

PUBLIC SAFETY LOG

MONDAY

- A caller at 8:34 a.m. told Pendleton police to check on a small orange and black pickup with towels draped over the windows parked on the little dirt access road at Northwest McKennon and Murietta roads.
- A woman at 10:03 a.m. told Umatilla police she received a message on her phone concerning tax evasion, and when she hit redial on her phone the screen showed her bank account number and the personal identification number.
- A Hermiston-area man at 10:29 a.m. reported his neighbor was supposed to provide horse manure as fertilizer last week to property on Blue Bucket Lane but instead dumped the poop into an irrigation canal. The man said he told the neighbor that was not OK, but the neighbor became confrontational and made threats. The caller said he wanted the Umatilla County Sheriff's Office to know in case the situation should escalate.
- An employee at the Shell station at 4412 Westgate Drive, Pendleton, told police at 10:42 a.m. a female entered the business and said a male gave her a ride and told her she needed to perform sexual acts as payment. The caller also said the male was in the parking lot in a silver Ford Fusion.
- A caller at 11:58 a.m. reported a woman was asleep on the west side of Hodgen Distributing, 4340 Westgate Drive, Pendleton. She wore a coat and jeans and had a 24-ounce container of beer.
- Umatilla police at 2:09 p.m. received a report of an assault at Lifeways, 290 Willamette Ave. The incident is under investigation.
- A man at 2:42 p.m. reported he cannot get back his Model 23 Glock he had on consignment at Double Diamond Tactical, Milton-Freewater. The caller joins a long list of others who want to get their guns from the business.
- A Pendleton woman at 3:42 p.m. reported her ex-husband verbally harassed her and then slashed her tires. She said the incident occurred Saturday.
- A Pendleton resident at 5:19 p.m. reported someone hit the passenger door window of her vehicle with a rock, shattering the glass.
- A woman at 5:42 p.m. told Pendleton police she was at the emergency department of St. Anthony Hospital, Pendleton, because her ex-husband ran over her foot at Indian Hills Chevron, 309 S.E. Nye Ave. She identified him and said he refused to give her his insurance information for the emergency room.
- A large black dog at about 7:15 p.m. broke off its chain at Earl Avenue and East Wood Street, Stanfield, and chased children riding bicycles.
- A daughter at 8:13 p.m. reported someone — possibly her estranged father — was at her mother's residence on Alpine Drive, Hermiston, and broke a planter, tied a shirt to the door and left a beer can in the drive.

ARRESTS, CITATIONS

- Umatilla police at 12:53 a.m. arrested Rogelio F. Almonte, 19, no address provided, for kidnapping, burglary and theft, all in the second degree, and on two counts of harassment. The arrest came after an officer took action at Interstate 82 and Highway 730. Almonte is in the Umatilla County Jail, Pendleton, in lieu of $71,000 bond.
- The Morrow County Sheriff's Office arrested Dustin Brent Moran, 24, of Irrigon, for driving under the influence of intoxicants after he crashed a vehicle at 12:43 p.m. into the old city hall building in Boardman. He also may have taken the vehicle from his mother. The sheriff's office booked him into the Umatilla County Jail, Pendleton.

Donald Dale Troxell Sr.

Kennewick, Wash.

February 4, 1928-April 23, 2015

Donald Dale Troxell Sr., 87, formerly of Spray, Oregon, died Thursday, April 23, 2015, at Kennewick, Washington. A graveside memorial service will be held Saturday, May 2, 2015, at 1 p.m. at the Haystack Cemetery near Spray.

Troxell

He was born in Selah, Washington, on February 4, 1928, the son of Clarence Edward and Ethel Burgeron Troxell. Don was the oldest of seven children and worked with his Dad in orchards around Selah and Yakima. He graduated from high school in Selah before enlisting in the United States Army towards the end of World War II. He was discharged from the Army in April of 1947.

Don met and married June Marie McGuire on September 7, 1948, at Wenatchee, Washington. He and June soon moved to The Dalles, Oregon, where they started their family. They had three sons and one daughter.

Don worked in a gas station in The Dalles until about 1958 when he moved the family to Spray, Oregon. There, Don owned a gas station where he was a mechanic until he closed the station in 1969. The gas station was always a hub of activity where the boys grew up learning how to work on their cars and helping their Dad. He went to work for the Wheeler County Road Department in Spray as a mechanic until he retired.

Don and June moved to Boring, Oregon, and lived next to their oldest son Don Jr. It was in January 1991 when June died in Portland, Oregon. He then moved to the Irrigon and Hermiston area until his death.

He loved to go fishing with his friends and sons, and he also liked to do wood working projects to put around his home. Don enjoyed keeping company with some very close friends that he felt as close to as his family.

Survivors include sons Donald Troxell Jr. and his wife Susan of Vancouver, Washington, Tom Troxell and his wife Donna of Stanfield, Oregon, and Douglas Troxell and his wife Vienna of West Jordan, Utah; daughter Kathy Brisbois and her husband Larry of Kennewick, Washington; eight grandchildren and 11 great-grandchildren. Don is also survived by three brothers: Albert, James and Robert; a sister, Mary; and numerous nieces and nephews.

Memorial contributions may be made to Tri-Cities Chaplaincy Hospice House, 2108 W. Entiat Ave., Kennewick, WA 99336. Sweeney Mortuary of Heppner is in care of arrangements.

Cleatus 'Dink' Ward

Hermiston

September 16, 1928-April 26, 2015

Cleatus L. "Dink" Ward, 86, of Hermiston died on Sunday, April 26, 2015, at his home in Hermiston. He was born on Sept. 16, 1928, in Bernie, Missouri, to parents Dale and Mamie Ward.

Dink grew up in Missouri and when he was 13 moved to Michigan to manage two restaurants. He later traveled to California to meet his wife Helen there. Dink continued his education, going to night school to become an electrical maintenance supervisor for Kaiser Aluminum & Brick Plant in Moss Landing, Calif.

Ward

He returned to Hermiston, Ore., in 1981 and after a few years off he went back to work at SK Farms in Boardman.

He loved working in his garden and sharing the vegetables with family and friends. He was a member of the Church of Christ and was a Mason. He loved to fish but his greatest enjoyment was his grandkids and great-grandkids. He made many wooden toys and bowls in his woodshop.

Cleatus and Helen were married on Sept. 7, 1948.

He was preceded in death by his parents; sister Thula Taylor; and four brothers, Kile, Si, Peter and Darrel Ward.

Dink is survived by his wife, Helen; son Michael (Linda) Ward; daughter Sharon (Dennis) Mock; four grandchildren six great-grandchildren; and numerous nieces and nephews.

Private family burial of cremains will be held at the Hermiston Cemetery.

Memorial contributions may be made to the Vange John Memorial Hospice, 645 W. Orchard Ave., Hermiston, OR 97838.
