

PUBLIC SAFETY LOG

MONDAY

•A man at 9:27 a.m. reported a yard maintenance business damaged the sign to his lane off Walla Walla River Road, Milton-Freewater. He said the repair will cost $200 and wanted to speak to a Umatilla County sheriff's deputy.

•Pendleton police at 10:28 a.m. received a report that an offender had a hit list that included his defense attorney from an old case, his parole/probation officer and others. Pendleton Police Chief Stuart Roberts said police know the person who claimed to have the list, and he has mental health and criminal issues. "Let's just say we are taking the appropriate precautions," Roberts reported.

•A Pendleton officer a little after 11 a.m. initiated activity for overhanging trees on Northwest Eighth Street, Gilliam Avenue and 11th Street.

•The Umatilla County Sheriff's Office at 11:31 and 11:54 a.m. received reports of someone cutting fuel lines to a company's vehicles and stealing fuel at GN Northern Inc., 81006 Highway 395, Hermiston.

•A caller at 12:35 p.m. told the Morrow County Sheriff's Office he bought a vehicle for $12,000 from an Irrigon resident, but that person did not pay off the loan, so the caller can not switch the title, and now the seller will not return phone calls.

The person called again three minutes later and reported the same problem, which the sheriff's office determined is a civil issue.

•A man at about 1:30 p.m. beat his dog because it would not get into his car at Diagonal Boulevard and East Punkin Center Road, Hermiston. A witness reported the beating and said the car was an older gold-colored four-door, but she did not know the make or model.

•A waitress at 1:36 p.m. reported theft of her tips at Denny's, 610 Tutuilla Road, Pendleton.

•A male at 1:35 p.m. reported he received a text from his "ex" saying "help me," and then she called his work and said, "They were beating her." He reported the only location he had was East Diagonal Road. The Umatilla County Sheriff's Office did not find anything.

•A woman at 5:56 p.m. asked Pendleton police for advice after her friend took her car two days ago without permission and wrecked it.

•A Pendleton mother at 6:54 p.m. told police her ex-husband took her son, against the parenting plan they have. She said she was at a wiffball game behind the Pendleton Round-Up Grounds where the exchange occurred.

•Pilot Rock police at 8:36 p.m. received a report that a man who was verbally abusive toward his wife would not allow her to move her personal items out of the home.

•Someone at about 10:30 p.m. beat on doors and windows of a Pendleton residence on Southwest Isaac Avenue. The occupant who called police is elderly and disabled and did not see the culprit but did ask for extra police patrols in the area.

After graduating from Elyria High School (Ohio) in 1944, Albert began Oberlin College, diverting to be inducted in the U.S. Army where he served both in the South Pacific and in Korea during World War II. Upon returning home, he finished his Bachelor of Arts degree at Oberlin College, graduating in 1949. He went on to Ohio State University, completing a Master of Science degree in bacteriology in 1951, and completing the Doctor of Medicine degree at Case Western Reserve University in 1955. He married Yvonne Capone in 1950. They had five children together.

Moving to Oregon in 1955, he completed his Internship at Sacred Heart Hospital in Eugene and a one-year residency in internal medicine at the Portland Veterans' Administration Hospital. He completed a one-year residency in psychiatry at the Oregon State Hospital in Salem and was a staff physician there for a year. He practiced general medicine in Salem for 8 years, leaving to complete two more years of residency in psychiatry in Traverse City, Mich., and in Albuquerque, N.M. His residency in community psychiatry led to a long career in community mental health in Oregon.

He was a staff psychiatrist for Lane County Mental Health, and director of Marion County Mental Health until his move to Pendleton, in 1975. He worked for the State Mental Health Division as clinical director for the Eastern Oregon Comprehensive Community Mental Health Center, serving multiple counties in Eastern Oregon, and as chief medical officer and clinical director and later as superintendent for the Eastern Oregon State Hospital and Training Center. He married Lorraine Sullivan Crawford in 1978. As the state hospital began the process of closure, he opened a private psychiatry practice in Pendleton, closing his practice after 30 years, at the age of 86.

as president of Rotary International Pendleton, president of the Association of Oregon Mental Health Clinic Directors, chairman of the Umatilla County Local Alcoholism Planning Commission, and president of the St. Anthony Hospital Medical Staff.

He served as a medical officer in the U.S. Army Reserve and in the Oregon National Guard. He was Oregon State Surgeon for 8 years, retiring from the Oregon National Guard after 39 years of combined service with the U.S. Army Reserve and the Oregon National Guard.

He leaves behind his wife of 36 years, Lorraine; four children: John (Cindy) Baxter, Karen (Manuel) Garibay, Lisa (Greg) Gettig, and Patricia (Mike) Harrahill; 14 grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren. He was predeceased by his infant daughter Denise Patricia Baxter, his great-granddaughter Scarlet Winter Garibay, his parents, and his sister Eileen Lucille Standen.

It was Dr. Baxter's long-time dream to come to Eastern Oregon. An outdoorsman all his life, he loved fishing, hunting and hiking with friends and family and he loved the Pendleton Round-Up. He enjoyed many years spending time at the family cabin at Langdon Lake. He loved symphony, opera and theatre, and was a strong supporter in the development of the life of the arts in Pendleton.

Heartfelt thanks are extended to the St. Anthony Hospice staff and to our caregivers at home: Terry, Mickey, Susie and Esther; to our caregivers at Pendleton Ashley Manor: Brandy, Taylor, Heather Y., Heather H., Hannah, Kim, Jake, Kelly, Kristen, Marilyn, Daisy, Martha and Tabby; and to Dan Marier, M.D.
