

PUBLIC SAFETY LOG

TUESDAY

- A caller at 8:49 a.m. reported a man driving a pickup on Gerking Flat Road, Athena, shot from the window of his vehicle.
- The Umatilla County Sheriff's Office at 11:12 a.m. received a call about a resident on North Cabana Road, Hermiston, who has too many animals to care for and that his property could be in violation of county codes.
- A woman told Pendleton police at 12:50 p.m. she was the victim of identity theft, and the culprit was her mother, who racked up $700 in power bills.
- A Weston woman at 2:38 p.m. reported the theft of horse tack and more from her property on North Water Street.
- An Irigoin resident on Pheasant Lane told law enforcement at 3:09 p.m. she was walking through her back pasture and saw that people living in a white trailer behind Division Street took down her fence and used it to build a small enclosure on their property.
- Pendleton police at 5:06 p.m. received a report about two juveniles pushing a shopping cart while on a skateboard at Pendleton Woolen Mills, 1307 S.E. Court Square, and then they rode the cart down the street.
- Umatilla police warned the owner of a collie mix to keep control of the dog after a caller at 5:38 p.m. reported the animal chased his daughter on John Day Street.
- A man at 7:48 p.m. told law enforcement multiple vehicles speed up and down East Elm Avenue between Northeast 10th Street and Townsend Avenue, and he also was upset with noise from them revving their engines and the loud exhausts throughout the day.
- A member of the Juniper Neighborhood Watch on Cresswell and Despain Gulch roads, Pendleton, told the Umatilla County Sheriff's Office at 8:22 p.m. she saw suspicious activity at about 5:30 p.m. on Despain Gulch. A late '90s model silver GMC Yukon coming from Hermiston turned onto Cresswell Road and pulled over as soon as she drove behind it, then another car stopped there as well. She said she went back at 6:15 p.m. and saw three vehicles there, and "the people all ran back to their rigs and left the area." She said one left toward Pendleton and two toward Hermiston, and there were "peel out tracks all over the road and tracks into the field."
- A man at 8:29 p.m. reported for the last two nights a silver Cadillac STS at about 8 p.m. parked across the field from his house on East Progress Road, Hermiston, and as soon as he started to drive away, the Cadillac speeds off on Diagonal Road toward Hermiston. He said the driver is a female, and there is a male passenger.
- A Pendleton caller at 9:09 p.m. reported a man was looking in the window of the neighbor's car on Southwest Isaac Avenue. Police did not find the possible car prowler.
- And yet another call about suspicious activity came in at 10:45 p.m. when a resident on Southwest Goodwin Avenue, Pendleton, told police someone was banging on her door, and when she asked who was there no one answered, but they kept hitting the door. Police looked but again did not find anyone.

OBITUARIES

Virgie Jarrell

Umatilla

Oct. 18, 1924-Oct. 25, 2015

Virgie Jarrell, a longtime Umatilla resident and volunteer, passed away Sunday the 25th of October at the age of 91.

Virgie brought love through her cooking and baking to the Umatilla Senior Center, preparing the luncheons there for many years. As a result of her commitment to the community, she was voted Volunteer of the Year and Grand Marshal of the Umatilla Parade on more than one occasion. Virgie, with her Friday Luncheon menu segment, was also a bit of a local radio celebrity.

Virgie was born in California and relocated to the Umatilla area in the 1980s. Along with cooking, she loved the Lord, and attending church. She enjoyed gardening, reading and laughing with friends and family. She will be missed by all.

She is preceded in death by Homer, her husband, and Jason, her first grandchild.

She is survived by her sons, Clyde of Los Angeles, CA; Phillip of Spokane, WA; Daniel (and wife Patty) of Aberdeen, MD; and her daughter, Katherine Weaver (and husband Rick) of Charlotte, NC. Virgie leaves behind five wonderful grandchildren (Ashley, Taylor, Bryan, Megan, Kari), and two great-grandchildren (Haley, Jason).

A memorial service to celebrate her life is planned for Sunday, Nov. 1st at 6 p.m. at the Umatilla Assembly of God.

Virgie Jarrell
