HONOR SOCIETY

BATON ROUGE, La. — Dawn DiFuria of Pendleton was recently initiated into The Honor Society of Phi Kappa Phi, the nation's oldest and most selective collegiate honor society for all academic disciplines. DiFuria was initiated at Arizona State University. DiFuria is among approximately 32,000 students, faculty, professional staff and alumni to be initiated into Phi Kappa Phi each year. Membership is by invitation and requires nomination and approval by a chapter. Only the top 10 percent of seniors and 7.5 percent of juniors, having at least 72 semester hours, are eligible for membership. Graduate students in the top 10 percent of the number of candidates for graduate degrees may also qualify, as do faculty, professional staff, and alumni who have achieved scholarly distinction. Founded in 1897 at the University of Maine and headquartered in Baton Rouge, La., Phi Kappa Phi is the nation's oldest and most selective all-discipline honor society. The Society has chapters on more than 300 college and university campuses in North America and the Philippines.

OBITUARIES

Larry A. Wade
Condon
September 27, 1931-April 22, 2015

Larry A. Wade, 83, of Condon died Wednesday, April 22, 2015, at Hood River Care Facility in Hood River. A graveside service with military honors will be held Tuesday, April 28, 2015, at 10 a.m. at the Condon Masonic Cemetery. A celebration of life will be held at 11 a.m. Tuesday at the Condon Elks Lodge. A potluck reception will then follow at the Elks.

He was born September 27, 1931, at Portland, Oregon, the son of Lester and Lucile Brown Wade. He was raised and attended school at Lost Valley in a one-room schoolhouse that he rode his horse to each day. He then attended Condon High School, where he graduated in 1949. He attended college at Oregon State University in Corvallis where he graduated. He was a member of the Sigma Nu fraternity.

Larry joined the United States Navy in 1952, starting in the Naval Reserves, then served 18 months on a naval destroyer. Following his honorable discharge he returned to the family ranch at Lost Valley.

On December 28, 1954, he married Joan Rintoul at Portland, Oregon. The couple lived at the Lost Valley ranch where they raised their family. Larry was a rancher all his life.

Flying was one of the things Larry enjoyed most in life. He got his first airplane in 1966. He was a member of the 180 Club and flew with club members to many locations near and far. Larry also enjoyed fishing, hunting and riding horses. He was a lifetime member of the Condon Elks Lodge.

Survivors include his wife, Joan Wade, daughter Nancy McElligott and her husband Pete, and son Rob Wade and his wife Becky, all of Condon; five grandchildren and two great-grandchildren. He was preceded in death by a daughter, Janet Ann Wade in 1969 from leukemia; brother Grant Wade; and sister Billie Dougherty.

Memorial contributions may be made to Summit Springs Memory Care, P.O. Box 687, Condon, OR 97823 or to Heart of Hospice, 2621 Wasco St., Hood River, OR 97031.

Sweeney Mortuary of Condon is in care of arrangements.

Mary Marjorie Crow
Hermiston
December 22, 1920-April 22, 2015

Mary Marjorie Crow, 94, of Hermiston passed away peacefully on Wednesday, April 22, 2015, at her home surrounded by family. A Celebration of Life will be held at Pendleton Pioneer Chapel at 10:00 a.m. on Monday, May 4, 2015. Interment will be at Olney Cemetery in Pendleton. A reception will follow the service at the Pendleton Eagles Lodge.

She was born in Baker City, Oregon, on December 22, 1920, to Frederick LaRose and Reta (Fluty) Daines. On November 10, 1941, she married Robert Merrill Crow in Boise, Idaho. Robert passed away in 1999.

"Marge," as her friends knew her, was a power in her community. She was involved in various Presbyterian churches all of her life. She served in Civil Defense, and acted as a temporary children's home for Stanfield police. She was active in PTA, serving as the Oregon State President. She was also president of the Mental Health Association, chairman of the Democratic Committee and volunteered in Scouts, Camp Fire, school band and 4-H when her children were growing up. Marge worked 14 years at the Bon Marche. Her family and home were everything to her.

She served food to needy people, friends, family, neighbors and church members. Several recipes were published in cookbooks. She sewed, decorated, served on church committees, and gave advice freely. She served as a referee, social worker, good friend, and hard worker for God.

She is survived by daughter Mary Louise Hadwick of Portland, Ore.; son Robert Daine Crow and his wife Linda of Hermiston, Ore.; grandchildren William E. Nichols and wife Michelle, Frederick M. Olson and wife Mary Ann, Annette, Deborah and Teresa; and numerous great-grandchildren, great-great-grandchildren, nieces and nephews. She was preceded in death by her parents, sisters Evelyn and Dorothy, and brother Kenneth.

The family would like to thank the special care given by Vange John Memorial Hospice in Hermiston.

Donations can be sent to Grace Presbyterian Church in Milton-Freewater or St. Mary Cancer Center in Walla Walla in care of Pendleton Pioneer Chapel, 131 S.E. Byers Ave., Pendleton, OR 97801.

Online condolences may be shared with the family at www.pioneerchapel.com

Sidney O. Van Schoiack
Hermiston
July 12, 1926-April 22, 2015

Sidney (Sid) was born in Heppner, Morrow County, Oregon, to Cleve H. Van Schoiack and Martha Jane McHugill Van Schoiack on July 12, 1926. He was raised on the family ranch in Heppner with his three brothers and two sisters.

Sid joined the Marine Corps July 11, 1944, and served with the occupied forces in Japan and was very proud of his service to his country as a Marine. Upon returning home Sid became an Oregon state policeman and it was in that capacity of service that he met and married the love of his life, Fern, in 1949. Fern had three children that he raised and adopted as his own: Richard (Montana), Sally (Salem) and Carol (Hermiston).

In 1980, his wife suffered brain damage from an unsuccessful surgery for a brain aneurysm and Sid spent the last 17 years of her life lovingly and devotedly caring for her, and was devastated at her passing in 1997. He and his wife raised their three children in a small town in Eastern Oregon when as mayor he and his wife were invited to the many functions and the dedication of McNary Dam by the Eisenhower administration. He had many endeavors during his lifetime, but upon his retirement from Jefferson County in Madras, Oregon, his favorite thing to do was to drive a cattle truck for a friend in Madras. He very much enjoyed his travels and the solitude of traveling to each destination.

Sid was moved to Hermiston, Ore., in 2009 to be near family after suffering a life-altering illness. Although not expected to recover, he thrived under the loving care of children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren for the next five and half years until his final battle with pneumonia.

He will be greatly missed by those who love him, but is now finally home with his Creator and Savior, his parents, all of his siblings and his beloved wife Fern.

There will be a graveside service for Sid in Heppner on Saturday, April 25th at 1:00 p.m. and family and friends are invited to a gathering afterwards at the Catholic parish hall in Heppner for brunch.
