Pendleton homecoming tailgate on Friday

It's homecoming week for the Pendleton Buckaroos, and the Buckaroo Booster Club is inviting everyone to a community tailgate to celebrate on Friday evening. The tailgate will take place at Roy Raley Park and will run from 5 p.m. to 6:45 p.m. prior to the Buckaroos varsity football game against The Dalles at 7 p.m. in the Round-Up Grounds. Free hot dogs will be provided, and local restaurants will have food available as well. Capps Broadcast Group and U.S. Cellular will also have representatives on hand giving away merchandise. The PHS band will be performing as the Buckaroos make their pride walk through the park at 6 p.m. And during the game, the 2015 Homecoming court will be introduced at halftime of the football game.

Local gym starts strong

PENDLETON — Eastern Oregon Gymnastics is off to a strong start two competitions into its season. The Pendleton-based club already has three athletes qualified for the Oregon State Gymnastics Championships later this year. Savannah Patrick, Riley Kennedy and Shaelynn Silva have proven they belong in the upper tier of their competition levels and have met the state qualifying criteria, but coach Gary Stanner said all of the athletes have been reaching or exceeding their goals in the first two meets. Patrick, Kennedy and Rebecca Bower recently were promoted to the advanced USAG Level 7 of competition due to their high marks. Following are the scores for the gym from the first two meets:

DAWGS: Araujo PK gives HHS lead

Continued from 1B here right now. These guys, they came out and they did what they had to do. I know they can play well and that's what they did." But Hermiston, which had been outscored 23-0 in the last four matches, came right back in the 4th when Enrique Leal's corner kick deflected off an Eagle defender and found the back of the net. The goal sent the already excited crowd into a near frenzy, and it never wore off. In fact, it intensified. After back-and-forth soccer for the rest of the half which saw neither team gain a definite advantage, Hermiston struck. Junior forward/midfielder Bernardo Araujo made a play into the Hood River box in the 40th minute and was fouled, setting up a penalty kick. Against sophomore keeper Travis Running, Araujo easily set it into the right side for a 2-1 lead, Hermiston's first in the series in at least two years. Hood River didn't waste much time equalizing, though, when Andres Baeza looped one over the Hermiston defense and into the far side net to square up the match. It appeared that a draw was in order until Hood River earned a corner kick in the 79th minute. Magana initiated, and it was headed once by a Hood River player towards the goal, and Campos batted it into the air, where Eagles reserve forward Domingo Barragan attempted a header, and this time it was corralled by Campos.

"I just did my job, what I had to do," Campos said. "Save them, that's my job." Hermiston closes out its regular season with a home match against rival Pendleton next Tuesday at 6 p.m.
