

OBITUARIES

Christopher Charles Rohrman
Denver, Colo.
May 2, 1964-May 6, 2015

Christopher (Chris) Charles Rohrman passed away on Wednesday, May 6, 2015, while working in Denver, Colorado. He was 51 years old.

Chris was born to Charles and Angela Rohrman in Hermiston, Oregon, on May 2, 1964. After graduating from Hermiston High School in 1983, he attended Whitworth College in Spokane, Washington, and Evergreen State College in Olympia, Washington, where he earned a Bachelor of Arts in Shakespearean literature.

Rohrman

A gifted artist, Chris' talents were most often expressed in photographs and wood. He was a published photographer and was recently named a finalist in a photo contest sponsored by Nikon. He was also a fine craftsman who turned his love of carpentry into a career — traveling to many places across the country to do work, including Florida, Washington, D.C., New York, Kentucky, Colorado, Texas, Washington and Oregon. No matter where his job took him, he established great friendships and never missed a chance to take photos along the way.

He was known to all for his unending generosity, and had the amazing ability to show up exactly where he was most needed. He always had time for everyone, to do a favor, go for ice cream, fix a door, or teach kids how to make a survival bracelet or a pin camera. He was so many things to so many people — a carpenter, an artist, a photographer, a devoted son, a great big brother, a really fun uncle, a loyal friend, and a loving adopted father.

He was not defined by what he did, but instead by his quick wit, his tremendous insight, and his incredible attention to detail. He was brilliant, funny, whimsical, kind, quirky, thoughtful, caring, generous, free-spirited, helpful, creative, altruistic, gentle, affable, endearing, charming, and always interesting. In a nutshell, a uniquely beautiful human being.

Chris is survived by his mother Angela Jo Kelly Rohrman of Hermiston; sister Mary Ozkan (Levent) of The Woodlands, Texas; brothers David (Mary Leigh), Tom (Shanan) and Joe of Hermiston; adopted daughters Maia Scott and Mei O'Neil of Denver, Colorado; and seven nieces and nephews — Jordyn, Michaela, Ansley, Tyler, Kalliyann, Helen and Damien — as well as all the families across the country that considered him part of theirs.

He is preceded in death by his father, A. Charles Rohrman.

Memorial contributions may be made to Photographic Center Northwest in care of Burns Mortuary of Hermiston.

A rosary will be said on Thursday, May 14th at 7 p.m. at Burns Mortuary in Hermiston, Oregon. His life will be celebrated on Saturday, May 16th at a 1 p.m. Mass service at Our Lady of Angels Catholic Church in Hermiston, followed by the burial at the cemetery. A reception will follow the burial at the home of Delia Wallis at 954 S.W. Seventh St.

FRIDAY

•A Hermiston resident at 1:05 p.m. reported the operator of a septic service threatened to fill her tank with sewage because she could not pay her bill.

•A Milton-Freewater resident at 3:24 p.m. reported a break-in at her house on the 400 block of Northeast Eighth Avenue.

•A woman at 4:46 p.m. reported she and her husband were in their vehicle on South Main Street, Pendleton, when a male American Indian approached them. She said they asked him what he wanted, and he replied, "I want to jack you and take your money."

The male continued to ask for a ride and then left.

•A caller at 7:48 p.m. reported a fox den with five kits is near Willow Creek Road, Heppner. She said she was concerned they will cause a car crash or may get injured.

•A Pendleton resident at 8:04 p.m. on Northwest Ninth Street reported her ex-boyfriend assaulted her friend in her front yard.

•A male crashed at about 9:25 p.m. near Heppner. A caller said the vehicle rolled several times on Highway 206, and the driver was bleeding from his head. Multiple agencies responded to the crash, and an ambulance took him to Pioneer Memorial Hospital, Heppner.

•A caller at 11:19 p.m. reported a neighbor on Northwest Carden Avenue, Pendleton, was sitting on the front steps of his apartment with a gun.

•A man at about 11:45 p.m. entered Taj Food Mart, Milton-Freewater, and told the attendant, "There is a man in my car running from the police, you should call somebody." Law enforcement was not able to find the people involved.

SATURDAY

•Two males at about 2:40 a.m. fought on North Board Street, Weston. Both refused medical help.

•A Hermiston-area woman on Baldwin Lane at 2:46 a.m. reported a noise woke her five minutes before and she discovered one of her windows was partially open.

•A vacuum salesman at 8:38

a.m. told Pendleton police he was at the Greyhound Bus stop on Southeast Court Avenue and his team leader threatened him.

•A man from North Dakota at about 11:50 p.m. had his bank card stick inside a cash machine, Community Bank, 157 S. Main St., Pendleton. His friend called police for help.

•Storage units can pack surprises. A woman at 1:33 p.m. reported she bought a unit outside Milton-Freewater on Walla Walla River Road and found a sawed-off shotgun inside. She ask law enforcement for advice on disposing of the gun.

•A Pendleton mother at 5:23 p.m. told police her vehicle was stolen. She said she loaned the vehicle to her daughter on Monday, and she has not returned it.

•Two girls at about 5:45 p.m. played with a power line in a tree on Southwest 30th Street, Pendleton. A caller said they possibly had cut the line before running off.

•The Morrow County Sheriff's Office at 7:12 p.m. received a report of a male possibly sexually assaulting a girl. The sheriff's office responded, detained two people and completed a report.

•A woman at 8:36 p.m. told Stanfield police a man held a knife to her throat and choked her out. She identified the suspect and said there were witnesses. She also refused medical help.

Police determined the report was unfounded.

•Three dogs attacked a fourth while its owner took it for a walk at about 9 p.m. on Southeast Clover Court, Irigoin. The dog suffered a bloody lip and tear to an eye. The owner of the loose dogs apologized, and when he checked on the wounded dog it nipped him on the forehead. The Morrow County Sheriff's Office responded.

•A male at about 9:34 p.m. on Southwest First Street, Pendleton, beat on his neighbor's door and screamed foul language.

•Aman at 10:38 p.m. reported his family were the subjects of an attack by a couple on Southwest Wyoming Avenue, Irigoin. He said he tried to defend himself, but his wife "got knocked a couple times" while she had a child in her arms. He also said they did not need medical help and would meet law enforcement at their residence.

•A Morrow County sheriff's deputy at 10:43 p.m. spotted what at first looked like people sleeping in a yard at Southeast Wyoming Avenue and South First Street. Turned out it was a couple celebrating prom night. The deputy asked them to leave, and they did.

•A female at about 11 p.m. laid down on Highway 730 near Highway 395 in an attempt to get run over. Law enforcement responded, and she reported she stole her mother's pickup. The Morrow County Sheriff's Office gave the mother a ride to get the pickup and her daughter.

•One client at Oregon Alcoholism Foundation, Pendleton, told police at 11:21 p.m. another client attacked her. The caller also was not cooperative.

SUNDAY

•A man wearing a mask and wielding a knife assaulted a man at about 2 a.m. on Northeast Second Street and East Catherine Avenue, Hermiston. The victim refused medical treatment.
