

OBITUARIES

Sherri Gayle Holman

Pendleton
November 11, 1955-August 3, 2015

Sherri Gayle Holman, a Pendleton resident, passed away Monday, August 3, 2015, at Harborview Medical Center in Seattle, Washington. She succumbed to a spinal infection that left her paralyzed from the neck down; she made the decision that it was time to let go of all the pain she had endured for so many years, and to go on to her second life and wait for Randy to follow. She was 59 years old.

Sherri was born in Pendleton, Oregon, to Orville and Janet Ellinger. She was the youngest of three children. She dated Randy in high school and they married after she graduated in the fall of 1973.

She worked for the district attorney's office and the juvenile center in Pendleton, and then for a private law firm in Pasco, Washington, before returning to Pendleton and working for EOCI as the legal librarian until she retired at age 55. She enjoyed her summers in Pendleton, traveling in the winter to San Felipe, Baja California Norte. Camping, boating, fishing and crabbing were some of her favorite activities. Throw in a little side trip to a casino now and then, and she was a happy camper.

Sherri and Randy in their early years chose not to have children but nieces, nephews and her love of her cats filled that void; she spoiled them, and especially her dog Rosie, to the max! Her mother-in-law, she joked, got more instructions on how to babysit their dog than she got to care for her grandkids! Sherri replied, only half-joking, that her pets were much more important than those kids were. She and Randy just spent the July 4th weekend with her sister-in-law Lisa Andrews and her husband Randy. On the way up to their house on Birch Bay, they purchased an old 1947 Chevy pickup to relive some of their high school days. She was full of life and didn't see the sudden illness coming. She will be missed by many. Sherri is survived by her mother Janet Rothrock; her husband of almost 42 years, Randy; nephews, nieces and cousins, and her current cat Scooter. She was preceded in death by her sister Denise Ellinger Gibbs, brother Larri Ellinger, and father Orville Ellinger.

She asked for no pity and no funeral. Please fill a glass with your favorite beverage and toast her memory. Contributions in memory of Sherri Holman may be made to the Pendleton Animal Welfare Shelter (PAWS), and sent in care of Burns Mortuary of Pendleton, P.O. Box 489, Pendleton, OR 97801.
