

PUBLIC SAFETY LOG

TUESDAY

•A man living at Mountain Glen Apartments, Heppner, at 1:08 a.m. reported he loaned his vehicle to a woman he met a month ago, and she was to use it until she "got back on her feet." But she blocked his phone number and unfriended him on Facebook. He said he heard his vehicle was in Tacoma, Washington, and contacted police there.

•The Morrow County Sheriff's Office at 7:46 a.m. received another theft report from a man living at Mountain Glen Apartments, Heppner. The caller at 7:46 a.m. reported someone stole his compound bow, and he provided the names of people who might know more. The incident is under investigation.

•A resident of Southwest Haily Place, Pendleton, told police at 8:02 a.m. someone during the night threw eggs at her car.

•A manager of Keystone RV, Pendleton, at 8:04 a.m. reported the theft of a trailer from the business.

•A man at 9:02 a.m. reported the theft of a new Stihl chainsaw from his pickup on Basket Mountain Road, Weston.

•An Echo resident rode his bicycle at about 9:40 a.m. on West Halstead Street and yelled threats and obscenities to a man and his son. The wife and mother called police about the incident and said she can show where the cursing bicyclist lives.

•A caller at 10:03 a.m. told the Morrow County Sheriff's Office he wanted to report a case of elder abuse. Turned out it was about an ex-wife taking money from accounts and getting a restraining order against the caller. The sheriff's office found this was a civil problem.

•A Pendleton resident at 10:14 a.m. reported neighbors on Southwest 15th Street bought a vehicle but neither have a driver's license.

•A man at 10:23 a.m. reported he was fishing last night at Hat Rock Campground, Hermiston, when he received an obscene text from someone he does not know.

•Pendleton police at 10:56 a.m. received a report of possible child abuse.

•A Umapine resident at 12:47 p.m. reported she found $500 of fraud occurred on her bank account.

•A mother at 1:54 p.m. asked to speak to a Pendleton officer about her child's father possibly using fake identification to get a job and avoid paying child support.

•A Milton-Freewater woman who returned from vacation discovered someone seemed to have been in her house. She told the Umatilla County Sheriff's Office at 4:29 p.m. she saw no signs of a break-in or missing items, but she did find her Direct TV has pornographic recordings she was charged for while she was in Tennessee.

•A caller at 2:55 p.m. told Umatilla police someone during the night started a fire at storage units at North Fourth Street and Switzer Avenue. She asked for extra patrols because this is dangerous.

•A man in a downtown Pendleton bar at 3:35 p.m. told Pendleton police his father was driving drunk from Vancouver, Washington. Police did not find the driver.

•The owner of property on Southeast Third Street, Pendleton, told police at 4:17 p.m. someone for the past three months has thrown tricycles over a fence and damaged picnic tables.

•Occupants of a gray sedan at about 6:30 p.m. threw rocks at a sign on the north side of Grecian Heights Park, Pendleton.

•An Irrigon resident at 6:31 p.m. reported someone for the past month or two has thrown eggs on their property at River-view Mobile Court, and now the eggs are hitting the house.

•And another caller at 11:27 p.m. also reported a thrower. This time a female threw items at Su Garden, 502 S.W. Emigrant Ave., Pendleton, then walked into the street and headed to nearby Pendleton City Hall. There was no indication why the person threw things at the restaurant, which now offers some of the best pot stickers in town.

ARRESTS, CITATIONS

•Pendleton police arrested Stephanie G. Tiffany, 52, of 1312 S.W. 12th Court, Pendleton, for driving under the influence of intoxicants.

•Pendleton police arrested Mario I. Alferez, 25, of 265 N.W. Fourth St., Madras, for first-degree aggravated theft, first-degree burglary tools and possession of burglar tools.
