

PUBLIC SAFETY LOG

WEDNESDAY

- A man at 8:57 a.m. reported the theft of a white 2006 Chevrolet 1500 extended cab pickup from paving Contractors Granite Northwest Inc./Blue Mountain Asphalt, 81500 Lind Road, Hermiston.
- An anonymous caller at 10:13 a.m. reported an employee of Milton-Freewater drives intoxicated on a daily basis in a company pickup.
- A caller at 11:07 a.m. reported an explosion on Northwest 11th Street, Pendleton, that knocked out power. The caller said perhaps a transformer blew up. Police did not find the site of the boom and flash.
- A Pendleton resident at 12:59 p.m. reported a neighbor in an apartment on Southwest Emigrant Avenue does not clean up after his dog defecates on the sidewalk.
- A father at 6:26 p.m. reported someone burglarized his son's house on Tum A Lum Road, Milton-Freewater, and stole a couple of TVs while the son was in jail.
- A Umatilla woman at 7:41 p.m. reported it looked like someone tried to break into the neighbor's vans on Highway 730, but the suspect got into a pickup and headed toward McNary Dam.
- A Pendleton man at 10:57 p.m. reported he just got to his home on Northeast Anvidon Street and found someone had been inside and moved and knocked over items.
- An employee of the Red Lion Hotel, 304 S.E. Nye Ave., Pendleton, reported guests ordered room service and were not able to pay for the meal.

ARRESTS, CITATIONS

- Umatilla police arrested Roger William Shipley, 48, of Umatilla, on a parole violation warrant and for possession of methamphetamine.
- A nervous Milton-Freewater man is behind bars in Pendleton on felony drug charges.

Oregon State Police reported one of its troopers stopped a southbound Dodge Stealth at 7:24 p.m. on Highway 37 at Northwest Furnish Avenue, Pendleton. The driver, Marcial Corrales Jr., 30, of Milton-Freewater, "was extremely nervous," according to report from state police, and tried to show an expired Mexican driver's license before admitting he had an Oregon identification card. State police also noted Corrales was "inconsistent with his reason for driving and exhibited other indicators of deceitfulness."

Corrales gave the trooper permission to search the car, according to state police, and during the search he dropped a small plastic bag containing a crystal substance that a test later showed to be methamphetamine.

The trooper found more baggies of meth in the car, along with a pipe and scale. In all, according to state police, Corrales had half an ounce of the drug. The trooper booked Corrales into the Umatilla County Jail on charges of possession and delivery of meth.

William Vernon Wise

Madras

February 3, 1922-Oct. 17, 2015

William Vernon Wise, 93, was born February 3, 1922, in Wyndham, Montana. He was born to Vernon and Lela at the home of his grandparents, Silas and Addie Salter. He died on October 17, 2015, at his home in Madras, Oregon.

"Bill" stated school in Mikkalo, Oregon at age 4 as William Vernon Biddle and later moved with his family to Ione, Oregon. He graduated from Ione High School in 1939.

He went to vocational school in Pendleton, Oregon where he also took personal flying lessons. He said he washed dishes after school for $6 a week and paid $6 per flying lesson. He then worked in the shipyards in Bremerton, Washington before enlisting.

Bill enlisted in the Army Air Corps in 1942. He earned the ranks of 1st Lieutenant, as well as the rank of Captain by the end of the war. He flew B-24 Bombers in the 13th Air Force, Long Rangers over Borneo in the Philippine Islands.

In 1994, Bill and his crew flew the longest flight (at that time) over the ocean with a crippled B-24 with only 2 of 4 working engines. For this flight, Bill and all his crew each earned a Bronze star.

Before he was discharged he was married to Fredamae Schaefer. They lived in Pampa, Texas while Bill finished military service. After Bill's discharge from the service, they moved to Mikkalo, Oregon, where they became wheat and cattle ranchers. Over the years Bill and Fredamae had seven children: Sharla Louise, William Wayne, Wesley Vernon, Robert Charles, Kelly Mae, David Lee and Pamela Delight.

While ranching and raiding a family in Mikkalo, Bill developed various interests, such a boating and water skiing, fossil hunting, learning French, as well as Spanish, and reading nonfiction. He studied wildlife in the area and practiced photography. He enjoyed flying planes as well as playing his guitar. Family was important to him and every two years he and his family would attend a family reunion at Diamond Lake, Oregon.

Bill was a solid member of the community of Mikkalo. He took part in group projects, helped his neighbors and took his turns on the local school board. He was someone on whom the neighbors could depend.

Bill's wife Fredamae passed away on December 24, 1981. Later Bill married Margaret Christian on June 16, 1985. He retired from ranching in 1988. They moved to Madras, Oregon. Bill, as well as Margaret, liked speaking Spanish. They traveled to Mexico a couple of times during their marriage. They enjoyed playing guitar and piano and singing songs. Both enjoyed studying geology and collecting rocks.

Bill is predeceased by his sister, Georgia (Joy) Parker, Ridgecrest, California; his half-sister, Dean Weaved, Florence, Oregon; and his step-daughter Susan Eichler, Gresham, Oregon.

He is survived by his wife, Margaret Wise, Madras, Oregon; his two remaining sisters, Darlene Hoskins, Heppner, Oregon, and Delight Adams, Oregon City, Oregon; and his children, Sharla Fischer, Portland, Oregon; Wayne Wise, Weston, Oregon; Wesley Wise, Irrigon, Oregon; Chuck Wise, Condon, Oregon; Kelly Lemay, Grants Pass, Oregon; David Wise, Mikkalo, Oregon; and Pamela Moorhead, Albany, Oregon.

Bill is also survived by his step-children, Mary Willson, Puyallup, Washington; Barbara Wise, Weston, Oregon; Dr. David Eichler, North Pole, Alaska; Kenneth Eichler, Amity, Oregon.

A family gathering in Madras, Oregon, to honor Bill, is scheduled in November. A graveside gathering at the Olex Cemetery in Olex, Oregon will also take place at a later date.

Jacelyn (Jace) Loyce Black

Hermiston

Nov. 24, 1978-Oct. 25, 2015

Jacelyn Loyce Black (Jace), 36, a former Grant County resident passed away Oct. 25, 2015 in Richland, Washington, after succumbing to injuries from an automobile accident that occurred on Oct. 19, 2015, in Hermiston, Oregon. A funeral service will be held at 1 p.m. Saturday at the Prairie City Baptist Church in Prairie City, Oregon, graveside service will follow at the Canyon City Cemetery and a reception will be held at the John Day Senior Center.

Black

Jace was born Nov. 24, 1978, in John Day, Oregon, to Mary Lou (Phillips) Campbell and Jimmy R. Black. Although Jacelyn was diagnosed with Down Syndrome, she quickly became the ray of sunshine for her parents, brother, sister and loving extended family and friends.

Jace began some early intervention programs as an infant and continued her education in the Grant Union School District until she graduated from high school in 1997. During her years in school she was both a student and a teacher in that she helped lead the way for new ideas and programs to enrich the lives of herself and her peers.

She learned sign language, although her speech was very audible so she could communicate with those not so fortunate. Her childhood was full of engaging indoor and outdoor activities, in which she fully participated and was often the leader. Jace moved with her family to Hermiston, Oregon, in 1998 where she became involved with The Arc Umatilla County, People First, a job at McDonald's and continued participation in Special Olympics. Later she volunteered to read books to the children at the Hermiston Library.

She took great pride in having her own apartment that she shared with her cat, Patsy. Here she created amazing baked goods, crocheted hats, scarves and her hot pads to share with friends and family. Jace spent months preparing for holidays and never forgot a birthday (including her own). The children in her apartment complex gathered at her home to partake in her freshly baked food, games and crafts. She watched over, fed and brought these children in from the cold while they waited for their parents to return to their homes.

She is survived by parents, Mary Lou and Gordon Campbell of Pasco, Washington; father, Jim Black of Boise, Idaho; brothers, Aaron (Kirsten) Black, Zoey and Addison of Bend, Oregon; Ryan (Christie) Campbell, Lexie, Ryle and Mason of Pilot Rock, Oregon; sisters, Emily (Greg) Ransier, Natalie, Nathan and Kaelene of Pasco, Washington; Lindsay (Jeremiah) Maghan, Schade, Kellon, Brogan and Alex, Angie (Neal) Raynor of Scotland; grandmother, Loyce Phillips, numerous aunts, uncles, cousins and extended family and friends.

Jace was preceded in death by grandparents, Jim and Betty Black of Boise, Idaho; grandfather, Stan Phillips of John Day.

Memorial contributions may be made to the Special Olympics, Grant County Library or charity of your choice through Driskill Memorial Chapel, 241 S. Canyon Blvd., John Day, OR 97845
