Ed Foundation plans dinner, auction

PENDLETON — A hearty western-style dinner and live and silent auctions are featured during the first fundraiser for the Education Foundation of Pendleton.

Grillin’ for Grants begins Saturday with dinner served from 5 to 8 p.m. at the new Pendleton Early Learning Center, formerly Hawthorne School, 455 S.W. 13th St. The menu includes tri-tip, baked beans, potato salad, green salad, bread, cheesecake and beverages. Tickets are $25 and can be purchased at the Pendleton Chamber of Commerce, Armchair Books and Dave’s Chevron. There will also be guided tours of the new education center.

The education foundation provides grants twice a year to Pendleton teachers wishing to supplement classroom learning experiences by taking students on a field trip, to a conference or workshop, or host guest speakers, artists or performers. Private donations were the sole method of funding prior to this new event.

Half of the profits from the evening’s activities will be used to award grants, while the remaining will be invested with the group’s endowment fund for future grants. In recent years, the foundation’s grants have averaged $12,350.

The foundation welcomes donations for the auctions, including of merchandise, travel experiences and services. To donate, contact Karen Moore at 541-276-2751 or help4kids2014@gmail.com.

To become an event sponsor, contact Susan Bower at 541-215-9252 or susanbower@eobusinesssource.com.

OBITUARIES

Mary Lou Braat
Hermiston
October 10, 2015

Mary Lou Hawkins Braat was born in Antlers, Oklahoma, in 1930 to the Reverend Ennis Hawkins and his wife, Gladys Mae Scott Hawkins. Mary Lou attended school in Oklahoma all the way through her high school graduation in 1948. She was popular, socially active, and enjoyed sports and singing. For two years after high school she mostly lived back east, studying to be a teacher at East Carolina University.

She came out to Oregon to do farm work one summer, earning money to pay for her college education, and that’s where she met the love of her life, Arnold James Braat. She started out doing field work for him, picking beans like so many others. He noticed her right away, though, and promoted her to weighing the produce and doing payouts. Not long after that in 1952 they married, and began their long life together. They had four kids, three daughters and a son, and lived and worked in Oregon for the rest of their lives. Arnold died in 2004, and Mary Lou lived on until last week.

sang in the church choirs. She enjoyed making clothes for her children when they were small. She cooked for large farm crews during harvest. In the mid-’70s, she worked as a cook at the small Umatilla Hospital, which won a prize for having the best food for a hospital of its size in Oregon.

Finally when she began to slow down a bit, she moved to Sun Terrace in Hermiston, where she very much enjoyed relaxing, having plenty of time to socialize, and attending events and activities. She was often accompanied by her new, and dear, friend Jerry.

Her daughter Connie told me that when Mary Lou was asked about her greatest accomplishment, she said without hesitation, “My children.” She died peacefully of natural causes, with family around her.

She is survived by a large and loving family, including her son, Loren Braat of Fairbanks, Alaska; her three daughters, Lynel Braat of Portland, Ore., Gelene Brizendine of Boardman, Ore., and Connie Braat of Bellevue, Wash.; sister Edith Rhine, California; two brothers, Ennis T. Hawkins, Weston, Ore., and Willard Hawkins, Colorado; and one granddaughter and three great-grandchildren who reside in Idaho.

There are also many nieces, nephews, and cousins residing across the USA. She will be missed by all of them.

A memorial service will be held on Saturday, October 17, 2015, at 2:00 p.m. at the Boardman Senior Center, 100 Tatone Street in Boardman.

Please send condolences at burnsmortuaryhermiston.com

Burns Mortuary of Hermiston, Oregon, is in care of arrangements.

Dorothy Louise (Dooley) Thompson
Pendleton
June 26, 1928-October 12, 2015

Dorothy Louise (Dooley) Thompson, 87, of Pendleton, died Monday, October 12, 2015, at Suttle Care surrounded by family and friends. She will be in our hearts forever. A memorial service will be held on Saturday, October 24th at 11:00 a.m. at the First United Methodist Church with Rev. Matt Henry officiating. A reception will follow at the Free Methodist Church.

Thompson

Dorothy Louise (Dooley) Thompson was born June 26, 1928, in Newton, Iowa, to Mable (Rankin) Dooley and Charles Dooley, one of nine children. During her high school years, the family moved to Portland, Oregon, where she graduated from Roosevelt High School in 1945. She moved to Pendleton, Oregon, and began her nursing studies at Eastern Oregon State College before completing her R.N. degree at St. Anthony’s Hospital, graduating in its first class in 1948. During this time, she met Bernard F. Thompson and married him just after graduation on April 2, 1948. They celebrated 62 years of marriage before his passing on August 20th, 2011.

Dorothy started her career as a surgical nurse at St. Anthony’s Hospital before joining the office of the Pendleton Internal Medicine Group. She retired from active daily duties at that office in 1983 but continued to work part-time until 1993. She also belonged to the Nursing Cadet Corp from 1945-1947 and was the nurse at Camp Hidayaw, the Camp Fire Girls’ summer camp.

In her spare time, Dorothy was active in the Oregon Nurses’ Association District #7, vice-president of St. Anthony’s Hospital Alumni Association and Scholarship Foundation, participated in the Senior Center blood pressure clinics, Red Cross blood drives (for which she received many honors), Oregon Trail Telephone Pioneers, S.M.A.R.T. Reader programs, Camp Fire Girls’ leadership programs, and was a forever presence at her children’s activities. Dorothy will also be remembered for her time and leadership given to the First United Methodist Church. She was a long-time member of the church, sang alto in the choir, taught Sunday School and Summer Vacation Bible School, belonged to the United Methodist Women, oversaw the Memorial Fund, helped with the visiting foreign exchange students at Round-Up and prepared many a Lenten Luncheon. Her love and kindness will be remembered and missed.

In her free time, Dorothy enjoyed music (she was a season ticket holder to the symphony), sewing, gardening, reading, traveling and baking. Many a potluck will be shedding a tear.

Dorothy Thompson is survived by children Louise Thompson of Pendleton, Mike and Jan Thompson of Pendleton (Joshua, Alison, Jacob), and Jerry and Karen Thompson (David) of Gresham. She is also survived by brothers Kenneth and Ann Dooley of Surprise, Ariz., and Leonard and Pat Dooley of Woodburn, Ore., as well as numerous nephews and nieces and wonderful friends. She was preceded in death by her husband, Bernard (Bud) Thompson, her parents, and six brothers and sisters.

Remembrances may be made to the United Methodist Memorial Fund, 352 S.E. 2nd Street, Pendleton, OR 97801 or a charity of one’s choice.

Burns Mortuary is in charge of funeral arrangements, and final interment will be in the Memorial Garden at Olney Cemetery. Condolences may be left at burnsmortuary.com.

The family would like to express a deep gratitude to the many caregivers at Suttle Care for their years of excellent care and concern for both our mother and father. Their kindness and dedication were steadfast.
