

PUBLIC SAFETY LOG

WEDNESDAY

•A gas line broke and caught fire at about 8:30 a.m. in Pilot Rock, endangering a bed-ridden resident.
Pilot Rock firefighters responded to the 400 block of Southwest Birch Place for the gas fire and requested an ambulance from Pendleton to rescue the one person inside. The gas company had to dig up the line before shutting off the flow at about 9:30 a.m.
•A Umatilla resident at 10:16 a.m. reported a male driver Tuesday morning ran over her Yorkie, killing the little dog. She said the driver complained about being late for work, did not provide her any information and said he would stop after work. But he did not, she said, and she asked to have a police officer talk to her.
•Pendleton police at 10:20 a.m. dealt with sales signs on a power pole at Southwest Frazer Avenue and Main Street. The poles are private property, and placing yard sale and other signs on the poles, as well as stop signs and the like, is a violation of Pendleton's city code.
•A woman at 1:22 p.m. told the Umatilla County Sheriff's Office that two horses and eight cattle are not receiving water in a pasture at South Cabana Road and Mulberry Lane, Hermiston. She also said she would sign a complaint against the owner if necessary.
•A caller at 2:37 p.m. reported someone named "John" is behind Melanie Square on Southwest 18th Street playing in newly poured concrete.
•A caller at 6:48 p.m. told law enforcement she was concerned about a black Honda that "keeps racing up and down" near Nazarene Church of Hermiston, 1520 W. Orchard Ave., Hermiston, because the church is holding vacation Bible school.
•A caller at 7:21 p.m. reported a man threatened to shoot another man at Villadom Mobile Home & RV Park, 53785 W. Crockett Road, Milton-Freewater. No guns were in sight, the caller said, but the threat-maker owns many guns.
•A pair of Pendleton 16-year-old boys were unharmed in a crash at about 9:30 p.m. near Pendleton. One was the driver and the other the passenger in a Honda Civic southbound on Highway 395. They were passing another vehicle but did not see the dead deer in the roadway until it was too late. The Honda hit the carcass and crashed wheel-side down on the east side of the embankment of McKay Creek.

ARRESTS, CITATIONS

•Morrow County Sheriff's Office cited a 27-year-old woman in Lexington for keeping a dog as a public nuisance after a caller at 8:04 a.m. reported suffering bites from the dog on a foot and forearm.
•Stanfield police arrested James Charles Carter, 50, no address provided, for possession of methamphetamine.
