- The Morrow County Sheriff's Office is investigating a fight that occurred at about 3:30 p.m. at the Irrigon Shell station. The fight may have involved gang members.
- A Pendleton-area resident on Adams Road at 3:40 p.m. reported someone poisoned her dogs. She said both barked all night and then in the morning were on her front porch, dead.
- Pilot Rock police at 4:12 p.m. received a report of stalking and began an investigation.
- A woman at 6:09 p.m. told Pendleton police her boyfriend the previous night cut her leg with a knife while he was drunk.
- A woman at about 8 p.m. tried to commit suicide at the Sub Zero Motel, Irrigon. The Morrow County dispatch center received a 9-1-1 call, but no one spoke. The center called back and a woman answered and said she wanted to kill herself and took an overdose of methamphetamine. Nearby emergency services responded and an ambulance rushed her to Good Shepherd Medical Center, Hermiston.

ARRESTS, CITATIONS

Friday

- Morrow County Sheriff's Office cited Giselle Lee Moses, 40, no address provided, for driving under the influence of intoxicants and failure to drive in a lane after a caller at 3:19 a.m. reported a vehicle hit the fence at the construction site for the new court-house administration building in Heppner.
- A fight in Boardman led to one arrest.
- A caller at 11:37 p.m. reported a man was trying to fight an employee at the Sinclair service station, 100 N. Main St., Boardman. City police and Morrow County sheriff's deputies responded, and Boardman police arrested 20-year-old Pablo Cox Perez, no address provided, and booked him into the Umatilla County Jail, Pendleton, on a charge of unauthorized use of a motor vehicle.
- Oregon State Police caught a local motorcyclist after he zoomed to 105 mph while driving with a passenger.
- A trooper on Highway 11 near milepost 7 at 9:34 p.m. spotted a Kawasaki EX-6 doing 89 mph through the 55 mph zone, according to state police. The officer hit his lights as he overtook the motorcyclist, who turned onto Highway 331. The driver continued and sped by vehicles in a no-pass zone until stopping at Mission Market on at Highway 331 and Mission Road.
- Aaron Eagle Watchman, 33, of Pendleton, told the trooper he thought it was safer to stop further down the highway, then later said he made a mistake. The trooper arrested Watchman for attempt to elude police in a vehicle, a felony, and recklessly endangering another and reckless driving, both misdemeanors.
- Umatilla Tribal Police allowed Watchman's passenger, a 28-year-old woman, to go free after making sure she had no warrants.

OBITUARIES

Pearl Lorraine Lemmon

Hermiston
July 12, 1931-June 1, 2015

Our beloved mother passed away June 1, 2015, in her home in Hermiston, Oregon; she was 83. Pearl was the first child born to Fred and Elsie Miller in Burley, Idaho, in 1931. The family journeyed to Hermiston in the early 1950s.

In her high school years she worked at Mode O Day Dress Shop on Main Street in Hermiston and was honored to be a princess on the Umatilla County Fair court. She enjoyed being a member of the Sage Riders Horse Club.

She is a graduate of Hermiston High School. While attending she met the love of her lifetime, partner Marvin Lemmon, and they were soon married. They raised five children and she worked side by side, opening Marv's Texaco, and later established the family business, Hermiston Tire & Auto.

During these years Pearl was very active with Altrusa Club and a member of the Elks Club. She enjoyed chaperoning Miss Umatilla County to the Oregon Coast for the Miss Oregon pageant. Many summers Pearl drove harvest potato truck for Bud Rich. She loved running her cattle herd and we teased her and called her the "Cattle Whisperer."

Pearl was a devoted wife, mother, grandmother, sister and true friend.

She enjoyed tending to her garden and many more hours canning. Family gatherings and events were the highlights of her life. Her most treasured time was spent with family and she was extremely proud of her grandchildren. Faithfully staying in contact with them, she was known as "Gram." She will be treasured always for her laughter, stories, sweet words of wisdom and encouragement. Pearl was an inspiration to anyone who was blessed to know her.

Pearl is survived by her sister Jessica Vance; children Robert Lemmon, Randy Lemmon, Teresa Brower, Tami Sparks and Sheryle Crowell, all of Hermiston; 20 grandchildren and 16 great-grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Marvin Lemmon, and granddaughter Lacey Lemmon.

Her Celebration of Life will be held on Saturday, June 27th at 10:00 a.m. at the Assembly of God Church, 730 E. Hurlburt Ave., Hermiston, Oregon. There will be a luncheon following at the Hermiston Elks Lodge, 480 E. Main St., from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m.

In lieu of flowers memorial donations may be made to Campus Life of Hermiston in her memory.
