

Pregnancy Care Services plans fundraising events

By TAMMY MALGESINI
East Oregonian

A nonprofit organization that provides free pregnancy tests and counseling to anyone experiencing an unplanned pregnancy has set fundraising events in Hermiston and Pendleton this weekend.

Pregnancy Care Services is hosting its fourth annual Walk for Life, which also includes a fun run, in Hermiston and the Mayfest in Pendleton.

The Hermiston event begins with on-site registration Saturday at 8:30 a.m., with the walk/run beginning at 9 a.m. at the Oxbow Trail at the Riverfront Park trailhead, Orchard Extension Loop, Hermiston. The walk is approximately one mile.

Participants may sponsor themselves by making a donation or obtaining pledges from people. Prizes will be awarded for different pledge amounts. Gift certificates for pizza, frozen yogurt, bowling and aquatic center passes are among the items available.

Debbie Cissna, director of the Hermiston program, said if people wanted to make donations, it costs about $25 to provide counseling for a woman who comes in for a pregnancy test for an unplanned pregnancy.

The Pendleton event, which is also Saturday, runs from 9:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. at Roy Raley Park, 1205 S.W. Court Ave., Pendleton. The run and walk begins at 10 a.m., including a 20-block walk or 5K run.

Activities, games, a bouncy house, face painting and a free lunch for participants runs from 11 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. Prizes will be awarded for most sponsors, most money collected and best time. In addition, there will be door prizes.

Founded in 1993 in Pendleton, the organization expanded to Hermiston in 2011. It includes paid directors at both sites and also includes volunteers.

Cissna said the organization provides confidential and comprehensive information about options in a nurturing and caring environment. The pregnancy options counseling includes information for those planning to keep their baby, including pregnancy and parenting education, as well as information and support for those choosing adoption or abortion.

“The girls are more satisfied with the choice they make when they are given all of the information, then they can make an educated choice,” Cissna said.

Pregnancy Care Services is located at 1055 S. Highway 395, Suite 111, Hermiston, and 311 S.E. Dorion Ave., Pendleton. For more information, call 541-567-2393, 541-276-5757 or visit www.optionsinpregnancy.com.
