

PUBLIC SAFETY LOG

TUESDAY

•A Pendleton resident at 7:50 a.m. reported a vacuum sales person was at her house on Southwest Goodwin Avenue on Friday and since then she learned another police agency warned the salespeople were looking for places to rob. She wanted Pendleton police to be aware and asked to speak to an officer.

•A caller at 8:40 a.m. reported four black Angus heifers missing from a pasture on Leaf Lane, Hermiston. She said the gate was open and did not know if someone let out the cows or stole them.

•A man at 11:57 a.m. told Pendleton police his neighbor on Southwest Second Street told him there were two white males and a black male looking for him about 10 minutes ago, one may have had a gun and “they looked mean.” He asked police to check the area.

•An Echo resident at 12:35 a.m. reported a fraudulent call from someone who claimed to be with a tax board. The resident also said the phone was hacked because the caller identification showed the number for the Hermiston Police Department.

•An employee of Dean’s Market & Deli, 412 S.W. 20th St., Pendleton, asked police at 2:50 p.m. to remove an intoxicated person from the business.

•A Pendleton woman at 3:32 p.m. told police a woman “had road rage” yesterday in front of Denny’s, 610 Tutuilla Road, Pendleton, and followed her home. She asked to speak to an officer.

•A Umatilla resident at 5:22 p.m. reported someone slashed his vehicle’s tire on Chinook Avenue.

•A caller at 8:24 p.m. told the Umatilla County Sheriff’s Office that a relative bragged to family about stealing $3,000 from a church in the last week or so.

•An employee of Homestead Youth & Family Services, 816 S.E. 15th St., Pendleton, called for police at 8:39 p.m. to have an officer talk to two boys who are not getting along and try to sort out the situation.

OBITUARIES

Leora Maxine Fletcher Patton

Spokane

March 20, 1919-April 9, 2015

Leora Maxine Fletcher Patton, 96, was born March 20, 1919, at home on a farm near Dayton, WA to Orie and Lela Fletcher. She died April 9, 2015.

She was the oldest of six children. Her parents were farmers, and being the oldest she helped on the farm by caring for her younger siblings. She remained very close to them through the years.

Leora and her family grew up in Starbuck and Dayton, WA. After high school, Leora went to work for J.C. Penney. On May 12, 1940, Leora and Leonard Patton were married in Dayton, WA. They spent the next 68 years raising their four children, enjoying their nine grandchildren and 13 great-grandchildren

During WWII, the young couple was stationed at various military bases while Leonard was a flight instructor. The family lived in Walla Walla, Pasco, Valley and Farmington, WA before settling in Pendleton, OR where Leora later retired from J.C. Penney Co. While in Pendleton, Leora was very active in Calvary Baptist Church and in their missionary outreach group.

In 2003, they moved to Spokane, WA to a retirement community to be closer to two of their children and her siblings. Leora lost the love of her life, Leonard, on Dec. 25, 2008.

Leora was preceded in death by her brother, Eugene Fletcher. She is survived by her sisters, Alma Elaine Wolfe and Cletys Bowen; and her brothers, Gerald Fletcher and Cecil Fletcher. She leaves behind her children and their families; Michael & Sally Patton of Keizer, OR; Terry & Betty Patton of Spokane, WA; Fred & Barbara Patton of Denver, CO; and daughter, Linda & Dudley Bain of Spokane, WA.

Leora was a beautiful Christian. She will be remembered for her unflinching love and devotion to her family. She will be greatly missed by all.

Memorial contributions may be made in her name to Hospice of Spokane, 121 S. Arthur, P.O. Box 2215 Spokane, WA.

The family plans to have a memorial service in July at the annual family reunion to honor Leora.

Study club recognizes W-M seniors

ATHENA — A special art exhibit and open house is planned for female graduating seniors from Weston-McEwen High School.

The Athena Study Club will honor the students during their regular meeting time Friday at 12:30 p.m. at the Athena Public Library, 418 E. Main St. Sally Sundin, the program provider, will greet students with a description of the art exhibit. The students will meet members of the study club who will tour the art displays with them.

Originating in 1925, the Athena Study Club’s mission is for members to continue to learn and gain knowledge through a special time of sharing. The members exemplify how learning continues for a lifetime. Likewise, they wish to encourage Athena’s graduates to keep learning, using their talents wherever they are, to know how important it is to contribute their skills to their community through groups like the study club or other volunteer efforts.

The artwork of Todd Telander and that of his students will remain on display for five weeks at the library.

For more information about the study club, contact Sue Friese at 541-566-3880 or Judy Price at 541-566-2305.

Kindergarten signups include art show preview

PENDLETON — A special preview of the Pendleton School District and the Education Foundation of Pendleton art show is planned.

The student art show runs Tuesday and Wednesday from 11 a.m. to 7 p.m. and Thursday, April 23 from 7:30 a.m. to 4 p.m. at the Pendleton Convention Center, 1601 Westgate.

The special preview event is Tuesday from 5-7:30 p.m. There’s no admission charge and the event features student art from all Pendleton schools and musical performances from elementary students.

The art show is being held in conjunction with the Kindergarten Round-Up, which helps preregister incoming kindergarten students for the 2015-16 school year. Spanish-language interpreter will be available Tuesday and Wednesday from 5-7 p.m.

For more information, including a list of what to bring to register students, call your child’s school, the school district office at 541-276-6711 or visit www.pendleton.k12.or.us.
