, Calif. He is also survived by one niece, Jody Meling (David) of Walla Walla, and one nephew, Scott Heimgartner of Lewiston, Idaho. Doug also had numerous great-nieces and -nephews. He was preceded in death by his parents.

Viewing and visitation will be held on Sunday, March 22, 2015, from 1 p.m. until 5 p.m. at the Herring Groseclose Funeral Home, 315 W. Alder, Walla Walla. The funeral service will be held on Monday, March 23, 2015, at 2 p.m. at the Herring Groseclose Funeral Home, followed by a reception to be held at the Walla Walla Elks Lodge #287, 351 E. Rose St, Walla Walla. Interment will be private.

Memorial contributions may be made to the NRA Foundation Youth Hunting Education Endowment; The Walla Walla Elks Lodge #287, Lewiston Elks Lodge #896 or the charity of your choice through the funeral home.

Family and friends are invited to sign the online guest-book at www.herringgroseclose.com.

William 'Bill' Miller

Pendleton
November 20, 1941-March 17, 2015

Miller

Bill Miller, 73, passed away at St. Anthony Hospital in Pendleton on March 17, 2015. A celebration of life service will be at 11:00 a.m. on Saturday, March 21, 2015, at Peace Lutheran Church in Pendleton.

Bill was born in Washington, D.C., on November 20, 1941, to John William and Catherine Cecilia (Lloyd) Miller. He attended Catholic schools in Silver Spring, Md., and graduated from Mackin High School in Washington, D.C. After one year attending the University of Maryland, Bill traveled the West and worked for the BLM in Burns, Oregon. After passing his pre-induction physical, he enlisted in the U.S. Army and served in Vietnam in Special Forces. He was awarded the Combat Infantryman's Badge and Bronze Star.

Following his discharge, he attended college in Bend and graduated with a degree in science from Monmouth, Oregon. He then attended and graduated from Northwestern School of Physical Therapy in Chicago. He worked in Pendleton as a physical therapist for St. Anthony Hospital and the Umatilla Education Service District.

While attending Central Oregon Community College in 1967, Bill married Virginia Anderson. They lived in Bend, Salem, Chicago and Pendleton. They have three children: Arthur of North Carolina, Teresa (Ivan) of Harrisburg, Pa., and Kimberly of Washington, D.C.

Bill was involved in numerous volunteer activities. He enjoyed reading, especially history related to the Civil War, running, and hunting. He was also a competitive shooter in the game of Cowboy Action Shooting. He and his family attended Peace Lutheran Church. He will be buried at Willamette National Cemetery in Portland, Ore.

Memorial donations in memory of Bill may be made to Peace Lutheran Church or Neighbor to Neighbor in care of Pendleton Pioneer Chapel, 131 S.E. Byers Ave., Pendleton, OR 97801.

Online condolences may be shared with the family at www.pioneerchapel.com
