

PUBLIC SAFETY LOG

TUESDAY

•A caller at 9:05 a.m. reported horse abuse in the pasture on Northeast 18th Street between East Beatrice Road and East Theater Lane, Hermiston.

•A Pendleton man at 12:25 p.m. told police a woman spreads rumors that he is a child molester. He said he was tired of the harassment and false allegations and asked for options on dealing with the situation.

•A Pilot Rock woman at 1:19 p.m. reported she received text messages and phone calls from a significant other of a woman police already warned for harassment.

•A Hermiston-area man at 2:39 p.m. reported he took his property and left his residence on South Edwards Road after he argued with this girlfriend about her using drugs while she is pregnant.

•Pendleton police at 7:29 p.m. received a report that a boy threatened to beat and rape a 14-year-old girl.

•An Athena resident at 7:58 p.m. reported a man she has a restraining order against is trying to find her through her family members, which is a violation of the order.

•Hermiston police are looking for a guy who got away. Police Capt. Darryl Johnson said that will not be the case for long — officers know 35-year-old Roy Castillo by sight. Castillo is wanted on a warrant, Johnson said, and officers saw him at about 8 p.m. at the Sunset Motel, 425 N. First St., Hermiston. Castillo of Umatilla is "a compulsive runner," said Johnson, and fled in a vehicle from police. He stopped at Northwest 12th Street and Madrona Avenue but continued fleeing on foot. Johnson said Castillo probably knew someone in the area and was able to hide out there from police. But he said it is only a matter of time before Castillo is again in cuffs.

•A woman at 8:44 p.m. told Pendleton police a male in an older blue Ford Bronco pulled up to her outside the Pendleton Chamber Of Commerce, 501 S. Main St., and tried to get her to get into his vehicle. She said he drove up South Main Street and she lost sight of the Bronco.

•A female with four males caused a disturbance at about 11:30 p.m. in the parking lot of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, 850 S.W. 11th St., Hermiston.

WEDNESDAY

•A caller at 12:29 a.m. reported a driver of a Toyota Camry "was expressing road rage" while heading into Umatilla from westbound Interstate 82. The driver flashed headlights and drove in front of the caller and then slammed on brakes.

•A city of Umatilla resident at 5:24 a.m. reported he returned to his home on Second Street and found someone stole his TV, valuables and other items. He said the doors were closed and locked but the windows were open.

ARRESTS, CITATIONS

Tuesday

•Hermiston police arrested Benjamin Marquez, 22, of Hermiston, for fourth-degree assault, harassment and second-degree kidnapping. Hermiston police Capt. Darryl Johnson said Marquez fought with his significant other and forced her to move more than 100 feet from where she wanted, which led to the kidnapping charge.

•Milton-Freewater police arrested a young mother for felony domestic violence.

Police Chief Doug Boedigheimer reported Dillon Farley, 22, called for police and reported his girlfriend, Felicia Marie Caputo, also 22, struck and strangled him in front of their child. Officers arrived at the couple's residence, 621 N.W. Eighth Ave., Milton-Freewater, and noted marks on Farley's neck. Based on the visible evidence and his statement, police arrested Caputo for domestic harassment and strangulation.

The harassment is a misdemeanor, but the strangulation is a felony because it occurred in front of their girl, who is younger than 2.

Police booked Caputo into the Umatilla County Jail, Pendleton.

Wednesday

•Umatilla tribal police arrested Amanda Jean Ferris, 26, no address provided, for possession of methamphetamine.

Robert Clayton Kelly

Mesquite, Nevada

July 26, 1922-January 28, 2015

Robert Clayton Kelly of Mesquite, Nevada, passed away January 28, 2015. He was born July 26, 1922, in San Diego, California, to Albert Clayton Kelly and Meta Andersen Kelly.

The family moved to Davenport, Iowa, in 1927 where Bob graduated from Davenport High School. Following high school, Bob graduated from the California Maritime Academy. He was commissioned as an Ensign USNR and as an ensign in the U.S. Maritime Service. He worked as a shipboard engineer during WWII in the South Pacific.

In 1950, Bob graduated from Oregon State University with a B.S. degree in geology and entered active duty in the Navy at the beginning of the Korean conflict. In that same year he married Marylou Ferguson of Heppner, Oregon.

After his Navy duty, he was employed by the Sea Lift Command as a shipboard engineer sailing between the Pacific Coast and the Pacific Rim area. He retired from the Naval Reserves in 1967 as lieutenant commander.

In 1955, Bob graduated from the University of Washington with an MBA. From 1955-67 he worked in management positions for Scott Paper Company and the Boeing Company. In 1968 Bob was hired as an instructor at Blue Mountain Community College (BMCC) in Pendleton, Oregon. He was later appointed Dean of Instruction. Bob worked as dean until his retirement in 1987.

Bob was an active member of the Al Kader Shriners, Heppner Elk's Lodge, and a life member of the Masons.

Bob's wife Marylou passed away in 1980. He married Starla Jewell in 1986. The couple lived in northern Virginia for many years before retiring to Mesquite in 2005. Bob enjoyed the weather and golf courses. He continued his lifelong interest in business and economics as well as history. He was a world traveler and loved nothing better than a trip to a new country and learning about the history and geology of the area, and any golfing opportunities.

He is survived by his wife Starla, his daughters Luanne Hurl (Jim) and Shannon Kelly, three stepchildren, four grandchildren, four stepgrandchildren, and seven great-grandchildren.

Bob will have a military funeral Friday, July 17th at 3:00 p.m. at the Willamette National Cemetery in Portland, Oregon.
