

OBITUARIES

Albert Carl Hatley

Pendleton

July 25, 1928-June 2, 2015

Albert Carl Hatley, a Pendleton resident, passed away Tuesday, June 2, 2015, at a Pendleton care facility. He was 86 years old.

A funeral service will be held Wednesday, June 10, 2015, at 1:00 p.m. at Burns Mortuary of Pendleton chapel, with burial to follow at Skyview Memorial Park in Pendleton. Sign the online condolence book at www.burnsmortuary.com. Contributions in memory of Albert Hatley may be made to the Fraternal Order of Eagles, and may be sent in care of Burns Mortuary of Pendleton, P.O. Box 489, Pendleton, OR 97801. Arrangements are with Burns Mortuary of Pendleton.

Albert Carl Hatley was born to Maude and Albert Hatley on July 25, 1928. He was born in Pullman, Washington, where he lived for 63 years. He worked for Washington Water Power Company for 40 years. He retired when he was 62 years old and moved to Pendleton, Oregon, to be near his youngest daughter and family.

Albert loved to hunt and fish. He belonged to the Moose Lodge for 50 years, and the Fraternal Order of Eagles where he held all the chairs and offices, and was a member of the Eagles Camper Club. Albert enjoyed being close to two of his grandchildren and was proud of them — Amanda for her grades and drama plays, and Cody for his great love of music and playing the guitar. Albert loved sports; in high school he was on the All State basketball team. But most of all, he was proud of his work as an electrician and loved his work.

Albert had three daughters, Cindy Roderick, Cheryl Wildman and Carla Shaver, and a son, Scott Hatley, who preceded him in death. He had five stepchildren: Ellen Hector, Greg Hector, Bret Hector, Bart Hector and Dennis Hector, who preceded him in death. He had 39 grandchildren, 40 great-grandchildren and three great-great-grandchildren.

Diana Christean Young-Stroe

Pilot Rock

July 22, 1952-May 31, 2015

Diana Christean Young-Stroe was born July 22, 1952, the daughter of Herman and Wanda Young, grew up on the family ranch (with her sisters, Linda and Susan) outside of La Grande, Oregon. On May 31, 2015, at age 62, Diana lost her short but hard-fought battle with colon cancer at her home in Pilot Rock, Oregon, with the care and love of husband Gheorge and their children along with grandchildren.

After graduating from La Grande H.S. she completed her education with a B.S. Education major and music minor in 1975 at E.O.U. La Grande, Oregon.

Diana loved helping her dad with chores, and let us add fishing with him held prominent place in her memory. Also, Diana loved taking care of and riding her horse hours on end and enjoyed her pet dog and birds, which she taught to say many words.

Diana fulfilled her dream of having her own family after marrying Gheorge 'George' Stroe in Pendleton, Oregon, on 13 November 1976. Putting her teaching on hold she would give birth to Sean, Shantel, Sheila and Rachel. Diana gave them selfless love, support and direction. Diana was and will continue to be their compass and extended to 12 grandchildren.

Diana was a seeker of truth and found it in her study of the Bible with Jehovah's Witnesses. She compared the scriptures in many different versions of the Bible after which she concluded that she wanted to give exclusive devotion to Jehovah God and follow the footsteps of Jesus Christ, and was baptized in July 1979 at the Divine Love District Convention at Pullman, Washington.

Diana loved sharing the hope of living forever on a paradise earth (Luke 23:43) without pain, sorrow, and death (Rev. 21:3,4; Ps. 37:11,29) with all who would lend an ear. We would be remiss not to mention Diana loved home keeping, music, singing, bicycling, gardening and walking, too.

There will be a memorial service held for Diana at the Kingdom Hall of Jehovah's Witnesses on 20 June, 2015, at 601 S.W. Runnion Ave., Pendleton, OR, at 3:00 p.m. followed by a get-together at the Vert Auditorium, 480 S.W. Dorion Ave., from 4-6 p.m.

Expressions of condolences may be left online at www.pioneerchapel.com.
