

PUBLIC SAFETY LOG

TUESDAY

•A man at 10:09 a.m. told Pendleton police he has power of attorney over his father's finances while he is incarcerated at Eastern Oregon Correctional Institution, Pendleton, but his father's ex-wife forged power of attorney papers and took over his father's retirement funds.

•A couple asked people for money at about 1 p.m. at the Pilot Travel Center, Stanfield. An employee asked them to leave the property, but they refused. The employee then called police to trespass the pair.

•The Morrow County Sheriff's Office between 2 and 6 p.m. looked into code violations on several Irrigon properties. Most were for overgrown weeds, but one on West Fourth Street was to investigate an owner buying and selling junk vehicles and boats.

•The Morrow County Sheriff's Office at 2:25 p.m. received a report from Irrigon Junior-Senior High School that one student tried to run over another student.

•A woman and her boyfriend fought at about 3 p.m. at a residence on Rudder Lane, Hermiston, prompting the woman's daughter to call police.

•A male at 3:12 p.m. asked to speak to a Pendleton officer about domestic violence with his significant other who also is the mother of his child.

•A resident outside Pilot Rock asked the Umatilla County Sheriff's Office at 4:24 p.m. to contact her regarding a man and woman staying in a white van. She said the couple have asked for water and nothing else. But the van keeps rolling closer to her fence line and near livestock.

•A Milton-Freewater woman at 4:54 p.m. reported the theft of a washing machine from her garage on the 900 block of Evans Street.

•A resident of Southeast Eighth Street, Pendleton, at 6:09 p.m. asked for extra police patrols in her neighborhood because she was concerned the male who often walks by her house is a drug dealer.

•A Pendleton woman at 6:22 p.m. reported the theft of her mixed-breed Chihuahua on Northwest 10th Street. She said she took her children to a park about three hours before and left the house unlocked.

•A Pendleton resident at 7:05 p.m. told police that at about 5:30 p.m. a man came to her residence on Southwest Nye Avenue and told her a mortgage company sent him to take pictures of her house. But the man had no identification, did not give a business card or say what mortgage company he was with.

•A caller at 11:59 p.m. reported hearing an explosion on Southwest 16th Street, Pendleton. Police did not find the source of the sound.

ARRESTS, CITATIONS

•Umatilla County Sheriff's Office arrested Auston Dunham, 18, of Umatilla, for second-degree assault, menacing and second-degree disorderly conduct.

residential college fostering intellectual vitality, confidence and leadership in its 1,500 students. Also noted for its commitment to environmental principles, Whitman is characterized by intellect, down-to-earth sensibilities, collaboration over competition and an active lifestyle.

Vivian M. Crumbliss

Pilot Rock
May 23, 1940-May 8, 2015

Vivian M. Crumbliss, 74, of Pilot Rock died May 8, 2015 at OHSU in Portland. Visitation will be from 1-8 p.m. on Friday, May 15 at Pendleton Pioneer Chapel, Folsom-Bishop. A graveside service will be held at 11 a.m. on Saturday, May 16 at Pilot Rock Cemetery. A reception will be at the Pilot Rock Community Center immediately following the service.

Vivian was born May 23, 1940, in Hermiston to Rex and Birdie Jackson. She was raised around the Umatilla and Hermiston area.

Her father was a horseman, teaching her to ride horses. She was active with the Umatilla Sage Riders. She also spent time with her mother learning how to cook and learned how to be a great cook.

She worked as a dental assistant where she met her future husband, Dwain Crumbliss. They were married on September 30, 1961. They lived in the Pendleton and Pilot Rock area. She also worked for the Pendleton School District and the State of Oregon. At the State of Oregon, she worked for two divisions: Workers Accident Prevention and Adult and Family Services. She worked in these positions for over 25 years, retiring in 1997.

Vivian enjoyed camping and traveling. After retirement, she and her husband made a two month trip around the United States. They traveled around the Northwest and spent a lot of time on the coast. She loved camping with her family and friends and going to the mountains mushroom picking. She also loved cooking for her family at the holidays and enjoyed a monthly luncheon with her co-workers.

Survivors include her husband, Dwain Crumbliss, of Pilot Rock; sons, Ron and Dave Crumbliss; grandchildren, Rebecca Bankston, Brandon Warren, Kyle Warren, Whitney Crumbliss, Kimberly Crumbliss; great-grandchildren, Lukas Bankston, Kaleb Bankston, Emilee Bankston; and several nieces and nephews.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Rex and Birdie Jackson; sister, Charlotte; brother, Don Jackson.

Memorial contributions may be made to the American Cancer Society in care of Pendleton Pioneer Chapel, 131 SE Byers Ave., Pendleton, OR 97801.

Online condolences may be shared with the family at www.pioneerchapel.com

OBITUARIES

Donald L. Hansen

Pilot Rock
September 13, 1929-May 9, 2015

Donald L. Hansen, a longtime resident of Pilot Rock, Oregon, passed away Saturday, May 9, 2015, at Willowbrook Terrace in Pendleton, Oregon. He was 85 years old.

Mr. Hansen was born Friday, September 13, 1929, in Nampa, Idaho, to Ada Violet Cunningham Hansen and Lester James Hansen. His mother said it was a very lucky day. They moved to Cove, Oregon, in 1934. He transferred to Greenwood Elementary in La Grande, Oregon, when they moved there a couple of years later. He graduated La Grande High School in 1948.

He met the love of his life Wilda Jean Tucker and they were married November 18, 1949. They lived on a grass farm until he landed a job at Georgia Pacific in Pilot Rock, Oregon, on March 12, 1951. He held different jobs over the years, his last being carrier driver, before an early retirement in 1985. He worked and saved until they could start building the family home in 1957, where they lived from 1958 to date.

He was known as Donny or Don by family and friends. He was a kind and loving man. He will be remembered as someone who was always willing to give a helping hand. He has blessed so many people over the years with his caring and giving nature. Such a hard worker, and tuff as nails little fellow. He loved large family get-togethers and spending time with his wife, children, their spouses, grandchildren, great-grandchildren, extended family, and friends. He has led by example. He was a jolly fellow and loved a good prank. He was the outdoors kind of guy: hunting, fishing, horse breeding, breaking/training, and western style riding. He loved hiking/backpacking into the Wallows and more. He was a lifetime member of honor in the Over the Hills Gang Riding Club. He followed the local rodeo circuit with his brother-in-law Merlyn Kohl as he bred and raised a star horse named Nipper, whom his niece Trudy Kohl rode in the Union, Oregon, tack club.

They were the stars of the show. He had a great mind; if he studied something or read up on it, he seemed to always figure it out. He loved reading, games, cards and dancing. He had a beautiful singing voice and could yodel with the best of them. He was a member of the Church of Latter-day Saints and held many positions over the years. He was a Boy Scouts leader as well. He loved working with his hands, wielding a hammer building something, a wrench in hand under the hood of a car or truck, to planting a garden. He was a wise man who enjoyed life, and always had a welcoming smile and hello.

Don is survived by his wife of 64 years, Wilda, and his four children Carla Jean Shuler of Colville, Wash., Laura Lee Gardner of Pendleton, Ore., Linda Denise Goodman of Union, Ore., and Donald Lynn Hansen of Pilot Rock, Ore.; his eight grandchildren and 11 great-grandchildren; siblings Beverly Ann Bailey of Union, Ore., Reva June (Lil) Sled of Fontana, Calif., and Richard Powell of Madison On The Lake, Ohio; and his great Aunt Erma Cunningham Loree of Cove, Ore., as well as numerous nieces and nephews.

Don was preceded in death by his parents Ada and Lester Hansen, and siblings Leah Powell, Norma Slater, Lois Myers, Betty Jean (Jennie) McLure, Alma Gail (Gail) Ogden, Verla May Goetz, Helen Louise Landers, Lorin J. (Bud) Hansen, Daril Dean (Sonny) Hansen, Kenneth Ray Hansen, and Gary Hansen.

A graveside funeral service will be held Friday, May 15, 2015, at 1:00 p.m. at Pilot Rock Cemetery. In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made to the American Cancer Society, and may be sent in care of Burns Mortuary of Pendleton, P.O. Box 489, Pendleton, OR 97801.
