

PUBLIC SAFETY LOG

FRIDAY

•A caller at 12:23 p.m. asked to speak to a Pendleton police officer about people passing out business cards selling marijuana around Pendleton High School and Bedford Bridge.
 •A mother at 1:35 p.m. told Pendleton police her daughter is smoking cigarettes and is with younger minors at Sergeant City Park, 500 N.W. 14th St., and the group of juveniles is calling her names.
 •A caller at 3 p.m. at The Wild Rose RV Park, 1500 S.E. Byers Ave., Pendleton, told police a woman stole money orders worth $435 and cashed them at a local bank.
 •Pendleton police at 4:20 p.m. received a tip that a woman planned to go armed to pick up her child during a parenting exchange at McDonald's, 1800 Southgate.
 •Umatilla police at 5:46 p.m. received a tip about an online ad seeking to trade marijuana for a vehicle.

SATURDAY

•A man at 12:27 a.m. told Pendleton police he was a transient and his girlfriend's soon to be ex-husband threatened his life multiple times.
 •A man at 8:27 a.m. reported a man ran hounds on his 160 acres on South Fork Walla Walla River Road, Milton-Freewater, and that drove his 21 horses and foals crazy. He also said he talked to the man, who was belligerent.
 •A Pendleton woman at 10:06 a.m. asked for police to help deal with a man that keeps coming onto her property on Southwest Isaac Avenue and moves items in her yard. She said he has even entered her residence. She added the man did nothing Friday, but his trespassing is an ongoing issue and was occurring more frequently.
 •A Hermiston-area caller at 11:33 on Forcade Lane reported the neighbor shot at her horses.
 •A woman at 12:52 p.m. told Pendleton police she left her children with a relative for a couple days, and the relative stole items from the Pendleton Wal-Mart Supercenter and had the children also steal items. She said she spoke to someone at Wal-Mart and wanted to also talk to an officer.
 •A woman at 5:06 p.m. in Irrigon told the Morrow County Sheriff's Office her husband contacted her in violation of a protective stalking order.
 •An Irrigon caller at 6:58 p.m. reported a dog has been barking for several hours on Knapp Street, and it is not allowing her sick husband to rest.

•A Pendleton woman at 9:39 p.m. reported her neighbor's TV was so loud she could hear it inside her residence at Brook RV Park, 5 N.W. Eighth St., Pendleton, and the neighbor refuses to turn it down.
 •A mother at 9:56 p.m. told Stanfield police her son-in-law slapped her face.

SUNDAY

•A caller at 12:41 a.m. told law enforcement an intoxicated man used a dead person's identification at a bar in Boardman and left in a white Toyota Camry to go to Hood River. A Morrow County sheriff's deputy was not nearby, but police in Hood River later saw the man drinking at a bar.
 •A Milton-Freewater woman at 6:46 a.m. reported her ex-boyfriend an hour ago entered her house on Lawson Street and pointed a small silver pistol at her head. She also said there was a male witness. She said she tried to call police, but her ex wrestled the phone from her and took it before leaving.
 •A woman at 2:50 p.m. asked Pendleton police to give parking tickets to two vehicles that are illegally in front of her house on Southwest Jones Circle near Olney Cemetery. She said she received a ticket for the same thing during the Round-Up in September.
 •A mother in Irrigon at 4:05 p.m. reported someone kicked her son in the head and she wanted to press charges.
 •A Pendleton woman at 4:15 p.m. identified a male who has been harassing and yelling at her when she is at home and at work. She said she even found someone put dog feces in her vehicle's air vent.
 •The Morrow County Sheriff's Office at 8:24 p.m. received a report of a burglary at a foreclosed residence on Pheasant Lane, Irrigon.
 •A Pilot Rock caller at 9:13 p.m. told police a male that previously threatened her slashed the tires on her bicycle at Archie's Restaurant, 194 Main St., Pilot Rock.
 •A Umatilla man at 9:44 p.m. on Walla Walla Street told police his wife was "going crazy and throwing things."

Rowena Ann English

Portland
 January 15, 1939-October 18, 2015

Rowena Ann English, 76, passed away Sunday, October 18, 2015, in Portland, Oregon. Rowena was born in Walla Walla, Washington, on January 15, 1939, to James Stuart and Mary Helen (Morris) Rothrock.

Rowena grew up on her family wheat ranch outside of Helix, Oregon. She participated in 4-H, raised and showed cows in the 4-H competition. She and her brother took first and second places in the competition most years. Rowena went to school in Adams, Oregon, and graduated high school in Pendleton, Oregon.

On February 13, 1959, Rowena married Dean

English of Pilot Rock, Oregon, and they had two daughters. Rowena and Dean raised their family in Pendleton, Oregon, and upon retirement moved into a fifth wheel trailer and lived the snowbird life back and forth to Yuma, Arizona, for 16 years. Rowena and Dean moved to Portland, Oregon, in 2012.

Rowena is survived by her husband, Dean; her daughters Deborah (Bruce) Peterson and June (Wesley) Eastridge; four grandsons, two granddaughters and two great-granddaughters; and brother Roger Rothrock. Rowena is preceded in death by her parents, and one granddaughter.

Bonna Rae Miller

Heppner
 October 23, 1939-September 20, 2015

Bonna Rae Miller, 75, of Heppner, Oregon, died Sunday, September 20, 2015, at her home. A graveside memorial service will be held Saturday, October 24, 2015, at 3 p.m. at the Heppner Masonic Cemetery.

She was born October 23, 1939, at Missoula, Montana, the daughter of Edgar and Irene Roberts Schroeder. She lived in Stevensville, Montana, until moving to Oregon on Christmas Eve of 1947. She lived in Portland, Monroe and Philomath while growing up. She graduated from Albany Union High School 1958. She then attended Merritt-Davis Business College in Salem.

On June 27, 1959, she married Joseph Fordyce Miller in Lebanon, Oregon. The couple lived in Portland, Gresham and Boring before moving to Heppner in 1977. That same year they started the Miller and Sons Welding business. Bonna Rae was the bookkeeper and general manager of that business.

Bonna Rae was a member of the Heppner United Methodist Church and faithfully sang in the church choir. She also sang in the Community Choir, Sentimentalist Group, and many other singing groups. She enjoyed reading, traveling with their RV and spending winters in Arizona.

Survivors include her husband Joe Miller of Heppner; sons Reid Miller (Sheila) of Lexington, Ray Miller (Debbie) of Idaho Falls, Idaho, and Ryan Miller (Sharon) of Heppner; sister JoyceKay Hollomon of Heppner; eight grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren; and numerous nieces and nephews, as well as many friends.

Memorial contributions may be made to Pioneer Memorial Hospice, P.O. Box 9, Heppner, OR 97836 or to the United Methodist Church, P.O. Box 733, Heppner, OR 97836.

Sweeney Mortuary of Heppner is in care of arrangements.

OBITUARIES

Billy Dean Judkins

Athena
 July 10, 1932-October 16, 2015

Billy Dean Judkins, age 83, of Athena, Oregon, died October 16, 2015, at home. He was born to Robert and Emma Vernon Judkins in Mosheim, Texas, and moved to Oregon when he was 18. Billy married Carol Robinson in 1973.

He worked at the Double M, LHT Ranch, Adams, Ore., for 50 years. He loved farming and never tired of sharing his passion for his work with anyone who stopped to listen to his stories. One of Billy's favorite things to do was take the kids out to the ranch where they experienced feeding the pigs, watching him milk the cow while seated on its back, feeding the chickens and "picking the eggs" as he would call it, and raising the special breed of Chicken Coop Cats.

He was a volunteer for 25 years at the Pendleton Round-Up where he sorted cows and operated the gates. He loved the Round-Up and he never missed a day.

He is survived by his wife of 42 years, and his children

Kenneth and Louise Judkins of Bend, Oregon, Cynthia Smalley of Pendleton, Oregon, and Suellen and Doug Harral of Weston, Oregon; six grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren. He was preceded in death by his parents, four brothers and one sister.

Graveside service will take place at Olney Cemetery in Pendleton, Ore., at 1:00 p.m. on Friday, October 23, 2015, followed by a small reception at Roosters Restaurant, Pendleton, Ore.

Pendleton Pioneer Chapel, Folsom-Bishop is in charge of services. Donations can be made to Providence St. Mary Regional Cancer Center, 401 W. Poplar, Walla Walla, WA 99362 or a charity of your choosing.

The family would like to thank all the doctors, nurses and staff at the various medical facilities that helped take care of Billy.

Online condolences may be shared with the family at www.pioneerchapel.com.
