

PUBLIC SAFETY LOG

THURSDAY

•Someone before 9:30 a.m. tried to steal a lawn mower from West Oregon Lane, Irrigon. The owner reported it was at the end of his property, far from where he left it.

•A Pendleton resident at 9:46 a.m. told police someone has been putting their trash in her garbage container on Southeast Seventh Street, and though it was emptied on Monday it now is half full.

•A Umatilla resident at 10 a.m. reported he fired a lawn care service because he believes one of its employee stole his sprinkler parts. The caller also said the same person made subtle threats about killing his dogs.

•Squatters took over a vacant home on the 400 block of Southwest Eighth Street, Pendleton, after its owner died. A relative told police at 11:09 a.m. the squatters are gone, along with some items.

•Pendleton police at 1:35 p.m. received a report of possible elder abuse.

•An employee of Eastern Oregon Alcoholism Foundation, Pendleton, told police at 3:05 p.m. that one client reported another client threatened to kill an Oregon Department of Human Services case manager. The caller said she told state social services, which contacted the district attorney.

•A Weston resident at 4:26 p.m. reported a suspicious male came to her door and tried to deliver a package from Staples. She checked to verify no one ordered anything, and by the time she returned to the door the male was gone. She said he was white, tall, had curly blonde hair and wore a lanyard with a badge hanging from his neck, dirty shirt and jeans.

•A Pendleton property owner at 5:27 p.m. reported renters were tearing off a porch from a house on Smith Lane, but they were aware they could not remove the porch just because they built it.

•Nearly two dozen cattle escaped from a pasture on Yellow Jacket Road, Pilot Rock, after a neighbor removed a fence to let his sheep graze on the cattle owners property. She reported the problem at 6:01 p.m. and said her cousin corralled the cattle at Cunningham Sheep Co on Wittiker flats, but one was missing. She asked to speak to the sheriff.

•A resident of Irrigon Mobile Court, Irrigon, told law enforcement at 10:26 p.m. someone has been stealing gas, but then he stole water and now his vehicle will not start. The caller also reported where the suspect lives.

•A resident of Viewcrest Apartments, 525 S.W. 13th Place, Hermiston, told police at 11:19 p.m. she heard gun shots, checked outside and found alcohol all over and that a bottle had hit her window. She also said a silver Dodge Charger was leaving.

•Oregon State Police arrested Jovanny Calderon-Cisneros, 22, no address provided, for duui.

•Oregon State Police arrested Larry Allen Stewart, 61, no address provided, for duui and reckless driving.

OBITUARIES

Carol L. Perrine

Pilot Rock
Sept. 24, 1933-April 15, 2015

Carol L. Perrine, a long-time Pilot Rock resident, passed away Wednesday, April 15, 2015. She was 81 years old.

Funeral services will be held Monday, April 20, 2015, at 2 p.m. at the Pilot Rock Baptist Church with burial to follow at Pilot Rock Cemetery.

Sign the online condolence book at www.burnsmortuary.com. Contributions in memory of Carol Perrine may be made to St. Jude Children's Hospital or the Pilot Rock Church of the Nazarene, and sent in care of Burns Mortuary of Pendleton, P.O. Box 489, Pendleton, OR 97801. Burns Mortuary of Pendleton is in charge of arrangements.

Carol was born in Pawnee, OK, on Sept. 24, 1933, to Harold and Ethel Berg. She was raised in Oklahoma where she attended schooling.

She married Jerry M. Perrine on Sept. 6, 1957. Together they raised four children.

They moved the family to Oregon in 1962. Soon after she worked for the Pilot Rock Post Office, and was eventually named postmaster.

After her retirement, she enjoyed spending winters in Arizona with her husband, Jerry. Her hobbies included walking, water aerobics, reading, crocheting, quilting and card-making. She was actively involved in the Pilot Rock Church of the Nazarene, and enjoyed the fellowship and friendships she found there.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Jerry in 2011.

She is survived by her four children: son, Ron Perrine & wife Jill of Weston, OR; daughter, Connie Norby & husband Mark of Sherwood, OR; son, Marty Perrine & wife Darlene of Pilot Rock, OR; and daughter, Judy Royce & husband John of Roseburg, OR; nine grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.
