ARRESTS, CITATIONS

Friday
 •Oregon State Police arrested Douglas Leonard Paczan, 48, address not provided, on charges of driving under the influence of intoxicants, reckless driving, attempting to elude police (vehicle) and refusal of breath intoxicant test. OSP received multiple complaints of a wrong-way driver on Interstate 84 near milepost 216. The officer attempted to stop the vehicle but the driver accelerated to 95 mph. After about three miles the driver suddenly made a hard left, drove into the median and rolled his vehicle several times. He was taken to St. Anthony Hospital, Pendleton, where a blood test revealed a 0.12 BAC. He was released with minor injuries and lodged at the Umatilla County Jail, Pendleton.

Saturday
 •OSP arrested Mike Rudolf Garrett, 55, address not provided, for DUI (drugs) and Tricia Brown, 44, of Fairview, for DUI.

•Boardman police arrested Yanike Binene, 25, address not provided, for felony unauthorized entry of motor vehicle.

SCHOLARSHIPS

Ione students receive McElligott scholarships

IONE — Five Ione High School graduates have been named recipients of the 2015-16 Maryan L. McElligott Memorial Scholarship: Charlette Burghard, a sophomore at Eastern Oregon University; Emily Holland, a sophomore at Carroll College in Montana; Stephen Holland, a senior at Linfield College in Oregon; JoAnna Patton, a senior at Eastern Oregon University; and Tashina Rushlow, a junior at Eastern Oregon University. Each will each receive a $1,500 scholarship for the upcoming school year.

The Maryan L. McElligott Memorial Scholarship fund has awarded scholarships to Ione High School alumni each year since 1997. The scholarship is open to all college undergraduates, with a preference given to students in their sophomore year or above. The fund was established in memory of Mrs. McElligott, who passed away in 1993 after a battle with cancer.

The Maryan L. McElligott Memorial Scholarship fund makes annual awards to graduates of Ione High School who are enrolled or will be enrolled in a full-time undergraduate course of study at any accredited post-secondary institution, including out-of-state institutions. Applicants, including McElligott scholarship recipients, may reapply each year as long as they meet the eligibility requirements. Applications are available through the Oregon Student Access Commission at <http://www.oregonstudentaid.gov/>.

Contact: Vince McElligott at 218-217-4873 or vince.mc@comcast for more information.

Chester (Chet) Neusom Phillips

Boardman
April 14, 1949-July 15, 2015

Chester "Chet" Neusom Phillips, 66, died suddenly on Wednesday, July 15, 2015. Chet was born on April 14, 1949, in Medford, Oregon.

Chet graduated from Riverside High School in Boardman, Oregon, in 1967 as the state champion football quarterback. He attended Blue Mountain Community College in Pendleton, Ore., where his basketball team was recognized by the NWACC as a hall of fame team. It was during his time at BMCC when he was reconnected with his high school sweetheart, Lorrie Peterson Phillips, who was also attending BMCC. After graduation from Blue Mountain, he went to Oregon College of Education where he obtained his teaching degree.

He pursued his career in education in Sheridan, Ore., as a junior high school English teacher, while coaching the football and basketball teams. After 7 years of teaching, he and his family moved to Beaverton where he worked for Equitable/Axa Insurance Company for over 25 years. His love of sports kept him busy with volunteering as a football and baseball coach during this time. Shortly after his retirement, Chet and Lorrie moved back to Boardman, Ore., where he helped take care of Lorrie's ailing parents.

Chet was a passionate hunter and fisherman who loved taking his wife, sons, grandsons and friends with him on his many adventures outdoors. On his 50th birthday, he shot his prized trophy bull elk. Another hobby of his was stock car racing in Hermiston where he became the 2005 street stock class champion. He was an avid gardener, caretaker, photographer, and traveler. He was passionate about the future of his hometown and became mayor of Boardman in 2008. In his leisurely time, he enjoyed cooking for friends, family, and those at the local senior center where he volunteered.

He is survived by his loving wife, Lorrie Peterson Phillips; his two sons, Dean and Terry Phillips; and his grandsons Will Phillips and Michael Crawford. He was also survived by one brother and five sisters.

Respectively, the family will be holding a private family memorial service. Condolences may be sent to burnsmortuaryhermiston.com

Debra Lee 'Debbie' Wilson (Reid)

Hermiston
December 7, 1950-June 25, 2015

Debra Lee "Debbie" Wilson (Reid), of Hermiston, Ore., passed away on Thursday, June 25, 2015, at Oregon Health & Science University in Portland, Ore., at the age of 64. She went peacefully to be with the Lord, surrounded by friends and family.

Debbie was born on December 7, 1950, in Pendleton, Ore., to Doris Crystal (Jones) and Perry James Reid, and grew up in Dayton, Wash. She graduated from Dayton High School in 1969 and married Garry LeRoy Wilson on June 28th of that year in Hermiston, Ore. The couple moved back and forth between Oregon and Texas for Garry's job over the years, before settling permanently in Hermiston. Debbie worked numerous local jobs early in their marriage before retiring from Wal-Mart in 2012 after 20 years.

First and foremost, Debbie will be remembered as a loving wife, a mother and a grandmother. She was a kind, gentle woman who loved her family and the Lord. She lived to make people smile and held on to her sense of humor to the end.

Debbie was one of the first members of Hermiston Christian Center. She enjoyed staying active in the community by volunteering for various causes, including the Hermiston Christian School and the Special Olympics of Hermiston.

She had a passion for many different arts and crafts, entering numerous items into the Umatilla County Fair every year and sewing dresses for every occasion. She eventually pursued a lifelong dream by becoming a Bob Ross Certified Instructor, teaching painting classes both from her home and a local craft store.

Debbie is survived by her mother, Doris Reid; children Angela Wilson, Sara Shoemaker and husband Clint, Jonathan Wilson, and Bryan Wilson and wife Morgan; grandchildren Mark Wilson, Alec Wilson, Adrianna Wilson and River Wilson; and brother Steven Reid; all of Hermiston, Ore.; and sister Beverly Reid of Milton-Freewater, Ore. She is preceded in death by her father, Perry Reid; husband of 39 years, Garry Wilson; and children Christopher Wilson and April Wilson.

A celebration of life is scheduled for Friday, July 24, 2015, at 11:00 a.m. at Hermiston Christian Center, 1825 W. Highland Ave., Hermiston, Ore. In lieu of flowers, Debbie requested donations be made to the Hermiston Christian Center kitchen renovation project or Special Olympics Oregon-Hermiston.
