Robert R. 'Bob' Taylor

Hermiston

February 20, 1926-July 28, 2015

Longtime Wheeler and Morrow County resident Robert R. "Bob" Taylor, 89, died Tuesday, July 28, 2015, at Hermiston, Oregon. Memorial service will be held Monday, August 3, 2015, at 10 a.m. at the chapel of Burns Mortuary of Hermiston. Graveside service with military honors will be held Monday, August 3 at 3 p.m. at the Mayville Cemetery in Mayville, Oregon.

Taylor

He was born February 20, 1926, at Twickenham, Oregon, the son of Ray and Avis Hawk Taylor. Bob was raised on the family farm in Mayville, Oregon. He attended school in Mayville and Fossil, graduating in 1943. Bob enlisted into the United States Marine Corps at the age of 17. He served as an amphibian tank driver for the First Marine Division. While in the Marines, he participated in the invasion of Peleliu and Okinawa. Bob was proud of being a Marine and said, "Once a Marine always a Marine".

After the war, Bob joined a sheep shearing crew and traveled throughout the western states. He always said his job was being a wool stomper. Bob worked on several ranches as ranch foreman including Smith and Sons and Wilson Ranches in Wheeler and Gilliam County.

On February 26, 1949, Bob married Luella Schmidt in Goldendale, Washington. They raised their two sons, Bob Jr. and Bill, on those ranches. While living in Fossil he served as County Deputy Marshal for the area dances and the county fair.

Upon leaving the ranch, Bob went to work at Kinzua Corporation. The couple then moved to Lexington, Oregon, where Bob served as mayor for eight years. In 2010, Bob and Luella moved to Sun Terrace Assisted Living in Hermiston.

Bob was a life member of the VFW Post # 4750 and the First Marine Division Association. He was also a member of the American Legion Post # 0087, and Willows Lodge IOOF of Heppner, Oregon. Bob loved spending time hunting elk and deer.

He was preceded in death by his parents, and his sisters Alpha McKenzie and Mary Sargent. Survivors include his wife of 66 years, Luella Taylor of Hermiston, Oregon; sons Bob Taylor and his wife Darla of Othello, Washington, and Bill Taylor and his wife Colleen of Baker City, Oregon; four grandchildren, Traci Davis (Tom) of Weatherboard, Texas, Thad Taylor (Tami) of Othello, Oregon, and Casey Taylor (Tera) of Baker City; and 11 great-grandchildren.

Memorial contributions may be made to Honor Flight Inc., Attn: Dianne Gresse, 300 E. Auburn Ave., Springfield, OH 45505.

Michael J. Myers

Port Orford, Ore.

October 28, 1943-June 26, 2015

Michael J. Myers lost his valiant battle with Type 1 diabetes on June 26, 2015 at Providence Willamette Falls Hospital in Oregon City.

Michael was born in his grandparents' house in New Plymouth, Idaho, on Oct. 28, 1943, to parents Orville Myers and Florence Russell Myers. He lived in Idaho and northern California until the family moved to Pendleton in 1951.

Myers

Michael attended public schools in Pendleton from the second grade until graduating from Pendleton High School in 1962. He then went to Blue Mountain Community College where he earned an AA and then on to Oregon State University where he graduated with a BS in wildlife management.

After graduating from OSU, he worked at the Oregon Coast Marine Science Center in Newport as a microbiologist testing the effects of pesticides on the Dungeness crab. While there he lived in Toledo, Oregon, with his wife and son. When funds for the program ran out, they moved to The Dalles, Oregon, where he worked for the city testing city drinking water.

After his divorce, he studied various religions and philosophies. He became very interested in the teachings of OSHO and moved to the Big Muddy Ranch in Central Oregon. He then moved to Redmond, Washington, for several years and did handyman work until his health prohibited this kind of work.

He retired to Port Orford, Oregon, in 1996 and loved the town and the people.

Michael had many interests during his life. He loved animals, bird watching, hunting agates on the beach, and hiking Coast Guard Hill in Port Orford. He could give you the common name or scientific name of all the plants, animals and insects in the area. He would whale watch during their migration. He also made beautiful jewelry until his eyesight started failing. He loved every book Patrick McManus wrote, re-read them several times and would anxiously wait for a new one to be published.

In the final months of his life Michael faced many medical challenges, which he accepted without complaint. He had an extraordinary optimism and terrific sense of humor right to the end. He loved people, giving hugs, making them laugh, and helping them in any way he could. He was a friend to everyone he met. No one was a stranger to him.

Michael was predeceased by his parents. He is survived by his sister, Orvetta Imler of Pendleton, son Michael Myers Jr. of Salina, Kansas, nieces Susan Cavallo and husband Tony of Pendleton and Shannon Hovelsrud of Albany, Oregon. He left many loving and devoted friends.

A celebration of life will be held Saturday, Aug. 15 at 2 p.m. at Bonnie & Leslie's Restaurant in Port Orford, Oregon.
