

PUBLIC SAFETY LOG

WEDNESDAY

- Facebook can be a bane to police as well as a benefit. This case could be the latter.
- A woman at 11:38 a.m. asked to speak to a Umatilla County sheriff's deputy about people trespassing on her property at Lower Basket Mountain and Basket Mountain roads, Weston. She and her family were there Sunday, she said, and found a fire still smoking and a bunch of garbage, including a bank receipt. Someone also broke into their cabin and items were gone.
- She also reported she has an idea on who is responsible because of photos on Facebook.
- A supervisor with Charter Communications, Pendleton called police at 12:49 p.m. to report a former employee did not return his company vehicle. Who knows, maybe the person will return it sometime in the next two days between 8 a.m. and 4 p.m.
- A man at 12:49 p.m. reported a break-in at his property on Northeast Seventh Street, Irrigon, and the theft of multiple items.
- A Heppner resident at 12:49 p.m. reported three men poaching on Balm Fork Road. The Morrow County Sheriff's Office responded and a deputy found they were not poaching.
- A Pendleton man at 3:21 p.m. reported that sometime between 8 a.m. and 3 p.m. someone damaged his fence on the 300 block of Southwest 14th Street. He also requested extra patrols in the area because people cut through his yard and leave trash on his property.
- Pendleton police at 4 p.m. received a report about people doing drugs with a baby present at Riverside Mobile Home Estates, 2712 N.E. Riverside Ave.
- A caller at 4 p.m. asked a Umatilla police officer to check on the welfare of a puppy that was sitting beside a small dead dog in the road at Willamette Avenue and Highway 730.
- An off-duty police officer at 5:24 p.m. passed on information he received about a possible drunk driver southbound on Highway 395 outside Hermiston. Law enforcement did not find the suspect.
- A male crawled out of trees at about 5:50 p.m. at West Eighth Road and Depot Lane, Irrigon, prompting a witness to call law enforcement. The male carried a duffel bag and walked into a pasture, the caller said. Morrow County sheriff's deputies did not find the man.
- A Stanfield man at 8:41 p.m. reported two people he is in a dispute with are stalking him. He said they live across the street on West Wood Avenue and "have been flipping him off and calling him names."
- Police there are well aware of the people involved.

ARRESTS, CITATIONS

- Umatilla police arrested Marcus Thomas Rhorer, 34, of Umatilla, on three warrants and for possession of methamphetamine.
- Oregon State Police arrested Marcelino Tzanahua-Colohua, 33, no address provided, for driving under the influence of intoxicants.
- Milton-Freewater police arrested David Abundiz, 33, of 107 Orchard St., Milton-Freewater, for first-degree burglary, harassment, second-degree criminal mischief and first-degree criminal trespass.
- A crash led to a drunk driving ticket and more for a Weston woman.
- Oregon State Police trooper Mark Banks at about 7:30 p.m. responded to a one-vehicle rollover on highway 204 and Weston Mountain Road. Witnesses reported the driver was injured, but there was no driver at the scene.
- Banks found the driver, Staci L. Holman, 42, at her Weston home and called for an ambulance, which took her to St. Anthony Hospital, Pendleton, for treatment of her injuries.
- The trooper cited her for DUI and failure to perform the duties of a driver with injury. She also provided a breath sample that resulted in a .01 percent blood-alcohol level, but that was approximately seven hours after the crash.

OBITUARIES

Judith Glennette Brown Howell Sharp

Fruitland, Idaho
April 8, 1937-April 25, 2015

Judith Glennette Brown Howell Sharp, 78, of Fruitland, passed away Saturday, April 25, 2015, surrounded by her loved ones. She did not wish to have a service. It is comforting to know she did it her way. Her ashes will be joined with those of her husband, Sam Sharp, at Indian Lake, near Pendleton, a favorite place of theirs. She went with grace and was at peace.

Sharp

Jude was born on April 8, 1937, in Caldwell, Idaho. She was the oldest child of Glen (Bake) Brown and Helen Holmes Brown. She was married to Ray Howell and then to Sam Sharp.

She stood 4'11" tall. Jude was tiny but mighty. She could be hot as a pistol but couldn't disguise her heart of gold. She wrote beautiful, flowery poems to all of us, full of love, in her curlicue hand.

Jude always drove big cars, big boats with wood blocks on the pedals so she could reach them. She loved her Mustang convertible, ready to go at the drop of a hat. You could barely see her when she drove. It looked like an empty car going down the road. She always did it "her way" with fierce determination. She was as independent as the wind.

Jude loved camping, especially family reunions. She loved her family. She was joined at the hip with her cousin, Patti Johnson, and lived with her in Pilot Rock, Oregon, for several years. Jude had a ready laugh, a chuckle really, squinting her eyes with mirth when her dry wit was tickled. She brought so much love to all of us. The fact that she was able to say what she wanted, and got it, is a comfort to us. Jude is survived by her brothers, Larry Kent Brown (Carol) of Madras, Oregon, and Michael Dean Brown (Marion) of Ontario; her children, Rory Howell (Pam) of Fruitland and Kelly Howell (Lori) of New Plymouth; her grandchildren, Nikki Howell Herd, Chad Howell, Tiffany Howell and Jeremy Howell; great-grandchildren, and many nieces, nephews and cousins.

She was preceded in death by her parents, her son Timothy Howell, and her husband Sam Sharp.

OBITUARY POLICY

The East Oregonian publishes paid obituaries. The obituary can include small photos and, for veterans, a flag symbol at no charge. Obituaries may be edited for spelling, proper punctuation and style. Expanded death notices will be published at no charge. These include information about services. Obituaries and notices can be submitted online at www.eastoregonian.com/obituaryform, by email to obits@eastoregonian.com, by fax to 541-276-8314, placed via the funeral home or in person at the East Oregonian office. For more information, call 541-966-0818 or 1-800-522-0255, ext. 221.
