 *A caller at 8:36 a.m. asked for extra patrols on Eastside Road, Milton-Freewater, for the dike on Birch Creek because people have been there with flashlights late at night. The caller also reported another person saw people in an orchard in the area as well.

*A caller at 9:03 a.m. told the Umatilla County Sheriff's Office there were three dead cows underneath a tarp and maybe a couple more in a horse trailer at a location on Minnehaha Road, Hermiston. The caller also claimed to have photos of the dead cows and specified where the owner lives.

*The manager of a trailer park at West Page Avenue and South Main Street, Stanfield, told police at 5:56 p.m. someone vandalized three recreational vehicles in the park within the last four days. The manager has not been able to catch the culprit and wanted police help.

A caller at 6:44 p.m. across West Page Avenue from the trailer park reported seeing a male on Monday take bags of garbage somewhere, and then today the same male took three 5-gallon buckets with liquid in somewhere and returned without the buckets. The caller said he was concerned about what and where the person could be dumping.

*Umatilla police at 6:20 p.m. responded to a report of road rage at Fairway South Apartments, 605 Umatilla Ave. There was no further information.

*An Irrigon resident concerned with the welfare of animals asked the Morrow County Sheriff's Office for some advice. She told the agency at 7:06 p.m. that people left animals at her house two weeks ago and did not provide any food for them. Now, she said, they may be coming to "try and start things and take the animals." She wanted to know if she had the right to keep the chickens.

OBITUARIES

Alberta L. Barlow-Allstott

Athena

February 2, 1924-May 30, 2015

Alberta Allstott, 91, an Athena resident, was born in Kane, Wyoming, to Amanda Jane Bradley and Fredrick Hoffman, one of eight children. At age eight her mother passed away and she was adopted by Martha Slafter and grew up in Harrisville, N.Y. She graduated from Harrisville Central High School and got on a train, in the day when young women didn't travel alone, and rode all the way to Heppner, Ore., where her father was working. She met and fell in love with Everett Barlow and they were married November 27, 1943. They had three children, Everett C. (Pete), Marthetta (who was stillborn) and Mary.

After the death of her husband she found another love in R.D. Allstott; they were married in 1983, and gained another daughter, Cindy.

Alberta was a stay-at-home mom, raising her two children. She was an excellent seamstress and sewed intricate western shirts for her son and poofy dresses for her little girl. When the time came, she made her daughter's wedding dress and her stepdaughter's wedding dress. She baked many wedding cakes for friends and family over the years. She loved all crafts and knitted hats and gloves for the Athena school children who were without. She was an avid bead worker, making Indian beaded jewelry and gold and silver jewelry that she shared with her family and friends.

Alberta never met an animal she didn't love. When her son was allergic to cow's milk, she bought a nanny goat and milked it daily. Years later she did the same thing when her granddaughter was allergic to cow's milk. She raised chickens, rabbits, lambs and cows and always had a pet cat or dog.

She was a member of the VFW Ladies Auxiliary and participated in fundraisers for the club. She was a member of the Athena Christian Church and attended Sunday services rain or shine. She was always the first one to church every Sunday.

She is survived by her son Everett Barlow (Ruth); daughters Mary Earley (Allen) and Cindy Wheeler (Harley); grandchildren David Barlow (Rebecca), Julie Armstrong (Sean Moore), Tamara Pahl (Robert), Heather Earley, Brianna Earley, Rachael Tiffany (Mike), and Jail Leigh Bondurant; 11 great-grandchildren and one great-great-grandchild; brother Harold Hoffman of Anchorage, Alaska; and numerous nieces and nephews.

Memorial contributions may be made to the Athena Christian Church for their music and children's programs, which were dear to her heart.

Her service will be held Thursday, June 4th at 11 a.m. at the Athena Christian Church.

Patricia Marie 'Patti' McGilvray

Hermiston

May 29, 1922-June 1, 2015

Patricia Marie (Patti) McGilvray of Hermiston, Oregon, was born on May 29, 1922, in Fort Lewis, Washington, to parents John and Elizabeth (Polly) McGilvray. She died on June 1, 2015, at a local care facility at the age of 93 years surrounded by family, loving care givers and a host of angels.

Patti's father was an Army officer and they moved several times during her childhood. She had fond memories of her teenage years in New Jersey where she met her long-time friend, Virginia Blanchard, who continued their friendship until her passing.

She moved to Hermiston, Oregon, with her father in the late 1960s to be near her cousin, Lewis McGilvray. In 1979 Patti met her best friends, Mary Ross and Mary Corp, over a cup of coffee. Their friendship bond grew and they had many adventures — camping, vacationing, coffee at the drugstore, trips to Florida to see Virginia, and many other simple times.

Patti had a childlike and joyful outlook on life. She was a true friend to many people — she treated us all as treasures. Patti attended New Hope Community Church, Hermiston, Oregon. She loved her coffee, teddy bears, playing Old Maid and Go Fish, watching "The Price is Right," and Shirley Temple movies. She loved vacationing — planning them, going and then remembering them.

She is survived by her adopted family, including mother Vivian Corp; sisters Mary Corp and Jean Corp; and brothers Wes Corp, Ray Corp, Amos Corp and Andy Corp. She also has a host of friends and caregivers across the community from Columbia Care Cottage, Beta House and Good Samaritan Center, whose friendships she treasured and who gave her joy and wonderful care.

Patti was preceded in death by her parents, cousins Lewis and John McGilvray, and sisters Mary Ross and Kathy Corp.
