PREPS: Ione wins Big Sky League championship in five sets over Dufur

Bulldogs rallied to win the final two sets. Culver's wins were by scores of 25-18, 26-24 and 15-7.

"It was a donnybrook," said Weston-McEwen coach Shawn White. "We'd played them closely before in sets this season but this was the first time we'd taken one from them.

Several players made large contributions to the two wins and Alyssa Finifrock led the team with 20 kills and

Sarah Finifrock had 14 kills, Sara von Borstel added 11 and Anna Gilsdorf had Gilsdorf added 10 blocks, Muilenburg Maddi chipped in nine. Von Borstel led the team with 30 digs, Mati Aby had 29 and Tiah Benedict added 13.

Ali Schroeder led the TigerScots (20-9) with 51 assists and 12 aces, and Bailey Hillmick and Aby were second on the team with three aces.

Weston-McEwen's season continues in the 16-team first round of the OSAA state tournament which will be played at school sites on Saturday, Oct. 31.

The No. 9 TigerScots' opponent will be determined when the state rankings freeze on Tuesday. It's likely they'll have to travel since each of the six league champions are guaranteed a home game regardless of ranking.

certainly have played a tough schedule and hopefully this the time of year that starts paying off for us," White said. "We get after folks and I'm certainly feeling good about how the team is playing right now."

Earlier in the day, Pilot Rock had defeated Heppner 3-1 (25-19, 21-25, 25-18, 25-22) to earn the right to play Weston-McEwen for a state playoff spot. Details were not reported.

The Rockets finished the season third in the Columbia Basin Conference and the Mustangs (12-13) were fourth.

BIG SKY: IONE 3, DUFUR 2 — At The Dalles, the Ione Cardinals won the Big Sky League district championship in five sets over the Dufur Rangers on Saturday at Kurtz Gym.

It was the second five-set win of the day for the top-seeded Cardinals, which had to get through Condon/ Wheeler first.

(20-6)The Cardinals finished strong in that match, winning the last two sets 25-19, 15-12. Their other win was in the second set 25-23, and Condon/Wheeler (12-14) picked up its wins in the first and third sets 25-19, 25-23.

The Cardinals' match against Dufur (16-11) was even closer and two sets went to extra points. It again took two straight wins at the end to claim the match with scores of 25-21, 26-28, 24-26, 25-21, 15-8.

Dufur had beaten South Wasco in the day's first match, but the Redsides edged Condon/Wheeler in five in the third-place match with scores of 22-25, 27-25, 23-25, 25-14, 15-8.

Ione earns a bye to the round of 16 while Dufur and South Wasco will play in the round of 24 on Wednesday. Dufur will host Echo while South Wasco plays at Columbia Christian.

OREGON: POWDER VALLEY 3, HELIX 1 — At Baker City, the Helix Grizzlies and Echo Cougars each extended their season on Saturday at the Old Oregon League district championships.

Helix (18-5) had to settle for second, but will still host a playoff game thanks to its 3-1 win over Echo (17-8) to start tournament play. The Grizzlies won that match 25-8, 18-25, 25-21, 25-23 to set up a rubber match with the Badgers.

The teams had each taken a win from the other this season, but like it did on Oct. 17 in their most recent prior meeting Powder Valley (21-7) came out on top 3-1. Scores were 25-21, 23-25, 25-20, 25-12.

Echo earned its state berth with a 3-0 sweep of Joseph (12-9) for their third win over the Eagles this season. Scores were 25-14, 25-21, 25-11.

Helix will host the No. 3 team from the High Desert League on Wednesday at a time yet to be determined. Also Wednesday, Echo will play at Dufur, the No. 2 from the Big Sky League.

EASTERN OREGON:

NYSSA 3, RIVERSIDE 0 — At Vale, the Riverside Pirates' season came to a close in the semifinal of the Eastern Oregon League district tournament

Saturday. The Pirates (9-10) were dropped by the Nyssa Bulldogs with scores of 25-14, 26-24, 25-20. It was the third loss to the Bulldogs this season. No details were Nyssa (15-9) would go on to be swept by Vale (23-2) in the championship 25-12, 25-8, 25-11. Both teams advance to the state playoffs.

Boys Soccer UMATILLA

IRRIGON 0 — At Irrigon, the Umatilla Vikings scored three goals before halftime and held off a Knights team eager to end the season on a high note on Saturday in each team's Special District

Douglas Gomez scored a hat trick with goals in the 18th, 35th and 63rd minutes, Diego Saldana converted a penalty kick in the 31st minute, and Elian Armenta added a goal in the 60th.

Irrigon coach Paul Keefer said his team showed heart despite the score, and missed "three or four" point blank chances at breaking up the "Umatilla dominated but we had our opportunities to score and just couldn't put the ball in the net," he said, adding the referees did a good job maintaining control of a physical game. "It was a great match, it was highly intense and it was very physical. The referees kept it in check.

Umatilla was shown three yellow cards and Irrigon picked up one.

The season is over thirdplace Irrigon (2-6-2, 2-4-2), but Keefer said the Knights showed a lot of improvement in their last two games and only will lose one senior to graduation.

Second-place Umatilla (7-5-1, 6-2) turns its attention to the state bracket where it will be on the road in the bracket of 16 on Tuesday,

ONTARIO 4, MAC-HI

3—At Milton-Freewater, the Mac-Hi Pioneers lost their final Greater Oregon League game of the season to finish in third place and outside of an automatic playoff berth. Details were not reported.

RIVERSIDE

MAC-HI 2 — At Boardman, the Mac-Hi Pioneers don't appear to have done enough to extend their boys' soccer season after a 2-2 non-league tie at Riverside on Monday closed out the regular season for both teams.

Details from Monday's game were not reported, but the outcome needed to be a win in the Pioneers' favor to give them hope of leaping into the play-in round of the Class 4A state playoffs.

Since the Pioneers placed third in the Greater Oregon League, the team needs to finish higher in the OSAA rankings than all but one of the No. 4 or 5 finishers from the other conferences. The rankings freeze into place

It's hard to imagine Mac-Hi's No. 21 ranking changing much, however, leaving the Pioneers outside looking in unless another team drops. No. 16 Newport and No. 19 Philomath each play their league finale today against No. 1 Stayton and No. 34 Yamhill-Carlton, respectively. They are the No. 4 and 5 teams in the Oregon West Conference. No. 20 Elmira has already finished its season and is fourth in the Sky-Em League. No. 23 Crook County, fifth in the Tri-Valley Conference, also plays today and could see a boost in the rankings if it's able to upset No. 13 Madras.

Girls Soccer MAC-HI 9, ONTARIO

— At Milton-Freewater, the Pioneers head into the state postseason on a strong note, and Saturday's sevengoal margin of victory is the team's largest since the last time it played Ontario, that time a 9-1 win. Details were not reported.

The Pioneers (8-2-3, 3-2-1) could not move up or down in the standings and finished second in the Greater Oregon League.

Mac-Hi will host a play-in game in the round of 24 on Saturday, Oct. 31 against an opponent to be determined by OSAA rankings, which freeze into place

WOLVES:

Williams among NWAC hitting leaders

Also key to the win was BMCC's 6.5 team blocks as the T-Wolves' defense helped keep Yakima to a -.048 hitting percentage for the match.

Kristin Williams led the T-Wolves with nine kills and 2.5 blocks while hitting for a .462 percentage. Williams is fourth in the NWAC with a .362 cumulative percentage this season.

Jordan Mix added eight kilis on a match-nigh .500 hitting, Klaree Hobart also had eight kills and a teamhigh five aces, Maci Beierle led them with 20 assists and Hannah Bailey paced the defense with 30 digs.

Ember Punahele-Manae led Yakima (3-23, 0-12) with six kills but hit .000 on 28 attempts with six errors.

The T-Wolves, which are also the three-time reigning NWAC champions, have two more games left in the East Region slate and host their final home match in their next game, which is on Wednesday, Nov. 4 against Columbia Basin.

XC: Pendleton girls come up one point short of team berth at state

Sanchez, a sophomore, will run for the second time at Lane Community College on Saturday while senior Rome and Castellanos will make their third appearance and Niederwerfer will join his fourth state field.

Solorio will also compete in her second state finals after finishing fifth in the girls' race in 21:23, but it will be the first for Hancock who out-kicked The Dalles' Paige and the final at-large berth with her seventh-place time of 21:44. Hermiston's girls placed fourth with 69

The Bulldogs couldn't have expected much more, but for their rival Pendleton Buckaroos it was another bittersweet ending to the regular season. Both teams advanced runners to this weekend's state meet in Eugene, but Delaney Clem's individual championship in the girls' race came on a day when the team again fell one point short of what would have been the first state qualification in any of their high school

Clem cruised past Hood River iunior Daisy Dolan by 19 seconds with a winning time of 20:29, but McLeod for a one-second difference Hood River Valley picked up some crucial points when it placed three The Eagles went on to edge

Pendleton 52-53 for second place, and the next Buck to cross the finish line was sophomore Emily Driskel in 10th (21:51). Pendleton got all seven of its runners to the finish before Hood River's fourth, but couldn't get any help in the back of the pack as Eagles No. 5 Denali Emmons overtook Hermiston sophomore Sidney Tovey for 21st place and the winning point. Hermiston senior Sofia Gispert also played spoiler for the Bucks when she outlasted Pendleton freshman Rylee Harris to the finish line by a three-second difference in 12th place. Harris and Pendleton teammates Kaleigh Waggoner and

The Dalles won the girls team title with 47 points, but didn't have a runner finish higher than McLeod Clem, who is making her fourth state meet as an individual, will be joined in Eugene by Pendleton senior Nolan Bylenga. Bylenga is also making his fourth trip to state after placing fifth in the boys' race in 17:10. Four Bucks crossed in order

Pendleton was third in the boys team standings with 63 points and The Dalles was fourth with 87.

The 5A girls state meet begins Saturday at Lane Community College at 1:15 p.m. The boys' years ago, the event has grown from a relatively small 200-person event into a nationally known event hosting upwards of 600. On the Run's official website, more than 1,000 participants registered, 65 percent of them female.

"I don't know if we could handle many more," he said. But the race isn't for the runners alone. Camp fires are lit near the finish line to keep spectators warm. It's a remnant from the first couple of races which were held in mid-November, when the winter begins to bite. There are also hot dogs available.

"It's a way to bring the families out," Bourque said. "Bring the families out, come see the Hermiston-Boardman area. Maybe we need to tie it in with a two-day event with a winery somewhere.

The course, though, isn't for the faint of heart. The soft mixture of sand and dirt was noted as treacherous by several runners, and one race has grown in the last five or two rolled an ankle.

"If your legs aren't strong, if vour ankles aren't strong, you can turn an ankle at the wrong spot," Papenfuss said. "It's like trail running, you're on trails and its a little bit treacherous, but that's what makes it fun, too.'

A Very Poplar run raises money for Hermiston Agape House, a local social services organization. Board member Doug Alvarez couldn't be happier with how the years, saying it's far exceeded Agape House's expectations.
