

OBITUARIES

Lorene Rion

Pendleton
January 5, 1929-September 27, 2015

Lorene Rion, a long-time Pendleton resident, was born on January 5, 1929, in Delaware County, Oklahoma, to Chester and Julie Sallie (Lunderman) Crowder. She passed away peacefully due to natural causes at Regency Nursing and Rehabilitation Center in Hermiston, Oregon, on Sunday, September 27, 2015. She was 86 years old.

Rion

Lorene graduated from Wyanodette High School in 1947. She came to Pendleton shortly after graduation in 1947. She met her best friend, Edwin (Ed) Rion, in Pendleton in 1949, and they were married in Walla Walla, Washington, May 26, 1950.

Lorene worked for Pendleton School District in the school lunch program for 10 years after her children started school. She was always home each and every day before the school bus arrived and was able to be at home during the summer and anytime that there was a school holiday. Lorene prided herself in having the best garden and the prettiest flowers on 41st Street where the Rion family lived for 52 years. She told a story of a little neighborhood girl that would stop and tell her how pretty her flowers were and then when no one was looking, would pick the flowers and bring them to mom because they were so pretty.

Lorene loved to go camping, fishing and water skiing first in a tent, graduating to a camper and pickup and then moved it on up to their motor home. Even with all of the luxuries in their motor home, she could only be gone for just so long from her home. No matter what, home is where she always wanted to be. Thanks to the unwavering and loving care provided by my brother Steve for many, many years, she was able to be in her home until the week before she passed away. Without Steve's devotion, this would not have been possible.

Lorene is survived by her children Steve Rion in Pendleton, and Karen Morthland (Kent) in Boise, Idaho; grandchildren Michelle Wasmund (fiancé Jim Sayko), Nampa, Idaho, Melissa (Eric) Bollar, Johnstown, Colorado, Ryan (Carrie) Morthland, Boise, Idaho, and Sean (Leslie) Morthland, Boise, Idaho; and great-grandchildren Austin Wasmund, Nampa, Idaho, Addilyn Morthland, Boise, Idaho, and Finn Bollar, Johnstown, Colorado.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Ed, who passed away in 1989, her parents, three brothers and two sisters.

Graveside services will be at Olney Cemetery, Pendleton, on Wednesday, September 30, 2015, at 10:00 a.m.

Donations may be made to PAWS, c/o Pendleton Pioneer Chapel, 131 S.E. Byers Ave., Pendleton, OR 97801.

Online condolences may be sent to www.pioneer-chapel.com.

PUBLIC SAFETY LOG

MONDAY

*A caller at 8:23 a.m. reported a break-in at Umatilla Baptist Church, 146 Columbia Blvd., Umatilla. This probably happened between Saturday night and Sunday morning, the caller said, and nothing was missing.

*The Umatilla County Sheriff's Office at 8:41 a.m. received a report of someone using a fake $100 bill at the Sinclair station at 84875 Highway 11, Milton-Freewater.

*A caller at 9:10 a.m. reported someone went four-wheeling on his property on Bridge Road, Hermiston, and asked if a Umatilla County sheriff's deputy could go to Hermiston High School and see if any vehicles are covered in mud from land.

*A man at 9:14 a.m. told Pendleton police he stayed with a woman for one week and now she will not return his possessions.

*A man continues to trespass at the Walchli fruit stand at the Pilot Travel Center, 2115 Highway 395, Stanfield. A caller identified the male and what he drives and said he takes fruit from the business during the night and also painted the building in the middle of the night. The caller said she told him not to come back, but at closing time there he is. She asked for an officer to respond to the stand.

*A man at 11:18 a.m. reported the theft of his pickup from Umatilla River and West Harper roads, Hermiston. He said it was driving toward Umatilla, had a full tank of fuel, missing the tail gate and had a large dent on the bumper. Law enforcement did not find it.

*An employee of Eastern Oregon Correctional Institution, Pendleton, told police at 11:55 a.m. juvenile drivers almost hit her when she crossed the Westgate intersection to access the city's river park way. She asked for more patrols in the area.

*A Weston resident at 12:10 p.m. reported she has not received a newspaper for three days because carriers will not get out of their car at her home on East Van Buren Street due to two or three large and aggressive dogs running around the neighborhood.

*The Umatilla County Sheriff's Office at 1:35 p.m. received a call that one man threatened to burn down another man's house and business on the 32000 block of Baxter Road, Hermiston.

*A Pendleton mother at 4:19 p.m. reported children beat up her children at the bus stop at Northwest H Avenue and 48th Drive on Airport Hill.

*A Pendleton man on Southwest Sixth Street and Isaac Avenue told police at 4:59 p.m. his buddy slashed his tires.

*What do dogs, a motor home and a tire iron have in common? A disturbance on Eastside Road, Milton-Freewater.

A woman at 5:15 p.m. reported her brother argued with a neighbor when her dog tried to attack the neighbor's dog, and the neighbor tried to run over the attacking dog with a motor home. The neighbor then threatened to beat the brother with a tire iron.

*A Pendleton caller at 8:02 p.m. reported a neighbor at Brooke RV Park, 5 N.E. Eighth St., was yelling about hurting a cop. The caller also said the neighbors were drinking.

*A Pendleton man at 8:36 p.m. reported his 14-year-old daughter snuck out her window sometime Saturday after 5:30 p.m.

*Umatilla police at 9:02 p.m. received a report that a female tried to run over a male at the Country Club Manor Apartments, 605 Umatilla Ave.

SCHOLARSHIPS

HERMISTON — The Knights of Columbus Council 3999 from Our Lady of Angels Catholic Church recently awarded $4,000 in scholarships to eight local students attending colleges this fall. Each student was awarded a $500 scholarship.

According to Jack McWhinnie, a member of the chapter's scholarship committee, the money for the scholarships comes from the chapter's annual fall "Pig Out" dinner and auction. In addition to the scholarship, money raise from the event helps a variety of other local causes the chapter supports in the community. The chapter has been providing scholarships for more than 20 years.

The following students were awarded scholarships this year: Leslye Aremanta of Umatilla, attending Eastern Oregon University; Adrian Angel of Stanfield, attending Western Oregon University; Maria Klein of Hermiston; attending Wyoming Catholic college; Dakota Moss of Stanfield, attending Columbia Basin College; Adrian Perez of Hermiston, attending Blue Mountain Community College; Fatima Ortega of Umatilla, attending Eastern Oregon University; Luis Santoyo Jr. of Hermiston, attending Tabor College in Kansas; and Bianca Torres of Hermiston, attending Oregon Institute of Technology.
