

PUBLIC SAFETY LOG

TUESDAY

- Pendleton police at 7:02 a.m. received a report of a resident on Southwest Zeta Court not feeding or watering their dog.
- A dog at about 8:30 a.m. attacked sheep on North Townsend Road, Hermiston, killing one. The sheep's owner called for a Umatilla County sheriff's deputy to respond to the scene. The sheriff's office determined this was a civil matter.
- Umatilla's code enforcement officer at 9:34 a.m. checked into the illegal dumping of potatoes in the driveway on Cedar Court, and at 10:50 a.m. the officer responded to Sloan Avenue and Eighth Street on a report of illegal dumping there.
- Staff at Irrigon Junior-Senior High School at 1:26 p.m. called to talk to a Morrow County sheriff's deputy regarding a student harassing another student via text and Facebook messages.
- The owner of a backhoe at 1:29 p.m. reported the theft of the machine's bucket from Sunshine Lane and West Punkin Center Road, Hermiston.
- A cougar may have made its way into Heppner. A caller at 1:42 p.m. said he spotted the big cat in the city by the mortuary at about 2 a.m.
- A caller at 2:13 p.m. told Pendleton police six juveniles were hanging around the rear side of the bathrooms at Roy Raley Park, and there was damage done to one of the lights.
- A Pendleton resident at 3:18 p.m. reported a dog attacked his dog. He said the offending canine may have been a pit bull with a bandanna.
- The Umatilla County Sheriff's Office at 4:16 p.m. received a report of four neglected horses on Gateway Lane, Pendleton. The caller said they do not look well fed or watered and said another neighbor commented they appear to have trouble urinating due to their condition.
- An argument over a dog between two Umatilla neighbors on Eighth Street almost got out of hand. A wife of one man called police at 5:47 p.m. to ask for an officer. She reported her husband and neighbor ended up going into their houses, and they would wait for police.
- A Stanfield resident at 6:32 p.m. reported homeless people may be living in a condemned residence on East Harding Avenue across from Stage Gulch RV Park.
- A woman at 8:48 p.m. told the Morrow County Sheriff's Office she received a text from a male in Irrigon that said he felt like he had no future and wanted to say goodbye. A deputy contacted the male, who said he would not harm himself, he just did not want his message very well.
- Pendleton police at 9:27 p.m. received a report of a domestic disturbance between a man and woman on Southwest 14th Street. A caller reported they yelled at each other and the man carried a night stick and swung it around. He also seemed high, the caller said, and kept falling on railroad tracks in the roadway.

ARRESTS, CITATIONS

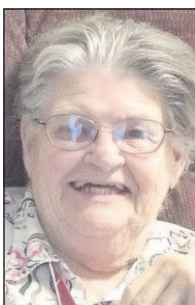

- Milton-Freewater police arrested Christopher Michael Charlo, 28, of 1842 Walnut St., Milton-Freewater, for second-degree burglary, first-degree theft and possession of burglary tools.
- Umatilla County Sheriff's Office arrested Reyshaun Dominique Joseph Supuni, 23, of Hermiston, for fourth-degree assault, menacing and strangulation.
