

PUBLIC SAFETY LOG

TUESDAY

- A caller at 8:51 a.m. reported two suspicious young men dressed all in black with backpacks and carrying bicycle wheels and tires were looking at a red barn on Grace Lane, a private road, off West Ferndale Road, Milton-Freewater. Umatilla County Sheriff's Office did not find the pair.
- A Heppner man at 10:09 a.m. reported he moved out three days ago from a residence on Southeast Green Street and returned to find someone ransacked the place and there was a sleeping bag left behind.
- A Pendleton woman at 10:13 a.m. reported her landlord has been using her water on Southwest 15th Street, and when she asked him to disconnect he threatened to take taxes out of her Social Security and back rent.
- A caller at 11:52 a.m. reported a dog locked in a car in the parking lot of the Pendleton Wal-Mart Supercenter, 2203 S.W. Court Ave.
- A resident on Southwest Hailey Place, Pendleton, reported her neighbor has been yelling foul language at her, harassing her and harassing people who visit her.
- Pendleton police at 4:39 p.m. received a request to check on the welfare of an 8-year-old girl who was trying to cut herself.
- Someone at about 6:40 p.m. reported receiving a counterfeit $20 bill at a taco seller on Highway 11 outside Milton-Freewater. This is one of a few recent reports law enforcement has received about fake money in the area.
- A caller at 9:27 p.m. at the Irrigon Skate Park reported finding 18 DVD cases in the restroom.
- A Milton-Freewater caller at 9:45 p.m. reported a neighbor on Lawson and Alice streets has a back yard bonfire near a line of dead trees and close to a barn full of hay.
- A caller at 10:09 p.m. reported two people fighting at Highway 395 and Northeast Punksin Center Road, Hermiston. There was no report of arrests.

ARRESTS, CITATIONS

- Pendleton police arrested Connie G. Hendrickson, 55, of 713 N.W. Despain Ave., Pendleton, for driving under the influence of intoxicants following a crash on Southwest 19th Street.
- Morrow County Sheriff's Office arrested Skyler Lane Blythe, 20, of Irrigon, for domestic violence harassment.

OBITUARIES

Gene Marie Hobson

Arlington, Wash.
February 24, 1924-July 9, 2015

Gene Marie Hobson passed away July 9th, 2015, in Arlington, Wash. She was born in Kelso, Wash., on February 24, 1924. She was preceded in death by her husband Perry Wayne, son Terry Lee and daughter Sandie. She is survived by three children: Dave Hobson, Steve Hobson and Jill Ragsdale. She left behind five grandchildren, six great-grandchildren and two great-great-grandchildren.

Hobson

Gene was the consummate mother. She loved children, especially babies. She touched the lives of many, and left the world a better place. She was a Cub Scout den mother and PTA president. She completed an associate's degree in child development at age

60. She was a teaching assistant at Washington Elementary in Vancouver, Wash., where she taught math and reading until age 80!

Gene was a Catholic of strong faith. When younger she loved to dance, play volleyball and golf. Later she became a loyal fan of Notre Dame football and Mariners baseball. She loved animals, playing cards, sewing, and seasonal decoration of her home.

There will be a service at The Grotto (8840 N.E. Skidmore St.) in Portland at 7:30 p.m. on August 15th. In lieu of flowers, the family suggests a donation to: Providence Hospice & Home Care Foundation, 2731 Wetmore Avenue, Everett, WA 98201.

Cooling station closed for the summer

HERMISTON — The Hermiston Cooling Station is now closed for the summer.

The station provided a place to escape the heat and stay hydrated on weekends during the summer but will revert back to being the Hermiston Warming Station this winter.

The volunteers who run the station at 224 E. Main St. expect to have the Warming Station open on cold nights starting in November. For questions about the warming and cooling station visit <https://sites.google.com/site/warmingstation> or call Carol Johnson at 541-720-4295.

Fundraiser planned for karate trip

PENDLETON — A silent auction fundraiser to help Seth von Eggers fulfill his dream of competing with the U.S. National Junior Karate Team is planned.

The fundraiser features more than $2,000 worth of items up for bid in the silent auction, all donated by local businesses. In addition, a private dinner for four prepared by Chef Brian von Eggers will be on the block during a live auction. The event also offers raffles, free hors d'oeuvres and live music.

The fundraiser will be Saturday from 4-6 p.m. at Pendleton Center for the Arts, 214 N. Main St. All proceeds will help Seth von Eggers fund a trip to Bolivia to compete with the team. For more information, email timestales@msn.com.

Merchant's raffle to help victims of downtown fire

PENDLETON — Local area businesses have organized a Fire Merchants Raffle to help replace lost income for several Pendleton businesses that are still closed because of damage or unsafe buildings due to the recent fire at the old City Hall building.

One lucky winner will receive a barbecue package worth more than $800, including a Traeger Tailgater pellet smoker, Traeger seasonings and sauces, Traeger pellets, a smoker cover, three $50 gift cards for barbecue food and beverages, and an assortment of barbecue tools and picnic table necessities.

Tickets are $20 each, available at Dave's Chevron, 220 S.W. 12th St., and Blagg Rifles, 1238 S.W. Tutuilla Road. The winner will be drawn Sept. 5 at 12 noon at Dave's Chevron, and the ticket holder need not be present to win.

For more information, contact Lisa Blagg at 541-379-7066.

Echo school registration is August 20-21

ECHO — Registration for the Echo School District will take place from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. Aug. 20-21. The first day of school for the district is Aug. 24.

School hours for kindergarten through the third grade are 8:10 a.m. to 3:25 p.m.

For grades four and five, hours are from 8 a.m. to 3:40 p.m. For grades six through 12, hours are from 7:45 a.m. to 3:40 p.m.

First Draft features Portland author, editor

PENDLETON — Oregon author Brian Doyle will read from his new work during the First Draft Writers' Series Thursday, Aug. 20 at 7 p.m. at Pendleton Center for the Arts, 214 N. Main St. The event is free and open to the general public.

Doyle is the editor of Portland Magazine at the University of Portland — the best university magazine in America, according to Newsweek. He has written 14 books of essays, poems, stories, nonfiction and fiction, including "Mink River," "The Plover" and "The Grail," about a year in an Oregon vineyard.

Doyle's books have seven times been finalists for the Oregon Book Award, and his essays have appeared in The Atlantic Monthly, Harper's, Orion, The American Scholar, The Sun, The Georgia Review, and in newspapers and magazines around the world, including The New York Times, The Times of London, and The Age (in Australia).

Doyle's books will be available for purchase through the support of Armchair Books of Pendleton.

The main reading will be followed by an open mic, where community members can read their own 3-5 minute original writings. The event is made possible through the support of the Oregon Cultural Trust. For more information, call 541-310-7413 or visit pendletonarts.org.

Parks department offers art camp

PENDLETON — The Pendleton Parks & Recreation department is offering an art camp for children ages 4-14 during the last week of August.

This introductory camp will introduce each participant to the foundations of painting and drawing. The instructor works with each student for an individualized experience. The final day of camp will include an art show. All supplies are included in the registration fee.

The camp meets each day from Aug. 24-27. Ages 4-6 will meet from 8:45-10 a.m., while ages 7-14 convene from 10:30 a.m. to 1 p.m. Registration is $55 for the younger set, $70 for older children.

Registration is required no later than Tuesday. All sessions meet in the Foundation Room at the Pendleton Recreation Center, 510 S.W. Dorion Ave. For more information, or to register, visit the Parks and Rec office at 865 Tutuilla Road, visit www.pendletonparksandrec.com or call 541-276-8100.

Red Cross seeks volunteers for disasters, more

PENDLETON — The American Red Cross is recruiting volunteers in northeast Oregon for positions on disaster response teams and as preparedness presenters, disaster mental health volunteers and sheltering team members.

The organization will hold two sessions of orientation and disaster response team training Tuesday, Sept. 1 at the board room in the Pendleton Oxford Suites, 2400 S.W. Court Place, Pendleton. The first session is 1-4 p.m. and the second 6-9 p.m.

In addition, The American Red Cross seeks fire prevention team members to install smoke alarms and help area residents create a fire escape plan.

To let the Red Cross know you plan to attend, send an email to volunteer.cascades@redcross.org.

HHS class of '60 plans reunion

HERMISTON — The Hermiston High School class of 1960 is planning its 55-year reunion.

The event kicks off Friday, Sept. 25 at 5 p.m. with a drop-in social time at 5 p.m. at The Pheasant Cafe, 147 E. Main St. The activities continue Saturday, Sept. 26 with a 5 p.m. Happy Hour and dinner at 6 p.m. at the Walchli Ranch, 79937 S. Edwards Road. A final gathering is planned Sunday, Sept. 27 at 11 a.m. at McKenzie Park, 320 S. First St.

Organizers are looking for contact information on Lorena Culp and Judy Riker Martin.

For more information, call Lee Baggett at 541-310-0061.
