

PUBLIC SAFETY LOG

FRIDAY

•A caller at 8:45 a.m. reported the theft of tools from the laundry room at the Rodeo City Inn, 74149 Barnhart Road, Pendleton.

•A caller at 9:20 a.m. complained to Pendleton police about graffiti “getting really bad” under the Main Street Bridge.

•A Pendleton property owner at 10:05 a.m. asked police to ticket several college-age males living on the 900 block of South Main Street for parking in a no-parking zones and parking the wrong way on the street. That later situation, of course, is common in much of Pendleton.

•An Irrigon woman at 12:57 p.m. reported her juvenile daughter destroyed her house and cut the phone line with an ax. The girl left the residence, the mother said, and she asked to meet with a Morrow County sheriff’s deputy and arranged for her daughter to move to Pendleton.

•A caller at 2:23 p.m. told Pendleton police his vehicle was towed from a service station and now is missing three subwoofers, three amps and detailing equipment, and the car also has a dent.

•A Pendleton man at 3:02 p.m. reported the theft of a 14-foot-long green kayak.

•An Irrigon boy sent texts messages to a girl, his mother reported at 4:54 p.m., and he received a threatening message from the girl’s mother. The Morrow County Sheriff’s Office checked it out and found another girl sent the threat. Law enforcement also informed the parents.

•An Irrigon resident’s cows keep breaking a neighbor’s fence on Washington Lane, the aggrieved property owner reported at 6:26 p.m. He asked the Morrow County Sheriff’s Office for advice on how to hold the cows’ owner responsible; the sheriff’s office told him this was a civil matter.

•A caller in Umatilla at 7:57 p.m. reported two 40-something men admitted they severely beat her ex-husband sometime after 1999. She asked police to investigate.

•A Milton-Freewater woman on Steen Road at 8:24 p.m. reported someone tried to enter her daughter’s window and the culprit could be outside. The Umatilla County Sheriff’s Office took a report.

•A man at 8:47 p.m. asked to speak to Pendleton police about “disturbing content on the Internet” regarding his nephew and a female.

SATURDAY

•A caller on Washington Street, Umatilla, told police at 9:04 a.m. a female grabbed her mother from behind and choked her. The caller also said she had to break it up. Police took a report.

•Two pit bull dogs attacked a Milton-Freewater man. A neighbor at 3:11 p.m. called for the victim and reported the man tried to intervene when the dogs attacked some bicyclists going by his residence just east of Winesap Road on Highway 332. The victim declined medical help.

•A Heppner resident at 4:21 p.m. said her neighbor on Southeast Green Street is in a hospital, and no one is taking care of the neighbor’s 35 cats, which is causing problems.

•A Pendleton mother at 4:52 p.m. reported her son got into a fight with a two females at Roy Raley Park.

•A resident on Washington Street, Umatilla, complained to police at about 8:50 p.m. about neighbors who had a fire and were making explosions loud enough to wake him from sleep. Police responded and issued warnings.

SUNDAY

•Two females at about 12:15 a.m. drew a complaint because they started and stopped a black Ford Focus they were in at West Coe Avenue and South Main Street, Stanfield, and got out and danced in the street. A caller said the girls looked to be high schoolers.

•A Milton-Freewater man at 1:46 a.m. reported a Toyota 4Runner struck his residence on Southeast Second Street, and there was water running inside his place. Milton-Freewater police determined this was in the jurisdiction of the Umatilla County Sheriff’s Office, which responded. A note in the sheriff’s call log indicated there was an arrest, but there was no information about who or what for.

•A Pendleton resident at 5:44 a.m. reported a male was in his back yard throwing rocks at windows.

•A caller at 7:37 a.m. reported the theft of his black 1995 Honda from Southeast Third Street, Pendleton.

•A 62-year-old Irrigon man required an ambulance ride after a caller at 8:22 a.m. reported he fell down stairs, broke a leg and may have suffered other injuries.

•A Hermiston horse boarder at 3:21 p.m. reported four missing horses. He told the Umatilla County Sheriff’s Office a man he fired last week may have stolen them.

•An Irrigon resident on Washington Lane at 9:07 p.m. reported hearing six shots from what sounded like a high-powered rifle.

•A caller at 10:12 p.m. reported someone threw rocks at his grandmother’s house on Railroad Street, Weston.

Louis L. Clark

Hermiston

November 3, 1932-March 17, 2015

Louis L. Clark, longtime Hermiston resident, was born on November 3, 1932, in South Wheatland Township, Decatur, Illinois, to parents Bonnie and Elva Adams Clark. He died on March 17, 2015, in Hermiston, Oregon, at the age of 82 years.

Clark

Louis was raised and attended school in Harriestown, Illinois, graduating from Niantic-Harriestown High School in 1950. He joined the United States Marine Corps in 1952 and was stationed in Japan before his honorable discharge with the rank of sergeant. Louis was united in marriage to Barbara Hamilton on June 10, 1955, in Decatur, Ill.

He worked as a welder for USI in Villa Grove, Ill., and later for Firestone Tire as a machinist in Decatur, Ill., until his retirement in 1986. They moved to Mount Carmel, Ill., and then to Hermiston, Oregon, in 1987 where they have lived since.

Louis was very active in the Masonic Blue Lodge where he was Past Master, Commandery and Consistory, Shrine 32nd Degree State Secretary, and held multiple offices in the Ansar and Al Kader temples. Louis had a passion for collecting and delivering donations for the Shriners Hospital for Children in Portland, Oregon. He was well known for his little yellow Shriners car that he drove in many regional parades over the years. Louis enjoyed hunting, playing pinochle, and was a devoted grandpa. He was a maker of many products from his wood working shop ranging from small items to furniture. He was a member of the First Christian Church and a former member of the Elks Lodge.

He is survived by his wife of 59 years, Barbara Clark, Hermiston, Ore.; daughters Marianne Farney and husband Thomas, Hermiston, Ore., and Diane Mueggler and husband Scott, Kennewick, Wash.; son David Clark, Hermiston, Ore.; sister Betty Marsaglia and husband Don, Sun Prairie, Wis.; four grandchildren: Daniel (Scarlet), Annamarie (Lewis), Barbi (Devin) and Caitlin (Beth); and numerous nieces, nephews, and cousins.

Louis was preceded in death by his parents; a brother, George Clark; and a sister, Eleanor Borders.

A memorial service will be held on Saturday, April 11, 2015, at 11:00 a.m. at Burns Mortuary chapel, Hermiston, Oregon, with Masonic Ritual.

Burial with military honors will follow at the Hermiston Cemetery, Hermiston, Oregon.
