•A Pendleton man at 9:47 p.m. reported two males smashed in his front door on Northeast Riverside Avenue and then ran north on 37th Street. He said nothing was missing from the home.

ARRESTS, CITATIONS

Monday

•Oregon State Police arrested Riley Laroy Thurman, 24, of Pendleton, for unlawful possession of a firearm. The arrest came after a trooper stopped a white Ford F350 pickup at about 1:30 p.m. for multiple violations at Southwest 28th and 30th streets, Pendleton. The trooper recognized Thurman, who was wanted on two felony warrants in Umatilla County for failure to appear.

A woman was driving the pickup, according to state police, and she had a suspended license. She also agreed to let the trooper search the pickup, and Thurman told the trooper he had a gun in the cab. State police reported the trooper found a .357 Magnum next to where Thurman was sitting.

Other recent arrests:

•The Morrow County Sheriff's Office arrested Corey Timothy Gray, 38, no address provided, for first-degree theft, unauthorized use of a vehicle, second-degree trespass and violating court orders.

•Umatilla County Sheriff's Office arrested Guadalupe Diaz Lara, 32, of Milton-Freewater, for fourth-degree assault and on a misdemeanor warrant and felony warrant for failure to appear.

Bonnie Jean Henry

Canby

July 27, 1939-September 17, 2015

Bonnie Jean Henry was born in Milton-Freewater, Ore., July 27, 1939, to Jon and Julia Hodgen. Bonnie was in town in Pendleton, Ore., ready to attend the Pendleton Round-Up when she passed away September 17, 2015.

Henry

Bonnie married Patrick Guy Henry on December 26, 1957, in Nampa, Idaho. They worked together on many ranches in the Oregon and Idaho high desert before settling in Boise, Idaho, for a time where she went to nursing school.

Bonnie served many years taking care of our nation's veterans at the VA hospitals in Boise, Idaho, Martinez, Calif., and Portland, Ore.

Bonnie was a loving wife and devoted mother and grandmother. Her hobbies were crocheting and sewing for her family. She loved traveling and bingo.

She is survived by her children Brenda Schueler (Bryan), Debbie Dodak, Roberta (Donald) Hucke and Patrick Henry (Danielle); grandchildren Darrell Dodak, Erin Hucke, Matthew Dodak (Devita) Jon Hucke (Amanda) and Ashley Schueler (Patrick); and great-grandchildren Lillian VanKempema and baby Hucke. She is also survived by many loving brothers and sisters, nieces and nephews.

Funeral services will be held Monday, September 28, 2015, at 2:00 p.m. at the High Desert Bible Church, 409 Blackaby Street, Jordan Valley, Oregon, with burial to follow at the Jordan Valley Cemetery. Dinner will follow at the Catholic Parish Hall in Jordan Valley.

Funeral arrangements entrusted to Burns Mortuary of Pendleton, 336 S.W. Dorion Avenue, Pendleton, Oregon. Viewing will be held at Burns Mortuary of Pendleton on Friday, September 25, 2015, between the hours of 8:00 a.m. and 5:00 p.m. Sign the online condolence book at www.burnsmortuary.com

In lieu of flowers please make donations to Canby Fire Fighters Association, 221 S. Pine St., Canby, OR 97013, Attention Chaplin's Fund.

Virginia Lee 'Gidget' Seggerman

Pendleton

May 15, 1952-September 16, 2015

Virginia Lee "Gidget" Seggerman, a Pendleton resident, passed away Wednesday, September 16, 2015, at Trios Hospital in Kennewick, Washington. She was 63 years old.

A funeral service will be held Saturday, September 26, 2015, at 9:00 a.m.

at Burns Mortuary of Pendleton, with burial to follow at Olney Cemetery. Sign the online condolence book at www.burnsmortuary.com Burns Mortuary of Pendleton is handling arrangements.

Virginia was born May 15, 1952, in Spokane, Washington, to Elmer and Patricia (Poullen) Jones. She graduated from Hillsboro High School in Hillsboro, Oregon. Over the years she had lived in numerous communities in Oregon and Washington, settling in Pendleton, Oregon, in 1990, where she resided until her death. She was married to Alvin Seggerman from May of 1970 to 2004. Virginia was engaged to Robert McDermott from 2005 until her passing.

She had worked as a waitress during her teen years. She was a housewife for many years, until her children were grown, and later worked as a certified nursing assistant for some time. To her children, she was the greatest mom on earth! Her hobbies included beading, sunbathing, knitting and scrapbooking, but her greatest joy was time spent playing with her grandkids.

She is survived by her fiancé Robert McDermott of Pendleton, Ore.; her children Melissa Johnson and husband David of Pendleton, Michael Seggerman and wife Naomi of Pendleton, Shelley Seggerman and Justin Sweringen of Pendleton, Patrick Seggerman and wife Dawn of La Grande, Ore., and Amydee Seggerman of Pendleton; her sister Lorrie Fry of Portland, Ore.; 10 grandchildren: Nicholas, Joey and Dalton Seggerman, Preston Brower, Gavin Kilmer, Zoie and Zach Johnson, Madison and Isaac Seggerman, and Ashley Jones; as well as numerous nieces and nephews.

She was preceded in death by her husband Alvin Seggerman, her parents Elmer and Patricia Jones, her sister Deborah Hughes and a grandchild, Hunter Seggerman.

Ellen Elizabeth (Snabel) Nash

Hermiston

September 22, 1922-September 18, 2015

Celebration of life service for Ellen E. Nash will be held at 11 a.m. Saturday, September 26 at Burns Mortuary chapel in Hermiston, Oregon. Interment will follow at Pleasant View Cemetery in Stanfield.

Ellen Elizabeth (Snabel) Nash, 92, passed away peacefully on September 18, 2015, due to chronic health issues.

Ellen was born September 22, 1922, in Spray, Oregon, one of eight siblings born to Ezra and Hope Snabel. Ellen attended grade school in Spray, Oregon, walking the three miles to school every day. She graduated from high school in Prineville, Oregon, in 1940.

Ellen married Victor "Bud" Nash on August 18, 1951, in Redmond, Oregon. They operated Nash Ranch, raising cattle, pigs, chickens, sheep, alfalfa hay and wheat. On March 23, 1993, they moved to their home in Stanfield, Oregon. Ellen made the Stanfield area her permanent home where many friends and family came to visit often.

After Bud's passing in 2007, Ellen remained in her home for two more years. In 2009 she moved to Sun Terrace of Hermiston, and recently moved to Guardian Angel Homes in Hermiston. Ellen and Bud had three children, Vickie, William "Bill," and Joseph "Joe." She was involved in many activities, including PTA, area 4-H, sewing, and Grange.

Ellen enjoyed spending time visiting with her friends and family. She always made sure there was a home-cooked meal on the table and a warm place to rest if needed. She enjoyed baking, canning, making quilts and taking various sewing projects to local bazaars.

Ellen is survived by her children Vickie Vaughn of Casa Grande, Ariz., Bill and Marla

Nash of Beaverton, Ore., and Joe and Renee Nash of Stanfield, Ore.; and her grandchildren Jobe and Anne Nash of McMinnville, Ore., Evie Vaughn of La Grande, Ore., Jacob and Jessica Nash of Medford, Ore., Justin and Sheryl Nash of Echo, Ore., Jonie and Travis Taruscio of Stanfield, Ore. She has 13 great-grandchildren and many nieces and nephews that have been a precious part of her life.

Memorial contributions may be made to a charity of choice.

Lynn Ivan Wise

Milton-Freewater

September 22, 1920-September 15, 2015

Lynn Ivan Wise, 94, of Milton-Freewater left this earth for heaven on Sept. 15, 2015, at home.

A funeral service will be held on Friday, Sept. 25, 2015, at 2 p.m. at Bethel Baptist Church, Milton-Freewater, Ore. Interment and military honors will follow at the Milton-Freewater Cemetery.

Lynn was born on Sept. 22, 1920, the son of Fred and Ruby (Galbraith) Wise in Imbler, Ore. He grew up from age 6 in New York where he attended school. In 1936, he moved to the Joseph and Enterprise area. Lynn logged and later enlisted in the United States Army during World War II. On June 20, 1944, Lynn married Martha Katherine Pyhälä in Biwabik, Minn.

After Lynn's honorable discharge from the Army, he began long-haul trucking for Garrett Trucking, Consolidated Freightways, and NP/Burlington Northern. The couple lived in various parts of the country, including Pendleton, Kent (Wash.), and Milton-Freewater (twice, the second time to retire). Lynn had a strong faith in God and Jesus Christ his Savior; he enjoyed reading and discussing the Bible, and was a member of Bethel Baptist Church. His favorite verses were from John 3:16-17: "For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son, that whoever believes in Him should not perish but have everlasting life. For God did not send His Son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world through Him might be saved." Lynn liked music, visiting with family and friends, fixing things and helping others. He was a wonderful husband (of nearly 70 years), father, grandfather, great-grandfather and friend. We will dearly miss him.

Survivors include his children, son Gary (Barbara) Wise of Grants Pass, Ore., and daughters Dona (Ron) LeFore of Milton-Freewater, Ore., and Gwyn (Wayne) Christophersen of Puyallup, Wash.; 11 grandchildren; several great-grandchildren; and other relatives and friends. His parents, wife Martha Wise, two brothers and one sister all preceded him in death.

The family expresses sincere thanks to those with Walla Walla Community Hospice for their kind and excellent oversight of Lynn's care during his last days. Lynn requested that contributions in his memory be given to Liberty Christian School, Walla Walla, Wash., and may be given in care of the Munselle-Rhodes Funeral Home, 902 S. Main St., Milton-Freewater, OR 97862.

It's not like her.

Mom has always been so patient, but now when I ask her questions she gets angry.

We can help.
