

PUBLIC SAFETY LOG

FRIDAY

- A Hermiston-area man at 10:56 a.m. and 11:34 a.m. told the Umatilla County Sheriff's Office his father has received threatening calls from a blocked number for the past two weeks. While he was on the phone, the threat-maker called four times.
- A Pendleton man at 12:14 p.m. reported he fell victim to a computer repair scam.
- A man at 2:32 p.m. told Pendleton police people at the Frontier Tavern beer garden, 129 S.W. 18th St., were yelling obscenities, and he was concerned about juveniles that attend his nearby business.
- A Pendleton caller at 2:38 p.m. reported a male came to her house on Southeast Second Street and claimed to be with Charter Communications and wanted to enter to update her services. She said she found this suspicious. Police searched the area but did not find the male.
- A 48-year-old man suffered injuries at about 3 p.m. from a high-voltage power line at Threemile Canyon Farms, 75906 3 Mile Canyon Rd, Boardman. An ambulance took the man to Good Shepherd Medical Center, Hermiston.
- An lone resident at 5:31 p.m. reported receiving 11 harassing calls after 11 p.m.
- A Hermiston-area woman at 6:27 p.m. reported a neighbor's dogs on Craig Road killed her chickens.
- A Pendleton woman at 8:40 p.m. told police a female is sending text messages threatening to harm her and her son.
- A Milton-Freewater resident on Chuckhole Lane at 10:08 p.m. reported someone broke in and trashed his home.

SATURDAY

- A caller at 12:09 a.m. told Pendleton police she was somewhere near the Circle K on Southeast Court Avenue near First Street when she lost her Marvel Avengers wallet.
- A woman left her friend behind after an assault.
- The Umatilla County Sheriff's Office at 12:34 a.m. received a call from a woman who said she went to get her friend, but the man her friend is in a relationship with showed up and chased them in a pickup. The caller said she stopped her vehicle to end the pursuit at Northeast Chart Street and East Bridgitte Avenue, Hermiston, and her friend got out to tell the man to stop.
- But he grabbed her, and threw her to the ground and advanced on the caller.
- She reported she was worried so she took off and refused to go back for her friend. She also said she did not see if the man had weapons, but he was intoxicated and still with her friend.
- A caller at 7:20 a.m. reported the theft of five mail and newspaper boxes and most of their posts on Minnehaha Road near Lloyd Road, Hermiston.
- A man at 9:30 a.m. told Umatilla police two dogs were trying to attack him in an alley on Eighth Street.
- The Umatilla County Sheriff's Office at 4:56 p.m. received a report of possible mail theft at Green Acres Mobile Park, 53752 Appleton Road, Milton-Freewater. The sheriff's office is investigating.
- A man at 5:54 p.m. asked how long an ambulance would take for "a guy" that had a "severely broken leg," on Threemile Road, Boardman. The dispatch reported there was no way to give an estimated time. The caller said he would take the man to a hospital.
- A woman at 5:27 p.m. asked to speak to a Pendleton officer about two males that followed her home on South Main Street and took pictures of her vehicle.
- A woman at 7:51 p.m. told Stanfield police a relative stole her $4,000 wedding ring.
- And a woman at 8:40 p.m. told Stanfield police she attended a memorial service for a friend at about 7 p.m. and a female attacked her. She said she had a large gash on her face and would wait for police.

SUNDAY

- A female at about 2:30 a.m. on Lorraine Avenue, Hermiston, threw a rock and broke a window of a passing car, and the male driver stopped, got out and yelled at the female. A witness reported the incident.
- A Morrow County sheriff's deputy at 10:47 a.m. contacted a hunter for "displaying a suspicious looking decoy" at Paterson Ferry Road and Highway 730, Irrigon.
- A Pendleton resident at 11:24 a.m. on Southwest 43rd Street told police the dogs he complained about continue to bark all the time, and another resident at 12:21 p.m. asked police to have her neighbors on the 800 block of Northwest Fifth Street to quiet their drum playing.
- A mother at 1:15 p.m. asked Pendleton police to check on the welfare of her daughter. She said she went to her daughter's residence at South Hill Apartments, 248 S.W. 28th Drive, Pendleton, and the boyfriend yelled at her.
- Umatilla police at 4:14 p.m. received a report of an armed man by a white Dodge Charger yelling at a male at Martin Drive and Carolina Road. The armed man drove the Dodge on Carolina, but police did not find him.

Dorothy Anna Lu (Hall) Schild

College Place, Washington
 Oct. 28, 1924-Oct. 25, 2015

Dorothy Anna Lu (Hall) Schild was born in Hermiston, Oregon on October 28, 1924, to parents, Alfred Arthur and Katie (Smith) Hall, the youngest of three children. She was raised and attended school in Hermiston, Oregon. She passed on October 25, 2015, three days prior to her 91st birthday in Walla Walla, Washington.

She married Russell Blower in 1944 of Lakeport, California. He passed away in 1956. Dorothy later married Glenn Carr, a widower with three children from Milton-Freewater, OR in 1958. He passed away suddenly in 1961. In 1964, she met and married Emil Schild, also a widower with two children in College Place, WA. They later settled in Milton-Freewater, Oregon. Emil passed away in 2001, again leaving her a widow alone. Dorothy moved into Eagle Meadows Assisted Care Living Facility in College Place, Washington. In 2015, illness forced her to move into Regency at the Park Nursing Home, where she has lived since.

Dorothy is a member of the Seventh-day Adventist Church in College Place. She worked as a nurse's aide for many years. Dorothy and Emil Schild helped to manage a nursing home in Milton-Freewater for a number of years. She loved gardening, needlework, reading, crossword puzzles and reading her Bible until declining health prevented her from doing many of the things she enjoyed.

She has survived the loss of her parents, her three husbands, two brothers: James Carl Hall in 1998 and Edward Eugene Hall in 1985, stepsons: Leon Carr in 2011 and Floyd Schild in 2014; a niece: Carla (Hall) Howard in 2008, and a nephew: James Hall in 2013.

Her remaining family consists of step-children: Donna Schild (Floyd), Milton-Freewater, OR; Kathleen (Schild) Thompson, Nampa, ID; Neil Carr, College Place, WA; and Nelda (Carr) King, Weston, OR; two nieces: Barbara (Hall) Horn, Hermiston, OR; Gisele (Hall) Blanton, Federal Way, WA; two nephews: Edward A. Hall, Pendleton, OR; and Edward E. Hall Jr., Greeley, CO; and many other extended family members.

A private family burial will take place at the Hermiston Cemetery next to her first husband, Russell Blower.
