

PUBLIC SAFETY LOG

WEDNESDAY

•An Irrigon woman at 12:16 a.m. reported her husband resumed stalking her after she dropped the restraining order she had against him. She said she believed he was on her property on Magic Garden Lane.

•A Milton-Freewater resident at 5:57 a.m. reported the theft of her 2005 Pontiac G6 from the 500 block of Northwest Eighth Avenue, Milton-Freewater.

•An elderly Pendleton man at 8:25 a.m. reported a female on Tuesday entered his house on Southwest 28th Street unannounced, and when she left he noticed some of his jewelry missing.

•An employee of Wiland Ranches at 9:20 a.m. reported the theft of 25 gallons of fuel from a tractor at Best and Shaw roads, Pendleton.

•A man at 10:54 a.m. asked Pendleton police to check on the welfare of his children on Southwest 20th Street because he believed his ex-wife smokes marijuana and drinks in their presence.

•A Pendleton man at 4:58 p.m. on Southwest Hailey Place called 9-1-1 to report someone Tuesday night again cut his cable TV line.

•A man at 5:41 asked the Umatilla County Sheriff's Office to help find his father who he has not spoken with in about a year. The caller was at Pendleton hotel and came to visit his father, then found his father moved after breaking up with a woman. The sheriff's office was not able to find the man's father.

•A Pendleton resident at 5:59 p.m. on South Main Street complained about the neighbor's trash spilling from the garbage can and onto the street.

•A Stanfield-area woman at 6:15 p.m. reported a possible paving scam. She said a man contacted her at her home on South Edwards Road and asked if she wanted her driveway fixed, and he had excess asphalt to do that. She left her house, she said, and returned to find some of her gravel dug out. The asphalt guy also returned, and she told him she did not want the work. Flimflam operators use the scam as a ruse to bilk people for big bucks. Sometimes the scammers only splash oily liquid on a driveway, for example, other times they may say there was a mistake and then strong-arm people to pay thousands of dollars. They often target seniors and lack proper contractor credentials. If someone offers to pave your driveway or work on your roof for free, call law enforcement.

•A man with a backpack was trying to sell items at about 6:40 p.m. on West Ferndale Road, Milton-Freewater, and a neighbor-hood resident told him to leave. The man called the resident a "racist," and that prompted the resident to report the incident to the Umatilla County Sheriff's Office.

•A Stanfield resident at 7:07 p.m. reported the theft of his black 2004 Honda Accord from West Furnish Avenue.

•A female at 8:03 p.m. reported a group of males in a beige four-door sedan tried to give her a ride from McNary Market, Umatilla, and asked her personal questions. She asked for an officer to contact her in person.

•A Pendleton man asked to speak to police about vegetables being taken from his garden on Southwest Isaac Ave., Pendleton.

•A man at about 9 p.m. triggered the suspicions of a Milton-Freewater woman. She reported the doorbell rang at her residence on Tum A Lum Road, and as she turned on lights she saw a male step off her porch. He was dressed all in white, she said, had dark hair or a hat and a dark-colored backpack. He left walking toward Ferndale Road. She said she was concerned he was casing the homes.

ARRESTS, CITATIONS

•The Morrow County Sheriff's Office arrested Virgilio Carvajal Lopez, 24, no address provided, for driving under the influence of intoxicants and failure to carry and present identification. The arrest came after a man at 5:48 p.m. reported someone drove too fast and "took out" his fence and fence post on E Street, Ione.

•A Heppner man at 6:38 p.m. reported his roommate assaulted him. The Morrow County Sheriff's Office responded to the residence on Northeast Elder Street and arrested Thomas Wade Matthew, 21, for second-degree disorderly conduct and fourth-degree assault, both misdemeanors. The sheriff's office received information at 11:41 p.m. that Matthew also may have stolen items from the residence.
