

MLB Keuchel wins 20th, Astros set runs record to rout D-backs

By BOB BAUM
Associated Press

PHOENIX — Dallas Keuchel became the AL's first 20-game winner and the Houston Astros backed him with the highest-scoring game in team history, moving closer to a playoff berth by routing the Arizona Diamondbacks 21-5 Friday night.

The Astros have won five of six and held their one-game edge over the Los Angeles Angels for the second AL wild-card spot. Minnesota fell two behind. Houston trails West leader

Texas by two games with two to play.
Keuchel (20-8) gave up two runs on six hits in six innings, becoming the Astros' first 20-game winner since Roy Oswalt went 20-12 in 2005.
The AL wild-card game is scheduled for Tuesday, and the Yankees have already clinched a spot. If Keuchel pitched, it would mark the first time the All-Star lefty has started on three days' rest.

Carlos Correa hit a solo homer, bases-loaded triple and singled, and scored four times. George Springer, Colby Rasmus and Luis Valbuena homered as Houston surpassed its previous high of 19 runs set twice, most recently against Pittsburgh in 1999.

Springer and Rasmus also scored four times each as the Astros got a season-high 19 hits.

Keuchel is the 10th Astros pitcher, and second Houston left-hander, to win 20. Lefty Mike Hampton was 22-4 in 1999.
Keuchel is the second 20-game winner in the majors. The Chicago Cubs' Jake Arrieta won his 22nd on Friday.

leading the way with 74 yards and three touchdowns on just six attempts.
C.J. Kindle added 116 total yards and two touchdowns, Logan Grieb had 71 yards and one touchdown, and Coby Daugherty added 65 yards and one touchdown.
Kaden Clark was 4 for 5 for 60 yards passing.
Kindle and Clark each intercepted passes on defense, Patrick Collins had two sacks and Kevin Murray had one. Murray and Weston Putman also recovered Pilot Rock fumbles.
The Rockets (0-4, 0-1) were unable to get their running game going and finished with -31 yards, but quarterback Bryson Pierce was able to finish 15 for 33 for 261 yards passing with three touchdowns.
Chris Weinke caught five passes for 125 yards and two touchdowns, and Patrick Roe added 79 yards and one touchdown on three catches.
Braydon Postma led the defense with 10 tackles (one for loss) and Wesley Purcell added two sacks.

half's opening drive and then recovered an onside kick and scored later in the drive to go up 14 points. Culver was trailing 60-56 until scoring with 11 seconds left.
Freddy Vera found the end zone four times for the Knights and rushed for 207 yards and three touchdowns on 22 carries.
Carlos Zacharias went off for 220 yards and two scores on 10 totes, and Austin Rice added two touchdowns on an 8-for-35 night. Nathan Verley was 4 for 5 passing for 74 yards and touchdown to Vera.
Irrigon coach Steve Sheller said Culver was able to keep pace in the first half thanks to the running of Jaden Jones, but a defensive substitution on the line made things tough on him in the second half.
"Jaden Jones had a heck of a night, we had a hard time tackling him," Sheller said. "We played better defense in second half and part of that was because of kid named Parker Gale that we put in to play D tackle. He plugged it up pretty good for us."
Irrigon hosts Stanfield next week in a battle of unbeaten teams.

team-high 49 receiving yards as the Pirates (2-3) won the non-league tilt.
Quarterback Eon Castillo found Andrew Martinez for a 19-yard touchdown, and Riverside completed its scoring with touchdowns by Mason Hegar and Anthony Rameriz.
The Pirates open league play next week at Vale.

Arlington has allowed just 28 points all season, the fewest in eight-man football. The Honkers host Dufur next week.
Ione will host Perrydale as it looks to stop a two-game skid.

Cougars did everything right Friday night, except finish drives.
After the Cougars and Badgers went to the locker room tied at six, Powder Valley scored twice on big plays in the third quarter and held off a late Echo charge.
Echo (2-3, 0-2), which was playing without starting quarterback Clay Jenson, out-gained the Badgers 307-186 and forced two Powder Valley turnovers. But Echo killed its own drives with turnovers or penalties.
Damien Curiel led Echo with 125 yards and a touchdown on nine carries, and Devan Craig also carried 15 times for 65 yards and a touchdown.
Head coach Rick They had much praise for senior Hayden Sather, who led Echo with 15 tackles, six of which were for loss and three of which were sacks. Kyle Ranger and Curiel also pitched in with interceptions.
DESALES 33, MAC-HI 7 — At Walla Walla, Wash., the Pioneers' offensive struggles continued in a non-league loss on Friday. Mac-Hi (0-5) has scored just 20 points all season. It was the first win of the year for DeSales (3-1). No details were reported.
Mac-Hi opens league play next week at La Grande.

Friday's non-league match.
Coach Dieter Waite said his team finally adjusted to the new lineup by the third set, but it wasn't enough to overcome a very good Union team as the Bobcats (12-4) won 25-13, 25-14, 31-29.
"We finally kind of got comfortable with the rotation and passing and played them very tough," Waite said of the third set.
No statistics were reported.
Waite said the Mustangs (9-8, 2-1 CBC) won't get anybody back for today's two league matches in Athena. Heppner plays Stanfield at noon and Weston-McEwen at 2 p.m.

Heppner was led by Hunter Nichols in fourth (18:45) and Mac-Hi was paced by Deazen Zerba in 20th (21:33).
La Grande's Heather Kenry won the girls race in 21:47, and Elise Griffith paced the winning Mac-Hi team with her third-place finish in 22:50. Weston-McEwen's Katie Vescio was fifth (24:21).
