

FRIDAY
•A caller at 5:59 p.m. asked if neighbors on Highway 207, Heppner, could fire black powder guns at her home. Morrow County sheriff's personnel talked to the person in question and reported there would be no more shooting.

SATURDAY
•The Morrow County Sheriff's Office from about 10 to 11:30 p.m. responded to four noise complaints. An Irrigon resident called at 10:02 p.m. about loud music on Hurd Lane. A deputy found a party, but there was no music; the group said they nixed that at 10 p.m. to comply with local noise laws.

The second complaint was at 10:04 p.m. about loud music from a Heppner resident on South Main Street. A deputy, though, did not find any problem there.

Back in Irrigon, then, at 10:43 p.m. with loud music on Washington Lane. This time a deputy talked to folks at a party, and they said they would turn the volume way down.

And a fourth complaint also came from Irrigon at 11:23 p.m. from Crooked Road. Again, loud neighbors were having a party, and they told a deputy they would turn it down.

SUNDAY
•A Umatilla mother at 6:46 p.m. reported her daughter broke up with her boyfriend, and he may have stolen her "A Nightmare Before Christmas" snow globe.

•A woman at 8:02 p.m. reported a stranger attacked her near McKay Reservoir. She said she was walking on Shaw and Spring Creek roads, Pilot Rock, when a man pushed her to the ground. She said she resisted, and he fled in an older gray car, possibly a Cadillac. She said the assault happened at about 7:40 p.m. and the man was in his late 20s, white, tall and stocky, with short brown hair and left south on Shaw Road.

•A caller at 10:13 p.m. reported a semi hauling radioactive material was parked near the fuel island at the Pilot Truck Center, 2115 Highway 395, Stanfield. The caller said such vehicles can only park at "safe havens."

MONDAY
•A man at 8:56 a.m. reported finding a dead dog in a field on Cox Lane, Hermiston, and it looked like something attacked the dog.

•A Milton-Freewater man at 11:24 a.m. complained about a homeless couple that trespass on his property and use electrical outlets on his shop. He asked the Umatilla County deputies to trespass them.

•A caller at 11:58 a.m. reported a man harassing and threatening to kill her friend, a woman who lives in Pilot Rock. This has been going on for some time, the caller said, and Umatilla tribal police are involved because most incidents happened on the Umatilla Indian Reservation.

•A caller at 3:54 p.m. reported two men fist fighting on the 800 block of Southwest Cedar Street, Pilot Rock. Three Oregon State Police troopers handled the call because Pilot Rock had no police on duty. Turned out no one was fighting, just arguing.

•A caller at 8:28 p.m. on McDaniels Road, Milton-Freewater, asked for a Umatilla County sheriff's deputy to deal with a man who refused to get off her property. She said he drives too fast, and this time she yelled at him to slow down. He hit the brakes, got out of the pickup and was angry about her sprinkler watering his vehicle.

•A Milton-Freewater resident at 8:36 p.m. reported a burglary and theft for electronics on the 900 block of North Main Street.

ARRESTS, CITATIONS
Saturday
•A vehicle at about 2:30 a.m. crashed into a shed on West Fourth Road, Irrigon. The property owner reported someone was hurt but did not know what the injuries were. Members of the Morrow County Sheriff's Office arrived and cited Harry Arnold Abercrombie III, 21, no address provided, for driving under the influence of intoxicants and reckless driving.

•Pendleton police arrested Kristin Marie Bradford, 32, of Pendleton, for fourth-degree assault (domestic violence).

The trooper arrested Murray, who, according to state police, proceeded to spit all over the back seat of the trooper's police car while on the way to the Umatilla County Jail, Pendleton. He also tried to break the door and damage the car. Those actions earned him a charge of third-degree mischief.

•A resident on Northwest Washington Avenue, Irrigon, called law enforcement at 1:46 a.m. about two guns firing 20 rounds. The Morrow County Sheriff's Office responded and found fireworks instead of guns, and then gave a citation to 56-year-old woman for violating the county's noise laws.
