BRIEFLY

Hooligans mar property with marker

PENDLETON — Vandals took permanent marker to vehicles and buildings during the weekend in Pendleton, including on the city library.

The criminal mischief happened sometime Friday night or early Saturday, and that morning callers reported the damage. Pendleton police Chief Stuart Roberts reported the crimes look connected and so far there are no suspects.

Targets included two guest vehicles at the Travelodge, 411 S.W. Dorion Ave., Pendleton, and five transport vans at Clearview Mediation and Disability Resource, 307 S.W. Sixth St. The sites are about two blocks apart. And in between, someone used a marker to write obscenities on the front door and the side windows of the Pendleton Public Library.

And a Pendleton resident at 9:43 a.m. reported graffiti on her pickup on Southwest Perkins Avenue. There was no information if the graffiti was a marker, and the location is a few miles from the other area.
