OBITUARIES

Alvena Augusta 'Vena' Patterson Burd Adkins

Happy Valley
May 10, 1935-May 13, 2015

Alvena "Vena" Augusta Patterson Burd Adkins peacefully passed away with her family at her side on May 13th, 2015, in her home in Happy Valley, Ore. She just celebrated her 80th birthday on May 10.

Adkins

She was born in 1935 in Portland, Oregon, to Donald Patterson and Alice Rosa Patterson. She attended grade school at Trinity Lutheran Church & School and graduated from Jefferson High School in 1953 in Portland, Oregon. She married Lawrence "Larry" Fougeron Burd on April 26, 1956. The family settled in Pendleton, Oregon, in 1961 and became involved in the community and raised three daughters. Vena was a homemaker, childcare provider, and bookkeeper for Columbia Pump & Irrigation and Larry Burd's Well Drilling.

Following a divorce, Vena married Charles "Chuck" Edward Adkins on November 15, 1975. They spent most of their time in Hermiston, Oregon, and Vena was employed by the Hermiston School District as a sign language interpreter. Her past time was filled with taking care of her dogs, small farm and gardening. After retirement, Vena and Chuck traveled in their motor home for four years. They visited 48 states and stayed with family along the way. They ended up in Portland, Oregon, and Chuck passed away in 2004. From this time on, Vena enjoyed visiting her children and grandchildren.

Vena was a strong lifelong supporter of volunteering in her community. As a Pendleton Jaycee member she was involved in many community development activities that included the 2A Basketball State tournament in Pendleton. As a member of the Hermiston Elks Lodge Emblem Club, she supported the Casey Eye Institute, Meadowood Springs Speech Camp, D.A.R.E. National Drug Awareness program, and other charities. Later she joined the Silver Saints Senior Group at St. Stephens Lutheran Church in Gladstone where she served meals at the Clackamas Service Center and the Gladstone Senior Center, along with doing other charity activities.

Vena had a charming and forgiving personality that attracted many people.

She enjoyed any social activity that included her dog, such as outside restaurant dining, visiting a store, or going to the beach. She enjoyed card games her whole life, including up to the point of losing her eyesight. The joy in her face would light up a room while socializing and playing cards. In her earlier years she loved to collect things such as Beanie Babies, magnets, earrings, greeting cards, photos and other things. Vena was a longtime fan of the Pendleton Round-Up and enjoyed sharing her time there with friends and family. Traveling by motor home across the United States was another joy for Vena. She loved being on the road.

Vena will truly be missed by many. She had an amazing circle of caring, supporting and generous friends and caregivers. We will all miss her cute and sweet smile and her charming, caring and brave personality.

Vena was preceded in death by her husband, Chuck Adkins; parents Donald and Alice Patterson; brother Ron Patterson; sister Emilie Patterson; and dogs Patches, Buddy, Little Guy, Princess, Suzie and Mehling.

Vena is survived by her children: Debora Burd and Edward Cox of St. Petersburg, Fla., Linda and Ron Chelsky of Happy Valley, Ore., and Julie Burd and Greg Lewis of St. Petersburg, Fla.; stepson Larry Adkins of Ohio; grandchildren Zachary Chelsky, Anna Chelsky, Jessica Chelsky, Leah Chelsky, McKenzie Lewis and Katie Lewis; stepgrandchildren Virdeana Krcelich, Christopher Adkins and Nicholas Adkins; and dog Daisy.

Donations can be made to the Glaucoma Research Foundation at glaucoma.org or St. Stephens Lutheran Church, 209 West Gloucester St., Gladstone, OR 97027.

SCHOLARSHIPS

PEO Chapter AP awards scholarship

MILTON-FREEWATER — PEO Chapter AP of Milton-Freewater has awarded a PEO Oregon scholarship to Chandra Phillips of Athena. Phillips, a senior business administration student at Blue Mountain Community College, will continue her education at Eastern Oregon University, planning to complete her degree during spring term 2016. She will receive $420 for summer term and $1,100 for the 2015-16 academic year.

Phillips currently works two jobs to partially fund her education. Her job with the U.S. Corps of Engineers in Walla Walla will become her permanent job, contract specialist, once she earns her degree.

One hundred forty-six women applied statewide for an Oregon scholarship.

PEO International is a philanthropic organization dedicated to supporting women who endeavor to better themselves through education. Chapter AP earns money for its scholarships through an annual golf tournament in Milton-Freewater, and through a bed and breakfast run by Jean Ann Mitchell open to PEO members nationwide.

Sitz awarded diversity scholarship

PENDLETON — Pendleton High School senior Wilhelm A. Sitz is the 2015 recipient of a $500 Roberta Frasier Anderson Diversity Scholarship, presented by PFLAG Pendleton.

Sitz has been admitted to the USC School of Cinematic Arts entering class for the Writing for Screen and Television Bachelor of Fine Arts program. He is the son of Michelle and Norm Sitz.

Members of PFLAG Pendleton established the Diversity Scholarship this year in Anderson's honor to recognize Pendleton High School graduating seniors who exemplify the qualities of leadership and commitment to social equality to which Anderson — a longtime member of PFLAG — has dedicated her life.

PFLAG is committed to advancing equality and full societal affirmation for all people through its threefold mission of support, education, and advocacy.
