

PUBLIC SAFETY LOG

FRIDAY

•A teen skateboarder at about 8 a.m. hit a black Dodge Dakota at Southwest 15th Street and Isaac Avenue, Pendleton. The driver reported there did not seem to be any damage, and she gave the boy a ride to Pendleton High School.

•A motorcyclist ended up in a hospital after a crash. The wreck happened at about 10:40 a.m. on Custforth Corner on Highway 207 near Lexington. Multiple emergency agencies responded. A Heppner ambulance took the driver to Pioneer Medical Center, Heppner, which then sent him in an emergency flight to another hospital.

•A Pendleton resident at 2:15 p.m. reported her mother threatened her with having her brother beat her. She said this stems from a report she made last week to police about a neighbor selling pills at Pendleton Square Apartments 300 S.W. 28th Drive.

•Two juveniles at about 3:15 p.m. on the Umatilla River below the 1900 block of Northwest Carden Avenue tried to use a fishing net to catch a pelican. A caller expressed concern about the safety of the youth and the pelican. The youths were interns from Blue Mountain Wildlife, who took the injured bird to Pendleton Veterinary Clinic. The pelican had a badly broken wing, and the bird was humanely euthanized.

•A Umatilla caller at 6:38 p.m. told police a medium size, white and brown dog runs around Cherry Street teasing all the other dogs. The caller also said the problem canine nipped his friend a while back.

•A woman at 7:41 p.m. reported a recent break-in at cabins she manages on the 61300 block of Mill Creek Road, Milton-Freewater. Someone broke a window at one cabin and tore apart books in another.

•Pendleton police at 8:26 p.m. received a report that an older white man was trying to break into cars at Dave's 12th Street Food Mart, and a caller at 8:35 p.m. reported a male stole property from her car about 20 minutes before at Bare Bones, 1304 S.W. Dorion Ave., which is about a block from Dave's.

•A boy struck a girl in the face with his closed fist at the Don Baxter Skate Park, Irrigon. A witness called police at 8:40 p.m. and reported the assault. A Morrow County sheriff's deputy talked to both juveniles and told them to stay away from one another.

•A member of the Southshore Neighborhood Watch at 9:51 p.m. on Southshore Drive, Umatilla, reported people park near the Columbia River in a no-parking area and start fires there at night. The caller said he was concerned about a grass fire starting.

•A young man at about 10:50 p.m. knocked on the door of a resident on Highway 339 near Milton-Freewater, acted like he was going to start a conversation and then asked the resident to give his car a jump. The resident declined and called the Umatilla County Sheriff's Office to have a deputy contact him.

SATURDAY

•Umatilla police at 2:44 a.m. received a call that a man was possibly assaulting a woman at Fifth Street. The caller hung up before dispatchers could gather more information.

•A person at about 2:35 a.m. got out of a silver vehicle at the Shell station at 335 S.E. Court Ave., Pendleton, left the vehicle running and beat another person, then drove away toward Byers Avenue. Police did not find the vehicle.

•A Pendleton man at 10:21 a.m. reported he and his fiancée have been receiving threatening Facebook messages from his ex-girlfriend.

•A caller at 2:14 p.m. from the U.S. Post Office, Weston, reported the theft of a van from a nearby vacant lot. The caller said this happened sometime in the last eight months.

•A Pendleton resident on Southeast Third Street complained about finding syringes on her property, possibly from a neighbor who uses her driveway.

•The Umatilla County Sheriff's Office at 8:26 p.m. received a report of approximately 20 gunshots at Highway 332 and Triangle Station Road, Milton-Freewater.

•A caller at 8:37 p.m. reported two men fought in and out of an apartment on West Madrona Avenue, Hermiston.

•A woman at 8:56 p.m. told Pendleton police she and her boyfriend argued Friday and he made a sexual comment about her 4-year-old daughter.

SUNDAY

•A Milton-Freewater woman at 9:40 a.m. asked the Umatilla County Sheriff's Office for advice on how to stop a man from sending her father harassing text messages.

•A caller at 9:54 a.m. reported the theft of a 2001 red Hyundai from Southeast Utah Avenue, Irrigon.

•A Pendleton woman at 1:13 p.m. reported someone has been trespassing on her property and leaving dead rodents in her yard.

•A mother in Irrigon at 3:59 p.m. reported a male is putting his hands on her daughter and threatened the family. The mother said the male lived with them but she wanted him out. Morrow County sheriff's deputies waited for the male to return to remove his belongings, and deputies warned him because of the differences in his and his girlfriend's ages.

•A Pendleton man at 4:44 p.m. told police he and his girlfriend broke up, and she wants to take plants from the garden they planted and in fact she pulled out some already. Police considered this a civil problem.

•A big man at about 7 p.m. tried to fight with teens at the Irrigon Skate Park on Northeast Main Street, Irrigon. The man left while a person was calling for the Morrow County Sheriff's Office.

•The Morrow County Sheriff's Office at 7:49 p.m. received a call about possible child neglect and abuse at a residence in Irrigon.

•A Weston man at 10:35 p.m. reported a man came to his residence, threatened to kill him and leave the body in the mountains.

ARRESTS, CITATIONS

Friday

•Pendleton police at 12:47 p.m. received a report that a male threatened people with a knife at the bus stop at the Wal-Mart Supercenter. Police arrived and arrested James Alan Cloninger, 25, of Hawaii, for second-degree disorderly conduct and possession of heroin.

•Morrow County Sheriff's Office arrested Marco Antonia Garcia, 29, no address provided, on a felony failure-to-appear warrant and for possession of methamphetamine.

•Milton-Freewater police arrested Ricky Lee Chessman, 50, of Milton-Freewater, for menacing (domestic violence).

Saturday

•Stanfield police arrested Bobby Leroy Montgomery Jr., 51, no address provided, for DUI.

Sunday

•Pendleton police arrested Michael Patrick Mattes, 27, of 45188 Mission Road, Pendleton, for DUI.

•Umatilla County Sheriff's Office arrested Michael Quinn Ruiz, 23, of Umatilla, for fourth-degree assault constituting domestic violence. His arrest came after a 9-1-1 call at 5:57 p.m. from a woman who said Ruiz hit her with a belt and broke her cat's neck.

•Umatilla tribal police arrested Dylan Lanis Peppers, 19, of Pendleton, for DUI.

•A caller at 10:48 p.m. told Pendleton police her boyfriend was beating her. Officers arrested Chad Wesley Thomas, 32, of 1608 S.W. Hailey Ave., Pendleton, for fourth-degree assault constituting domestic violence.

OBITUARIES

Helen M. Jobes

Kennewick, Wash.
January 25, 1930-June 10, 2015

Helen M. Jobes peacefully passed away on June 10, 2015, at Hospice House at the Chaplaincy in Kennewick, Washington, at the age of 85.

She was born in American Falls, Idaho, to Joseph and Mary Kucera, the youngest of 10 children. Helen graduated from American Falls High School and moved to Pendleton, Ore., where she met her future husband and love of her life, Dennis Jobes. They later moved to Pilot Rock where they owned and operated the Pilot Rock Grocery. They enjoyed 58 years of marriage until Dennis passed away in 2006.

Jobes

Over the years Helen and Dennis could be seen at sporting events and activities supporting their children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren. Helen was an active member of St. Helen's Catholic Church in Pilot Rock where she was involved with the Altar Society. In recent years she joined the Schoenstatt Movement through the Catholic Church, which brought her spiritual renewal and many close friends. In the past two years she was a member of St. Andrew's Mission Church.

Helen always had a passion for gardening and had one of the most beautiful yards in Pilot Rock. For her efforts, she had earned the Pilot Rock "Yard of the Month Award." She also took great pride in her town and its youth and was named the Pilot Rock Citizen of the Year for her efforts in city beautification and cleanup with help from local middle and high school students. Helen was a homemaker and "the glue" of her family. Family members radiated toward her. She was an extremely loving mother who taught her children kindness and generosity. Helen was a compassionate soul and always sought out the good in others. She leaves behind a lifetime legacy of love and great memories shared by her family and friends. She will be missed by all who knew and loved her.

Helen recently moved to Legacy Cottage in Kennewick, Wash., where she was under the care of compassionate and loving caregivers. Helen was preceded in Heaven by her husband Dennis, sons Ron and Dean, daughter Marla Michael and grandson Travis Sampson as well as her parents, her three sisters and five of her brothers. Helen is survived by her son Jim (Nancy) Jobes of Keizer, Ore., and daughters Valorie (Sonny) Sampson of Pilot Rock and Belinda (Dave) Roberts of Pasco, Wash. She leaves behind 18 grandchildren, 27 great-grandchildren and her brother Edward Kucera.

Mass will be celebrated Saturday, June 20, 2015, at 1:00 p.m. at St. Helen's Catholic Church in Pilot Rock, with interment following at Pilot Rock Cemetery. A small reception will follow in the church hall. Sign the online condolence book www.burnsmortuary.com Burns Mortuary of Pendleton is handling arrangements.

In lieu of flowers the family suggests that you consider making a donation to Hospice House at the Chaplaincy in Kennewick, located at 2108 Entiat Ave., Kennewick, WA 99336 (www.tricitieschaplaincy.org) in recognition of the perfect end-of-life care the nurses and staff provided Helen and her family and friends at her final home.
