PUBLIC SAFETY LOG MONDAY

•A caller at 7:03 a.m. reported a break-in and theft of various equipment at Threemile Canyon Farms, 75906 Threemile Canyon Road, Boardman. The Morrow County Sheriff's Office

•A man on Grant Road, Milton-Freewater told law enforcement at 8:50 a.m. someone smashed his mailbox and almost knocked it off the post. He said he found other mailboxes off their posts on the east side of Grant Road and on Telephone and Eastside roads as well.

•A caller at 3:30 p.m. reported a 2-3-year-old boy was unattended in the parking lot at South Hill Apartments, 248 S.W. 28th Drive, Pendleton.

•A Boardman man at 4:09 p.m. reported another man tried to buy some of his livestock, but the would-be buyer is under investigation for animal cruelty and is not to own animals.

•A Pendleton resident at 4:20 p.m. (don't laugh) reported her former neighbor, a man in his 50s, continues to threaten her and pointed his finger like a gun and told her to watch her

•A service truck hit a Walla Walla resident's vehicle at about 5 p.m. on the 1100 block of South Main Street. Milton-Freewater, and the truck and driver fled. The Walla Walla resident called police.

•Five people planting corn at about 5:15 p.m. in a field by Progress Road, Hermiston, had a fright. A male at a house with a big barn fired off a couple of shots in the corn planters' direction. One planter called the Umatilla County Sheriff's Office and said the shooter may not have seen them in the field, but they sure do not want it to happen again.

•A caller at 5:26 p.m. reported the theft of a blue, white and black Yamaha four-wheeler from an area on Stage Gulch Road, Stanfield.

•A woman at 5:45 p.m. told Pendleton police a 4-year-old child was running naked through sprinklers at Northwest Ellis Avenue and 10th Street. She said she found that inappropriate and wanted an officer to speak with the adults that are

•A man at 6:36 p.m. reported a neighbor in Irrigon is harassing his parents. He said the neighbor is upset about code enforcement issues on the parents' property and keeps bothering them about it and calling police about it.

•A Pendleton gas station manager at 7:21 p.m. reported an employee she fired two weeks ago has sent her threatening texts and today showed up at her house. She asked for an officer to meet her.

•A Pendleton property owner at 9:21 p.m. told police a male with a bicycle was hiding in an upstairs apartment on the 400 block of Southeast Third Street. The owner said he saw this on the camera he has and wanted police to check it out. Officers did not find the man.

•Umatilla residents at 10:42 p.m. complained about a neighbor who drove erratically and almost ran over them when they were walking on Pomono Drive. She said she could show an officer just which neighbor it was.

•A Pendleton resident who tried to break up a fight received a threat. She told police at 11:35 p.m. her neighbors were high on methamphetamine and fighting at Pendleton Square Apartments, 300 S.W. 28th Drive, Pendleton. She said she tried to intervene, but one man told her to leave or he would shoot her. She asked for an officer to come to the

ARRESTS, CITATIONS

•A mother at 6:47 a.m. reported she was told her son in Heppner was shot at his residence. She told the Morrow County Sheriff's Office she did not know more, only that something happened.

The sheriff's office responded and found her son, Jason Leon Bowles, 39, was not shot, and neither was anyone else. The sheriff's office arrested Bowles for false reporting and booked him into the Umatilla County Jail, Pendleton.

SCHOLARSHIP

Altrusa International of Hermiston

The Altrusa International of Hermiston Vocational Services Committee has selected two recipients for the named in honor of Dorothy Dorothy Juve Memorial Educational Scholarship: Brett Kane and Janelle Davis. Each student will receive $1,500 to assist with their education.

Brett is from Hermiston and currently attends University of Oregon. Janelle, also from Hermiston, attends Western Oregon University.

The Dorothy Juve Memorial Educational Scholarship is Altrusa's annual spring scholarship. It was Juve, who was dedicated to children and teaching; it was her life's passion.

This scholarship awarded to a student who is approximately two thirds of the way through a post-secondary program. It is intended to help the student attain the final credits needed in order to move into the job market.

Margaret Louise Quishenberry

Pendleton July 25, 1929-April 15, 2015

Margaret Louise Quishenberry, 85, of Pendleton died April 15, 2015, in Kennewick, Wash. Visitation will be from 12 to 4:30 p.m. on Friday, April 24, 2015, at Pendleton Pioneer Chapel, Folsom-Bishop. Funeral services will be at 3:00 p.m. Saturday, April 25 at the Pendleton Seventh-day Adventist Church.

Margaret and her twin Helen were born July 25, 1929, in Peoria, Ill., to Henry G. and Hattie May (Davis) Leidig. The family moved from Illinois to Louisiana when the twins were about 2 ½ years old. She graduated high school in Louisiana. In 1942 the family moved from Louisiana to the Pacific Northwest settling in the Grandview, Wash., area. In 1947, she married James R. Quishenberry. In 1948 they moved to Pendleton. She worked at several jobs in the area. She was an active member of the Seventh-day Adventist Church.

Survivors include her daughters Janice (Jorgen) Odegard and Sandra (Don) Cox; sister Helen Barbee; brothers Harold (Carolyn) Ledig and Jim (Nancy) Leidig; grandchildren Janelle (Tim) Barlow, Cameron Cox and Shannon (Tyler) Dodge; and several nieces and nephews. She was preceded in death by her husband Jim in 1994; parents Henry and Hattie Leidig; and brother Robert Leidig.

Memorial contributions may be made to the Pendleton Seventh-day Adventist Church or Harris Jr. Academy in care of Pendleton Pioneer Chapel, 131 S.E. Byers Ave., Pendleton, OR 97801.

Online condolences may be sent to www.pioneerchapel.com

Avoid Bathroom Dangers - CONCLUDED TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 24, 3:30 PM

Dangers exist all around your home, and unless safety precautions are in place, you leave yourself in danger. Aside from the kitchen, the bathroom is one of the most dangerous rooms in your home. Recognizing these dangers, and making some common sense decisions, will go a long way in protecting you and your family.

Learn the 411 on Medicare Coverage - CONCLUDED TUESDAY, MARCH 24, 3:30 PM

Medicare is a government-sponsored program that people over the age of 65 and those who meet their special criteria turn to for their social insurance. This program provides health insurance, normally to seniors. Come and learn more about what it covers and what it does not.

Durable Medical Equipment Can Keep You Independent TUESDAY, APRIL 28, 3:30PM

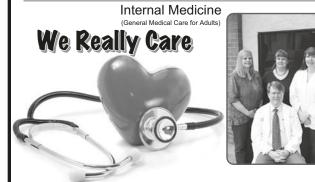

Durable medical equipment is any medical equipment used in the home to aid in a better quality of living. It is a benefit included through most insurance. In some cases, certain Medicare benefits may pay for them.
