Woman gets $140K fine in alleged fraud

SALEM (AP) — Oregon consumer officials are warning the public about a Sisters woman who allegedly defrauded investors of $700,000 through fake business ventures.

The Bend Bulletin reports a spokesman for the Oregon Department of Consumer and Business Services says the agency wants to make sure Rebecca Ellen Castle isn't collecting money from investors.

According to a news release issued Thursday, the agency has imposed a $140,000 fine against Castle, who has a warrant out for her arrest.

Officials say Castle created several companies between 2005 and 2011, raising about $700,000 from at least 12 investors. Her business ventures ranged from feature film projects to the marketing of exercise equipment and suntan lotion to gold and silver mining operations. The investors allegedly never received a profit or return on their investment.

Judge refuses to perform same-sex marriages

PORTLAND (AP) — A Marion County judge has asked his clerks to refer couples seeking same-sex marriages to other county judges.

Judge Vance Day, a former chairman of the Oregon Republican Party, is now facing an ethics investigation as a result of that decision.

Spokesman Patrick Korten says Day asked his staff to send same-sex couples elsewhere due to his religious beliefs.

On Thursday, the Oregon Government Ethics Commission gave Day permission to create a legal defense fund for himself in order to cover such expenses he expects to incur during the investigation. Day joined the bench in 2011 and has not performed any same-sex marriages. He stopped doing marriages of any kind this past spring. Marion County judges are not required to perform marriages.

Man accused of firing gun near soccer game

NEWBERG (AP) — Police arrested a man accused of firing a gun near the Newberg High School athletic field.

There were no injuries, but the Thursday night gunfire disrupted a soccer match between girls from Newberg and Centennial high schools.

The Newberg-Dundee Police Department said early Friday that 53-year-old Steven Smith was arrested on charges of disorderly conduct, unlawful use of a weapon and recklessly endangering another person. Smith, who lives near the field, was being on bail of $32,500.

The shot were fired shortly after 8 p.m. School administrators stopped the game and moved the players and fans into a gymnasium.

Group gathers signatures for Sen. Prozanski recall campaign

EUGENE (AP) — Those behind an effort to recall state Sen. Floyd Prozanski say they have gathered sufficient signatures to potentially spark a vote.

The Register-Guard reports chief petitioner Patricia Duffy-Michaelson says she submitted about 8,700 signatures and plans to send in another batch by Friday's deadline.

The campaign requires a total of 8,415 valid signatures to secure a recall vote. But the petitioners haven't earned a victory yet as the signatures still need to be verified.

Prozanski was one of four Democratic lawmakers to face a recall attempt following the passage of an expansion of background checks on gun sales.
