Pendleton Altrusa awards $12,000 in scholarships

PENDLETON — Altrusa of Pendleton recently awarded twelve $1,000 scholarships to Pendleton students for the 2015-16 academic year.

Nine Pendleton High School graduating seniors were awarded scholarships. Lindsey Caldera intends to pursue a career as an elementary teacher with a minor in psychology. Shyla Davison's goal is to become a paleontologist. Madison Kelm plans to become a pediatric physician who can participate in the Doctors Without Borders organization. Bianca Mendoza will attend Western Oregon University where she will seek a teaching degree. Anthony Papol has his sights set on being part of the first manned mission to Mars and will prepare for that with degrees in physics and math. Wilhelm Sitz has been accepted at the University of Southern California's elite Writing for Screen and Television program. Hanna Wicklander's ultimate goal is to attend medical school at Oregon Health & Science University. Joanna Wolotira will major in physics and music, with a goal of a bachelor's degree in waves and acoustics and a second degree in violin performance.

Altrusa also selected Jaylee Coles as the recipient of the BMCC Mary Bates Scholarship endowed by her family. Mary was the head librarian at the college for many years. The scholarship winner must declare a major in early childhood education or librarianship.

Three other students at BMCC were also awarded scholarships for the 2015-2016 academic year. Brittney Eickstaedt, a busy wife, mother and employee, will continue her studies with a goal to complete her transfer degree by winter 2016. Courtney Brown has maintained a high GPA while working toward her goal of becoming a teacher. Anthony Jones is enrolled in the diesel technology program and intends to own his own shop.

Altrusa is proud to be able to assist all of these worthy students as part of the club's community involvement and support of education.

Local students receive Ford Family
scholarships

Ford Family Scholarships were recently awarded to six local students. This is a four-year award that covers 90 percent of remaining need — up to $25,000 per year — after other sources of financial aid have been awarded. Awards are based on academic merit and financial need. More than 4,500 students applied for the scholarship, and 110 students from Oregon received an award.

Local students earning the scholarship include:
Ione High School: Timothy Patton

(Boardman), planning to attend Southwestern Oregon Community College.

Hermiston High School: Perlita Anzures-Flores, planning to attend Portland State University.

Irrigon High School: Isabel Orozco, planning to attend Oregon State University; Amanecer Robles, planning to attend Oregon Institute of Technology.

Umatilla High School: Berenice Chavez, planning to attend Eastern Oregon University.

Blue Mountain Community College: Nels Swenson (Pendleton), planning to continue his education at Oregon State University.

PUBLIC SAFETY LOG

THURSDAY

- A driver at about 1:20 a.m. in Pendleton turned on car headlights and spotted a male hunched over near the side door of Quizno's, 204 S.W. 20th St. The driver called police and said the male had a pry bar in his hand and appeared to be breaking into the restaurant. The caller said the possible burglar wore darker clothing and a bandana on his head.
- A Weston resident at 8:28 a.m. reported her neighbor on Wildwood Loop cut down her trees and bushes on her property without permission. She also said she did not feel safe talking to him. She asked law enforcement for advice.
- A Boardman-area man at 8:46 a.m. asked for extra patrols on Summit Lane, especially around midnight. He said youth are shooting in the area, and the last time someone shot and killed one of his cows. He said he wanted law enforcement to talk to the youth about this.
- A Pendleton resident at 10:53 a.m. reported a neighbor on Southeast Seventh Street was "acting very strange" and was with a little girl that state social services may have taken from him. But when a dispatcher asked questions to get more information, the caller stated, "Never mind," wanted to remain anonymous and hung up.
- Pendleton police at 11:19 a.m. responded to the area of Southwest 18th Street for a complaint about the odor of cat urine and feces.
- A Hermiston-area man at 12:29 p.m. reported his neighbor's cows on West Highland Avenue are out and eating his asparagus.
- The Union Pacific Railroad at 1:55 p.m. reported a white male wearing green shorts, no shirt and carrying a white bucket with a small black dog inside was walking east on train tracks at South Thielsen and East Gerone streets, Echo. Law enforcement did not find the man.
- Then at 3:04 p.m. Union Pacific reported the same man tried to jump on a train at Hinkle Road and North Sherman Street, Stanfield. Again, cops did not find him.
- An Irrigon resident at 6:35 p.m. told Morrow County dispatchers she had an injured

- quail chick in a box and was not sure what to do with it.
- A man at 8:44 p.m. reported the theft of his black 1998 Jeep Wrangler from the popular swimming area locals call "The Cliffs" at Rieth. He also said he had information showing the Jeep was at Southwest Fifth Street and Goodwin Avenue, Pendleton. Police took a report.
- Pendleton police at 9:25 p.m. received a complaint from the Rugged Country Lodge, 1807 S.E. Court Ave., about a barking dog keeping guests from sleeping.
- Ten minutes later a resident on Southeast Ninth Street, Pendleton, told police her neighbor's dog would not stop barking.
- A Heppner resident at 11:46 p.m. reported some suspicious activity at Southeast Cannon and Main streets. She said a male wearing all black clothes and carrying a black backpack rode a bicycle and met with two other males, also wearing black. The person on the bike tossed the backpack to one of the others and rode off. After a short period, the two others followed.

FRIDAY

- Pendleton police at 1:04 a.m. received a report a car hit a telephone pole near The Saddle Restaurant & Lounge, 2220 S.E. Court Ave., Pendleton. No one was around the vehicle, and one person claimed it belonged to a relative but he did not know who drove the car.
- People at about 2:30 a.m. threw eggs from the overpass at Powerline Road and Interstate 82, Hermiston. A semi driver reported the eggs on his vehicle but he could not see how many people were involved in the criminal mischief. Law enforcement did not find the suspects.
