Tigers cruise through home tournament

By SAM BARBEE

After the Stanfield baseball team's first four games this week, head coach Bryan Johnson gave his sophomore-laden squad a C average.

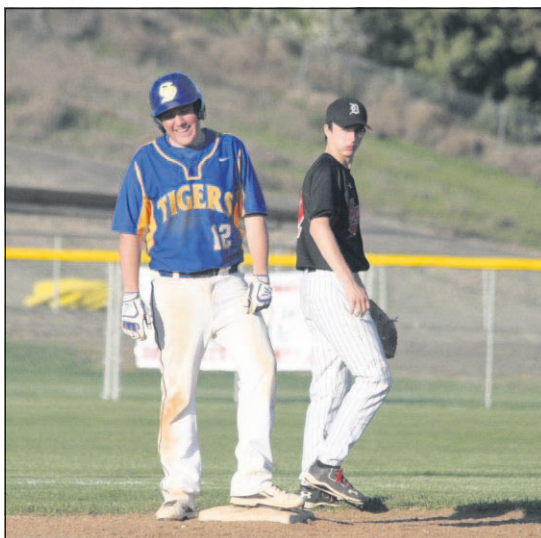

After three wins late this week, capped by routs of Dufur (7-0) and Sheridan (12-2) Friday, Johnson bumped that grade up to a B, B-plus.

"I saw a lot of good things all around (Friday) — base running, hitting, pitching, defense," he said. "Mentally we're in the game."

Dylan Grogan got the start on the mound versus Dufur and was solid. He threw six innings of shut-out ball on one hit, striking out seven and walking five. Grogan didn't allow a runner to pass second base, and Dufur's first man to reach third came in the top of the seventh.

Grogan helped himself at the plate, too. The right-hander went 2-for-4 at the dish with two singles and an RBI. Thylor Monkus was 1-for-3 with a double and two runs scored, and Hunter Barnes chipped in with a double, as well.

"The first few games, we were all trying to hit home runs," he said. "It's just getting back into baseball. These three games we just wanted to play some baseball and win some games." After dismal offensive performances in its first three outings — including being one-hit by Cashmere last week — Stanfield's offense has come to life. Jenson, Grogan, Flores and Hunter Barnes each had two RBIs versus Sheridan, and Flores was 3-for-4 and Barnes 3-for-3. Grogan had a triple, Flores had two doubles and eight Tigers drove in runs. As a team, the Tigers pounded out 15 hits and allowed just four.

Thylor Monkus went the distance on the bump in the second game. In his five innings, the sophomore rightly allowed four hits, two unearned runs, struck out five and walked three.

O'ROURKE: Buckaroos lose two games

Continued from 1B scored and one RBI in six games with Pendleton this season.

With O'Rourke out of the lineup, Pendleton dropped two games Friday, falling to 1-7 on the season. Hillcrest (ID) got the better of the Bucks in the morning with a 6-5 win and Twin Falls (ID) downed them in the afternoon 4-2.

Hillcrest capped a late rally with a walk-off single from catcher Chase Stauffer.

Pendleton opened the game with a run in the first and added to the advantage with two more in the second. The game seesawed back with five consecutive Knight runs, before Pendleton evened the score with two runs in the sixth inning. Brady Smith and Tony Papol supplied the sixth-inning tying runs.

Twin Falls defeated Pendleton in similar fashion later in the day. The Bruins broke up a 2-2 tie in the fifth with a go-ahead hit.

Quinn Cockburn threw a complete game versus Twin Falls, but took the loss.

Sophomore Wyatt Morris finished the day with three hits, two runs scored and two runs batted in. Pendleton hosts La Grande Tuesday at 4 p.m.

Rockets roll in Union

Pilot Rock sets up battle of unbeaten with reigning champs

East Oregonian

UNION — Four innings of work was all Pilot Rock softball coach Darin Fitzpatrick required of his starting lineup on Friday as the Rockets cruised to wins over Colton and Burns at the Union Spring Break Bash.

The Rockets scored all of their runs in the first four innings of an 11-0 mercy-rule win over Colton, then gave most of their starters a rest while beating Burns 6-1.

"The pitching was on all day long so that allowed me to move kids around and get a look at some things. I wasn't too worried about (the other team) scoring runs," said Fitzpatrick.

Rebekka Holman threw a one-hitter while striking out nine and walking two in the win over Colton, and Tehya Ostrom held Burns to two hits while striking out 12. Both were supported by solid offense as the Rockets (9-0) totaled 17 hits on the day. Bekah Roe, Bailey Weinke, Sara Weinke and Ostrom all had doubles against Colton and Shayla Walker hit two against Burns.

The Rockets will be back at full strength today when they play tournament host and reigning state champion Union at noon.

Both teams have yet to lose a game this season.

East Oregonian

JOHN DAY — The Pilot Rock baseball team split its first two games at the Les Schwab Ice-breaker on Thursday and Friday.

The Rockets (2-2) couldn't make their early lead against Estacada last on Thursday and fell 8-6.

But a strong outing on the mound by Jacob Pierce and some timely hitting lifted the Rockets past Enterprise 8-3 on Friday.

Pierce pitched a complete game with eight strikeouts to three walks and three hits allowed.

He also went 2 for 4 at the plate, and Braydon Postma and Dillon Fritz each drove in two runs in the win.

Pierce went 3 for 4 against
