

OBITUARIES

Jason C. Anteau

Hermiston
November 23, 1971-July 24, 2015

Jason C. Anteau of Hermiston, Oregon, was born on November 23, 1971, in Dearborn, Michigan, to parents David and Lynda Segraves Anteau. He died on July 24, 2015, in Pendleton, Oregon, as the result of a motor-cycle accident at the age of 43 years.

Anteau

Jason was raised and attended schools in Eastern Oregon with his family settling in Irrigon, Oregon, in 1985. Jason worked for Marlette Homes in Hermiston, Oregon. He later was a wildland firefighter for 1-A Construction & Fire and a partner with Columbia River Builders for 10 years. Jason went to work for the Oregon Department of Transportation in Hermiston, Oregon, in 2010 and transferred to Heppner, Oregon, in 2013 where he was currently an area coordinator. Jason was united in marriage to Angela Stewart on February 21, 1998, in Las Vegas, Nevada, and made their home in Hermiston, Oregon.

He was a Hermiston volunteer fireman/EMT and on the Oregon State HazMat Team. Jason was the vice president of the East Desert Diamondbacks chapter of the Iron Order motorcycle club. He enjoyed hunting, fishing, cooking, riding his Harley, working on vehicles, rodeoing, camping, and spending time with family.

He is survived by his wife Angie Anteau, Hermiston, Ore.; son Trenten Anteau, Hermiston, Ore.; daughter Alex Anteau, Hermiston, Ore.; parents Dave and Lynda Anteau, Irrigon, Ore.; sister Kristen Anteau, Hermiston, Ore.; several aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins, and many other members of his family.

Jason was preceded in death by his brother, David Anteau II, his grandparents Buster and Arline Segraves, and his lifelong best friend Brian Brown.

A celebration of life service will be held on Saturday, August 1, 2015, at 11:00 a.m. at the Hermiston High School commons, Hermiston, Oregon. Please come as Jason preferred, casual and comfortable.

In lieu of flowers contributions in Jason's memory may be made to Shriners Hospital for Crippled Children, 3101 S.W. Sam Jackson Park Road, Portland, OR 97201

Ernest 'Ernie' Rostock

Pendleton
February 1, 1920-July 26, 2015

Longtime Pendleton resident Ernest "Ernie" Rostock, 95, passed away at Suttle Care facility in Pendleton on Sunday, July 26th.

Rostock

Ernie was born in La Grande, Oregon, Feb. 1, 1920, to parents Jacob and Ethel Rostock. He grew up in La Grande with brothers Glen and Edward and sister Helen.

A 1938 graduate of La Grande High School, he was an outstanding college basketball player at Eastern Oregon State College where he poured in 1,688 career points in four years of competition. Although he played at the small college level, his scoring record was established playing against most of the top schools in the Northwest. Rostock's scoring mark was a milestone in that it eclipsed the mark set the year before by the great Hank Lusetti of Stanford. Rostock was on the all-conference team both his junior and senior years and led the conference in scoring. In 1962 he was the first athlete from his college to be chosen for induction into NAIA Division II Hall of Fame. In 1988 he was inducted into the Eastern Oregon State College Hall of Fame. Ernie is one of only three men to play, coach and referee in the state triple A basketball tournament. His activities in these areas spanned a period from the 1930s to 1980. He coached Pendleton High School basketball from 1946-1951.

Ernie continued his basketball prowess in the Navy during WWII where he was a starter on the Memphis Naval Air technical training center basketball team. He served in the Navy Air Corp from 1943-45.

In 1947 he married Carolyn Elizabeth Williams and they celebrated their 68th wedding anniversary this past March. Together they raised three children, Mark, Julie and Jill. Carolyn has been a loving and supporting companion for Ernie. In addition to his interest in all sports, Ernie's hobbies included hunting, fishing and bowling and going to garage sales.

Ernie began his career in education in 1945 teaching health and science at the elementary level in Hermiston, Ore. In 1946 he was hired in Pendleton to teach PE and health at Helen McCune Junior High school. He remained at Helen McCune for 13 years.

Ernie received his Masters of Education in 1951 from the University of Oregon. He served as principal at John Murray Junior High from 1959 until his retirement in 1980.

Ernie's life was centered on his family and his community. He spent 34 years in the Pendleton education system and impacted the lives of many students. Ernie served his community in many organizations over the 69 years he lived in Pendleton: county president of United Good Neighbors, member of the United Methodist Church for 60 years, Kiwanis Club, Pendleton Frontier collectors club, County Mental Health Division Board and Eastern Oregon Alcoholism Foundation are just a few of the many organizations that he was involved with.

After his retirement in 1980 Ernie and Carol began a second career when they opened an antique store in Pendleton called "My Wife's Antiques." Ernie was an avid collector all his life so the store provided a perfect opportunity for the two of them working together doing something they enjoyed.

Ernie was always a very competitive person and strived to excel in all areas of his life. He was a loving husband, father, grandfather and great-grandfather.

Ernie is survived by his children Mark Rostock, Key Largo, Florida, Julie (Greg) Hart, Connell, Washington, and Jill (Cliff) Banister of Pendleton; and grandsons Eric (Chafen) Hart, Dallas, Texas, and Brian (Kelli) Hart of Seattle, Washington. Ernie was blessed with five great-grandchildren, Allie, Hal, Lucy, Dottie and Andrew.

Ernie was preceded in death by his parents, siblings Helen (Wallace) Allen, Edward Rostock and Glenn (Marge) Rostock, and granddaughter Emily Louise Hart.

The family is grateful for the kind and supportive care that was given to Ernie during his years at McKay Creek Estates and Suttle Care.

A memorial service for Ernie will take place on Friday, July 31st at 10:00 at the First United Methodist Church in Pendleton, followed by interment at Olney Cemetery in Pendleton.

Alvina Fay Padberg

Ione
January 15, 1921-June 3, 2015

Longtime Ione resident Alvina Fay Padberg, 94, peacefully passed June 3, 2015 at Willow Creek Terrace Assisted Living Facility in Heppner with family at her side. A Celebration of Life is scheduled for Saturday, August 8, 2015, at 1 p.m. at the Port of Morrow building in Boardman with a luncheon to follow.

She was born January 15, 1921, in the Heppner area, the daughter of Alvin (Alvy) and Prudy Holcomb Casebeer. Alvina grew up in the Sandhollow area with her older brother Marvin and older sister Gladys. She spent a lot of time on her favorite horse watching over the family livestock.

After going to work for the Padberg family at the Rhea Creek farm, Alvina meet Darrell Padberg. On March 24, 1940, she married Darrell, the love of her life. From that marriage two children were born, daughter Leann and son Marvin. As a young farmer's wife, Alvina did her part on the farm by driving wheat truck during the harvest seasons.

Alvina had many hobbies throughout her life. She was an avid seamstress, not only for herself but offering her talents to many of her friends. Later she used her artistic talents to produce many ceramic pieces, which can be seen in the many collectibles at her home in Ione. For many years she was an avid bowler, bowling on as many as three leagues at a time and arranging many bowling trips to tournaments for herself and her teammates. Throughout her entire life she was an ardent card player. She arranged and participated in many Pinochle and Pedro tournaments at Ione as well as at the Heppner Elks. One of Alvina's other favorite card games was Loo, where she could hold her own with the best of the players.

She loved her family and is survived by her two children, Leann Padberg Rea of Heppner and Marvin Padberg and his wife Tanna of Ione; seven grandchildren and numerous great-grandchildren; and a younger sister, Joyce Breeding.

Preceding her in death were her parents; her husband of 61 years; brother Marvin and his wife Ruth Ann Casebeer; sister Gladys and her husband Archie Hill; brother-in-law Paul Breeding; and son-in-law Jerald Rea.

Alvina lived a long and rewarding life and will be greatly missed by family and friends. In lieu of flowers donations may be made to Willow Creek Terrace, 400 Frank Gilliam Drive, Heppner, OR 97836, Morrow County Hospice, P.O. Box 9, Heppner, OR 97836, or the charity of your choice.

Sweeney's Mortuary of Heppner was in charge of arrangements.
